

Groom-To-Be Clears Slate

MACON, Ga., (AP) — Charles Raymond Stepherson will go to his wedding with a clean police record here, even if he did flee a stockade sentence for drunk and disorderly conduct.

Stepherson, 24, ran afoul of the law in Macon a year ago. He fled home to Pensacola, Fla., got a job and then got a girl. When he told her about the Macon trip, she refused to marry him until he straightened out his police record.

Back to Macon went Stepherson and turned himself in. He went to Recorder's Court Wednesday and told his story.

Judge William W. Hemingway dismissed the charge—and to help Stepherson convince his sweetheart, the judge gave him a letter saying his record in Macon is clear.

National Demo Committee To Discuss '60 Conclave

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee will meet here Jan. 22 to discuss 1960 national convention and campaign plans.

While the meeting's agenda has yet to be decided, several state leaders have indicated they will fight National Chairman Paul M. Butler's proposal to penalize states behind in their campaign donations.

Some committeemen also have spoken up in favor of the Butler proposal which would assign convention seats and hotel rooms on the basis of state records of financial support of the National Committee in the 39 months up to April 1, 1960.

The Democrats have been having difficulties meeting current operating expenses at national headquarters while at the same time raising money to pay off a huge deficit from the 1956 campaign.

Another scrap that may materialize at the Jan. 22 meeting is a proposal which Illinois Committeeman Jacob M. Arvey has promised to put forward which would give the larger states greater voice in National Committee decisions.

Arvey would give each state the same number of votes in the committee as it has in the national convention instead of the traditional two votes each. On the basis of the 1960 convention vote apportionment, this would give New York 114 votes and Illinois 69 votes, with only 9 each for Vermont and Hawaii. All these states now have an even voice in the committee.

Committee officials see little chance of the Arvey proposal getting committee approval because many of the smaller states would refuse to give up the equal power they now enjoy with the larger states.

Cancer Claims Young 'Nun'

HAMDEN, Conn. (AP) — Four years ago, when Antoinette Galati was only 14, she had set her heart on becoming a Roman Catholic nun.

Thursday she got her wish. Antoinette entered Mt. Sacred Heart Convent here four years ago and started the long years of study that end in the nun's final vows. She realized she would be 29 before her studies were finished.

But last week the girl was taken sick. Doctors found that she had cancer. It would take her life soon, they said. They arranged for an operation, but they had little hope that it would help.

The doctors operated Thursday morning. Because the operation was so delicate, the girl was allowed to take her final vows as a nun beforehand, two years ahead of time.

When Antoinette came out of the operating room, she was Sister Mary Benjamin. And a few hours later the 18-year-old nun died. She will be buried Saturday in the Sisters plot at St. Lawrence Cemetery.

COUNTRY KNITTERS

The last meeting of the Country Knitters was held at the Charles Hale home. It was decided that the club should go Christmas caroling December 21, and meet at the Ralph Stearns home afterward for refreshments.

We also worked on Christmas lighting contest posters for our community service project.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by Dawn Hale.

HENLEY BEEF CLUB

This meeting of the Henley Beef Club was opened by a movie, "Ways to Raise Better Livestock," shown through the courtesy of Albers Milling and Carnation Farms. It showed the ways in which to feed the different products.

We also filled out record books. Dale Williams asked for any feeding problems we might have. We elected a new song leader, Neal Buchanan, to replace Don Berry. Karen Dixon was elected to assist Linda Taylor in making calls to the club members.

In the morning we weighed calves. Those weights are: Cheryl West, 580; Linda Lanphear, 415; Robert Ritter, 490; Lila Ritter, 660; Phillip Dixon, 425; Karen Dixon, 480; Steve Dixon, 265; Don Breithaupt, 480. Carolyn Brower, 480; Bob Brower, 510 and 465; Bill Taylor, 625 and 560; Linda Taylor, 565; Juanna Goode, 615; Steve Cheyne, 595; Neal Buchanan, 615.

Later, we went out and tried to guess the weights of Bill and Linda's calves. Don Breithaupt won a curry comb donated by Charlie Read's Saddlery.

Also we discussed our money making project of the year. It was decided to have a combination card party-pie social and dance on March 5. A committee headed by Carolyn Brower and Linda Taylor will make arrangements.

After the meeting Mrs. Taylor served refreshments. Next meeting will be held at the home of Juanna Goode, January 10, at 1:30. We will start weighing at Cheryl West's home at 8:30.
