Wrist Watches Are Located

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Three wrist watches of a type thought to contain possible radioactive strontium were located Thursday in El Paso by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The watches are Rolex GMT-Master wrist watches and also bear the marking Oyster Perpetual on the face. They are manufactured by a Swiss company.

The AEC and the distributor are trying to get back all of this type watch because of the possibility that some may contain dangerous amounts of the radioactive material.

Highest Scouting Award Presented Lakeview Youth

LAKEVIEW — Boy Scouting's highest award, Eagle Rank, was conferred upon Charles Grindstaff of Explorer Post 115 during a Lake District court of honor in Memorial Hall December 10. Eight other Scouts received achievement awards.

Grindstaff, 16, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grindstaff of Lakeview. He joined Scout Troop 15, sponsored by the local Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and quickly rose to second and then first class rank in 1956.

Grindstaff achieved star rank and became a life scout in 1958. He was one of the first local youths to transfer from Boy Scouts into Explorer Post 115 when it was activated under the new Explorer program in January this year.

During his four years as a scout he won merit badges for reading, forestry, first aid, safety, wildlife management, camping, world brotherhood, home repair, basketry, swimming, life saving, public health, hiking, nature, pioneering, soil and water conservation, firemanship, cooking, physical fitness, citizenship in the home and citizenship in the community and nation.

The formal ceremony and presentation was conducted by Ron Phair of Klamath Falls, Modoc Scout Council Explorer Committee chairman and a member of the council executive board.

The following boys from Troop 41, sponsored by Union Parent Teacher Association and led by Scoutmaster Ralph Patrick, received these awards: Bruce Wyman, Tom

Oakley and Dennis Patrick, first class badge; Bruce Wyman, first aid merit badge; Tom Oakley, hog production badge, and Mike Patrick, farm and home planning, and camping merit badges. Explorers from Post 115 won the following wards: Mike Deming, Eagle silver palm, chemistry merit badge; Mike Brock, forestry;

Vaughn Byington, forestry; Charles Grindstaff, forestry; Sandy Meisner, swimming, personal fitness, public health and reading. Cecil Hopkins is adviser.

GRANGE NEWS

LOST RIVER GRANGE

LOST RIVER—Lost River grangers who won at a card party Friday night refused to accept their prizes, preferring to add them to proceeds for the Hospital Survey Fund.

Twenty three dollars was added to the fund.

Women's and men's high prizes were won by Ethel Henry and Bill Almeter. Gertie Huff won second among women and Duncan Stewart second among men. Pinocle winners were Iva Phillips and Dacie Hoover.

About 45 persons attended.

SCOTT VALLEY GRANGE

GREENVIEW — At the recent meeting of the Scott Valley Grange in Greenview the group voted to begin painting the dining room after the holidays and made arrangements for drilling a new well.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, delegates, reported on the 87th State Grange Convention at Long Beach.

Mrs. Myrtle Brown reported that Mrs. Eugenia DeGroff of Maine was named the "best-in-a-million" cake baker at the National Grange luncheon and cake baking contest.

UNMOUNTED COP READY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mounted policeman John Ready got a taste of the foot patrolman's job Thursday night. Ready had to dismount when a suspected purse snatcher he was galloping after dashed into an apartment building. The puffing mountie got his man after a chase up 13 flights of stairs. Ready brought the suspect down by elevator.
