

Carol Ann Reiling Weds Stanley A. Harnsberger

Carol Ann Reiling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Reiling, became the bride of Stanley A. Harnsberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Harnsberger on November 21 at the Mt. Laki Church. The colors of maroon, rose and pink were chosen by the bride as the color scheme for her wedding. Large chrysanthemums in these shades were arranged in tall beauty baskets beside lighted tapers in floor candelabra as a colorful background for the 7:30 ceremony officiated by the Rev. Andrew A. Jarvis.

Approximately 200 guests were present as the bride approached the altar wearing a lovely gown of white Chantilly lace over satin. A full floor length skirt fell gracefully from the fitted bodice which featured a Sabrina neckline, long sleeves, pointed at the wrist. A tiara of Chantilly lace held the fingertip illusion veil and she carried a single white orchid arranged with stephanotis and long white ribbon streamers on a white Bible borrowed from her maid of honor. Also for tradition she wore a lucky penny in her slipper and a blue garter and carried a handkerchief belonging to her mother.

The bridal attendants were dressed in velvet frocks made with fitted bodices, vee necklines and semi-full skirts. Velvet bow headbands and satin slippers matched the dresses. Alice Hatchett, maid of honor, wore a maroon frock, and bridesmaids Margaret Carson, rose, and Mrs. Philip Swisher, pink. Each carried a matching velvet muf to which was pinned a bouquet of stephanotis with white ribbon streamers. Cumberbunds of the three attendants were made of the three colors.

Ginger and Jean Harnsberger, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

Wilbur C. Harnsberger Jr. was best man for his brother. Ushers were Barton D. Brown and Richard Hill.

Marilyn Mack was the organist and Mrs. Dayton Finchum the soloist.

The newlyweds received congratulations at a reception immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Basil Brown, close friend of the couple, decorated the parlors using the same color theme. She also served as hostess. A three tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served by Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. William Steiner, Mrs. Harry Larson and Mrs. W. L. Clement. At the coffee service were Mrs. Wilbur Reiling, Mrs. A. R. Dickson, Mrs. Paul Hatchett and Mrs. Emil Wells. Gifts were received by Mrs. Wilbur C. Harnsberger and Sheila Kunz presided at the guest book. For traveling the new Mrs. Harnsberger wore a moss green and blue wool suit with black accessories and the bridal orchid pinned at her shoulder. A graduate of Henley High School she attended Oregon State College and is presently employed at LaPointe's.

The bridegroom, also a Henley High School graduate, attended Oregon State College. He is associated with his father and brother in farming in the Spring Lake District. The young couple's address is Route 1, Box 681.

Out-of-town guests included the grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. A. F. Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Summers of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harnsberger of Salem; Edward Harnsberger, Independence; Mr. and Mrs. Marion D. Johnson of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnson, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larson of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clement, Macdoel.

Prior to her wedding the bride-elect was honored at a shower given by the Poe Valley Home Economics Club at the Poe Valley Community Hall. The hall was beautifully decorated with a lattice entwined with flowers of the honored guest's colors, maroon, rose and pink. A large number of friends and relatives from both Poe Valley and Henley attended. Included in the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Fred Reiling of Grants Pass, the bride-elect's grandmother, and her aunt, Mrs. Marion Johnson of Roseburg.

MR. AND MRS. STANLEY A. HARNBERGER
—Photo by Ferebee

NEWLYWEDS Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harnsberger cut and tasted the first slice of their wedding cake at the reception in the Mt. Laki Church parlors following their marriage on November 21.
— Photo by Ferebee

Bethel 51

Henley Bethel 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, met December 7 at the Henley Grange Hall with Honored Queen Virginia Hunt presiding. Introduced and welcomed were Edna May McCollum, past honored queen of Bethel 6; Hazel Jo DeLamater, past honored queen, Bethel 51; Gretchen Thompson, Cole Brown and Inez DeLamater, past guardians of Bethel 51; and Homer DeLamater and Bob Dehlinger, past associate guardians of Bethel 51. Guardian Orabelle Rhodes introduced Phyllis Poole, past guardian of Bethel 6, and Laverne Lassett of Klamath Falls.

Four new members initiated were Sandra Woodard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Woodard; Julie McCollum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCollum; Pamela DeLap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLap; and Carole Ziegelmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ziegelmeyer. All parents were present for the ceremony, and were introduced to the Bethel by their daughters.

Officers elected to serve for the coming term are Sandy Short, honored queen; Beverly Moffitt, senior princess; Julie Rhodes, junior princess; Cindy Dehlinger, guide; and Colleen Finchum, marshal. Installation will be held early in January.

Honored Queen Virginia set December 20 as the date for her Goto-Church Sunday, at Mt. Laki Church.

The next meeting will be held December 21, and will be followed by a Christmas caroling tour and party.

Nevada Coed Receives Award

DORRIS—Mary Kay Hamilton, sophomore at the University of Nevada, won a $50 scholarship as the Gamma Phi Beta pledge with the highest grade average.

The Mothers' Club and the Alumnae Club awarded the scholarship after she attained a 3.5 grade average last semester.

The award was announced at the annual Founders' Day dinner held recently at the Hidden Valley Country Club.

Mary Kay earlier this year was the recipient of a $300 out-of-state tuition scholarship awarded by the University of Nevada.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hamilton of Dorris.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT PAUL CRAPO
— Photo by Miller-Williams

Crapo-Caldwell Vows Exchanged In Church Rites

A wedding ceremony the evening of November 28 at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church united in marriage Mary Lou Caldwell and Robert Paul Crapo in the presence of 130 guests. The 7:30 double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Laing W. Sibbett before the altar decorated with basket arrangements of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and gladioli and autumn leaves.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Caldwell, 4829 Cottage Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crapo of Spring Lake are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown featuring a Chantilly type lace bodice with Sabrina neckline re-embroidered with iridescent sequins and long pointed sleeves. The very full skirt was fashioned with lace front and back panels and tiers of nylon tulle ruffles on the sides. A princess Eugenie cap, re-embroidered with sequins and seed pearls and trimmed at the point with a cultured pearl drop, held the fingertip veil. She also wore the traditional blue garter and coin in her slipper. The bridal bouquet was a white orchid arranged in a cascade of stephanotis.

Rosalie Caldwell of Ashland was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a waltz length frock of shrimp nylon over taffeta, with matching headband and mitts. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze shattered chrysanthemums.

Best man was Raymond Tarwater and ushers were Harry Daudt of Ashland and L. W. Barleen.

Mrs. Margaret Sheridan was the soloist and Mrs. Jim Crapo the organist.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Caldwell chose a beige brocade sheath and jacket dress with a corsage of talisman rosebuds. Mrs. Crapo wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

At the reception following the ceremony the wedding cake was served by Mrs. Louise Lowe, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Louise Daudt of Scotia, Nebraska, the bride's grandmother, presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Dorothy Chepin of Medford poured punch. Virginia Foster and Mrs. Marylou Lindsay received gifts and Mrs. Betty Crapo was in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Crapo's travel ensemble was a green sheath and jacket dress with matching hat, black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. She is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and is a member of Venture Club and Shasta View Grange. Her husband attended Henley High School and served with the Air Force. He is a member of Midland Grange. They will reside at 2740 Derby Street in this city where he is employed as a carpenter.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Louise Daudt, Scotia, Nebraska; Harry Daudt and Rosalie Caldwell, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. John Chepin, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meglasson and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Decker, Macdoel; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fisher and daughter of Baker.

PROSPERITY OES

MALIN — Prosperity Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, met Thursday evening, December 10, at the Masonic Hall with Betty Halousek and Richard Halousek, worthy matron and patron presiding.

Pro tem officer was Laura Zlabek, Electa, and escorted to the east was Edna Hunnicutt, grand representative to Washington in Oregon.

The worthy matron read a Christmas poem and special event of the evening was a gift exchange. The hall and the dining room were attractively decorated in the Christmas theme by Gladys Halousek, Helen Ann Ottoman and Nell Retherath, who also served refreshments following the meeting.

It was announced that Prosperity Social Club will meet on the evening of December 29 at the home of Gertrude Henderson. The next regular meeting is January 14 with initiation to be held at that time.

Theta Rho Club Initiates Girls

Initiation ceremonies were held on December 7 in the 100F Hall by the Theta Rho No. 8 Girls Club. The six girls initiated were Nancy Holston, Paulette Malm, Ramona Soto, Judy Hall, Emilie Pastega and Sharon McCormick. Rebekahs attending the ceremony included Jennie Hurn, Edna Hall, Ollie Hanna, Helen Hlanas and Naomi Fay. Jennie Hurn gave a short talk.

A Christmas party has been scheduled for next Monday, December 21, in honor of the girls' mothers and Rebekah members. The girls will bring exchange gifts and the club will present gifts to each mother and Rebekah.

Theta Rho had charge of the hat check stand at the annual Policemen's Ball which was held on Thanksgiving Eve. Donna Odell was in charge of this project.

Theta Rho recently held election of officers. They are Donna Fay, president; Maxine Kramer, vice president; Cheryl Rathmach-

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

TULELAKE — New officers of the Holy Cross Catholic Parish Altar Society were elected during a regular meeting December 9 at the home of Mrs. Bob Baker. Deloris Torrigino was elected president for the coming year. Other officers are Norma Frey, first vice president; Wilma Woods, second vice president; Caroline Aslett, secretary; and Grace Wood, treasurer. The meeting featured a Christmas party and gift exchange.

Ladies' Zipper Case
MANICURE SETS
$1.00 - $27.00
CURRIN'S DRUGS
In The Village Court
840 Main

CAN YOU USE THIS...?

You can if you are planning a holiday party. This is just one of hundreds of items you can rent at Valley Rental. Visit us soon!

Remember, money won't buy everything... but it's amazing what it will rent.

Valley Rental Service

1003 E. Main

UNDECIDED? Give a Dick Reeder's

Gift Certificate

in any denomination
or for any of Dick Reeder's famous brands!

- ★ FLORSHEIM SHOES
- ★ STETSON HATS
- ★ ARROW SHIRTS
- ★ PENDLETON SHIRTS & ROBES
- ★ KUPPENHEIMER SUITS
- ★ FAMOUS NAME LUGGAGE for Men and Women

This is just a few of the dozens of nationally advertised brands featured at Dick Reeder's!

Beautifully Gift Wrapped at No Extra Charge
JUST SAY: "CHARGE EM"

DICK REEDER'S STORE FOR MEN

6th & Main

Phone TU 4-6621

Use Our Free Customer Parking Lot - 5th & Klamath Dick Reeder Is Always Glad To Cash Your Paycheck!

There's something special about her gift when it's from Whytal's

Whytal's

DISTINCTIVE APPAREL
9th & Main PH TU 4-8222

For your shopping convenience, Whytal's will be open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings till 9:00

This Christmas Give Ethan Allen!

Ethan Allen

FURNITURE
FOR FAMILY
LIVING

If you enjoy the pleasures of family living and friendly entertaining, you'll love the warmth and welcoming cheer of our open stock Ethan Allen furniture by Baumritter. Astonishingly lovely solutions to storage and decorating problems in every room—more than 250 pieces to choose from. Most modestly priced, too.

We Give "A.N." Green Stamps

TOWER
FURNITURE

WE MAKE YOUR HOUSE A HOME

12th and MAIN STREET
Klamath Falls, Oregon 97603