Christmas Card Delivery Depended On Silly Canine

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—This could be why the mail is sometimes late. Delivery of a Christmas card depended on a silly looking, long-legged dog.

Every year, long before the Christmas rush, Uncle Sam begins to plaster billboards with mail-easily slogans.

But Postmaster Roy Moncus feels that things reach a new low when all depends on a silly looking, long-legged dog.

That was how it looked to him. But it probably looked a great deal different to the sailor somewhere in the Pacific who wanted to send Miss Anne Kimbrough a Christmas card.

The card was addressed: "Miss Anne Kimbrough; red brick house at top of hill somewhere in Hollywood. . . (Postman: You'll know the house by silly looking little long-legged dog who lives there.) Homewood, Alabama."

Homewood is a suburb of Birmingham and Hollywood is a suburb of Homewood. That narrowed it down.

The postman who usually delivers the mail in the neighborhood knew of a silly looking long-legged dog that lives in a red brick house.

And so it is—neither rain nor snow, sleet nor hail, or long-legged dogs—shall interfere with the U.S. mail. The card was delivered to the house for which it
