Auxiliary Honors Grand Officer

At the close of the regular meeting of the Ewauna Ladies Encampment Auxiliary, members of the Encampment arrived to join in honoring Harriett Estes, grand outside guardian of Oregon. She was escorted to the center of the hall where Mae Anderson, in behalf of the members, presented her a cup and saucer for her collection. Following the program the group adjourned to the dining room where tables were decorated in purple and gold. A cake, decorated in the same colors and inscribed with the name "Harriett," centered the head table.

Matriarch Alice Lawrence presided at the regular business session prior to the program. Election of officers named Anna Erickson as matriarch; Frances Munsell, high priestess; Cordelia Cantrell, senior warden; Harriett Estes, scribe; Mae Anderson, treasurer; Jennie Hurn, junior warden.

A report was made on sick members and cards were sent to them.

BISHOP VISITS

LANGELL VALLEY—Sixty five attended the potluck supper and church services at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church December 14, when Bishop Lane Barton of Burns visited here. The potluck supper was served at 6:30 followed by church services.

Ronelda Gale, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gift, was baptized. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wooten, Virginia Noble and Dee Milne were confirmed.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

GREENVIEW—A birthday party at the home of Mrs. Georgena Mallow on December 5 honored her daughter, Dee Mallow, 10, and Milton Hughes, 11. Children attending were Clarence and Donald Grossen, Ileen Walters, Carol and Connie Black, O'leen Bolts, Mary and James Gordon, Ronald Whipple, Lyle Stoner, Johnny Crechriau, Bobby and Kenny Berryhill, Jerry Floyd and Diana Kopf. Sending gifts were Terry Butler, Lorraine Sheffield and Mike Whipple.

HANDY CONTAINER

A discarded pill bottle is a handy container for the baby oil you keep on your make-up tray. It's just the right size to dip in a cotton-tipped stick.

Encampments Meet For Party

YREKA—Members of Siskiyou Ladies Encampment No. 15, and Siskiyou Encampment of the International Order of Odd Fellows, and their families, recently gathered in the Odd Fellows Hall for their annual turkey dinner party with Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hammond as host and hostess.

Mrs. Sylvia Thomason, Mrs. Alice Singleton and Mrs. Beatrice South were the committee in charge of decorations carrying out a holiday motif.

The dinner was followed with a regular meeting of the Siskiyou LEA, which was conducted by Chief Matriarch Winifred Kirkpatrick.

Election of officers was held during the business session, and those chosen to serve for the coming year were Mrs. Beatrice South, chief matriarch; Mrs. Alice Singleton, high priestess; Mrs. Elita Phelps, senior warden; Mrs. Sylvia Thomason, junior warden; Mrs. Helen Hitchcock, scribe; and Mrs. Lucile Baker, treasurer.

Mrs. Baker was also recommended for district deputy grand matriarch, and at an earlier meeting.

ing, V. V. Henderson was recommended by Siskiyou Encampment No. 15 for district deputy grand matriarch.

The evening's activities were closed with exchange of Christmas gifts from an attractively decorated Christmas tree.

Beta Sigma Phi

The Christmas party of Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held at the home of Margie Bocchi on December 15. All members brought gifts for the patients of Fairview Home and food for the family the group is assisting this Christmas.

A farewell gift was presented to Iris Hassfeld, who is leaving to make her home in Sacramento.

A gift exchange preceded refreshments prepared by all of the members.

Tau chapter members attended the annual "fun party" at the YMCA on December 1.

The proceeds from the Christmas card sale amounted to $75 and this amount has been donated to the hospital survey fund.

A new member, Joan Hall, was welcomed at the last meeting in November.

REBEKAH OFFICERS

McCLOUD—Shasta Lily Rebekah Lodge No. 345 of McCloud elected the following slate of officers for 1980: Addie Mason, noble grand; Illama Hitchcock, vice noble grand; Julia Olovson, secretary and Edith Glover, treasurer. Plans were completed for the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs annual Christmas party which was held December 16.
