Stocks WALL STREET NEW YORK (AP) - The stock market closed lower today in active trading. Some losses were wide. Volume for the day was estimated at 3 million shares compared with 2,320,000 on Thursday. Losses of fractions to a point or so outnumbered gainers among pivotal stocks. Declines of several points were registered by a few wide movers. Ampex was down more than 9 in a continued decline. General Time lost a half dozen in profit taking. Polaroid and Texas Instruments dropped about 4 each and Universal Match was down more than 3. Zenith and Minnesota mining lost more than a point each. Losses of about 2 were shown by Goodyear and U. S. Gypsum. Westinghouse Electric advanced about 2. Up about a point were Phelps Dodge, General Motors and Commonwealth Edison.

Union States Poll Rejects Latest Offer

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Steelworkers Union said today its private poll of workers shows 95 per cent favor rejecting the steel industry's latest settlement offer. David J. McDonald, union president, gave this report to newsmen as President Eisenhower's board of inquiry moved back into the dispute. The board, appointed under the Taft-Hartley law, was going through that law's prescribed procedures which could lead to a government-conducted referendum Jan. 11-13 on whether the workers want to accept management's last offer. If they do not accept an offer meantime, the union will be free to resume Jan. 25 the walkout which shut the mills for 116 days. They went back to work under an 80-day injunction. McDonald spoke informally with newsmen after a huddle with Eisenhower's three-man steel inquiry board headed by George W. Taylor. The Taylor group held a separate meeting with industry negotiators. The two sessions were apparently concerned only with preparations for an open hearing. The public session is for the purpose of getting a detailed explanation of all matters in dispute for inclusion in a report to Eisenhower due on Jan. 6. The Taft-Hartley law calls for such a report preliminary to a ballot of the workers on the industry's last offer. Though prospects for any settlement appeared dim, Taylor, a veteran labor troubleshooter, was expected to continue his efforts to nudge the disputants toward a peace pact. While top union and industry representatives were meeting with the Taylor panel, separate union-management bargaining sessions were continuing also with major steel companies. McDonald said these individual company negotiations were getting nowhere. "There's a lot of acrimony, we understand," McDonald said. Taylor also arranged to hold a news conference ahead of a public hearing on the status of the dispute. George Meany, AFL-CIO president, was due to testify at the hearing in behalf of the Steelworkers Union. The negotiations entered a new phase in an atmosphere of rising tension and thickening gloom.

FUNERAL SERVICES for Dr. Dean Hill Osborn, 74, who died in this city December 25 will be held in St. Paul's Episcopal Church Tuesday, December 29, at 10 a.m., the Rev. Robert Greene officiating. Cremation will follow at the Mountain View Crematory in Ashland. O'Hair's Memorial Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Reno Flight Appeal Issued

All persons, regardless of affiliation with any flying group or civic organization, who are interested in the establishment of West Coast Airlines air service between Klamath Falls and Reno are urged to write or wire the Civil Aeronautics Board, Commerce Building, Washington, D.C., before January 5. A brief of information regarding West Coast's application for a temporary permit to operate daily service between the two cities from January 5 through April 4, time of the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, has been filed with the CAB by the Klamath Chapter, Oregon Pilots Association. Some 50 letters have been sent out by the local chapter to other flying groups and to numerous cities urging similar action. Establishment of the temporary service, stated Maury Clark, newly-elected president of the Klamath Falls Chapter OPA, could lead to permanent air service on this vital route.

Meet To Mull Hunt Problem

SALEM (AP) - Hunters and livestock owners will square off against each other here Jan. 12 when the Governor's Committee on Natural Resources holds a hearing here on the problem of access to public and private lands. The livestock men will be here to demand that hunters stay off their lands. The hunters will come to demand the right to cross private lands in order to hunt on public lands. Dan Allen, secretary of the committee, said these agencies will present testimony: U.S. Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service, State Game Commission, Oregon Farm Bureau Federation, Oregon Cattlemen's Assn., Izaak Walton League, and Oregon Wildlife Federation.

D. Thompson Trial Starts

MEDFORD (AP) - The trial of a former California supermarket chain district manager for the armed robbery of a supermarket here opened today in Jackson County Circuit Court. The morning session of the trial of Donald Martin Thompson, 36, was devoted to selecting the jury, a process that was expected to last through the day. He is charged with the Sept. 7 holdup of a Medford Safeway store. Thompson was arrested in November at his $47,000 Klamath Falls home on a warrant issued at San Pablo, Calif. Thompson served as a district manager for the Purity Foods store chain in the San Francisco Bay area. After Thompson moved to Klamath Falls in April he worked as an efficiency expert for a supermarket chain there.

Airport Crowded

The sunny Klamath Falls airport has been a mecca today for north and southbound passenger planes which have been unable to dispatch passengers at Medford due to fog. Some 100 air travelers were accommodated at the terminal building at the field during the morning while awaiting transportation to Medford and other Rogue River Valley points or continuation of flights. Vance Hawley, chief traffic controller, handled four West Coast Airline DCs, two West Coast F27s and two United Air Line Convairs within a few hours before noon.

Firemen List Small Blazes

Suburban firemen received three alarms over the weekend. Little damage resulted from the fires. At 10:12 a.m. Saturday they reported to the home of Ruby Miller, 2096 Fargo Street. A cigarette dropped on a davenport and caused slight damage. The fire was out when firemen arrived. They were called at 7:37 p.m. Saturday to the residence of Jesse Bryan of 2118 1/2 Ward Street. An oil stove blew up, firemen said, scattering smoke and soot through the house, but otherwise causing no damage. Sunday at 5:30 p.m. they went to a home occupied by Delbert Woster of 2745 Homedale Road. A faulty chimney came apart and scattered smoke and soot over a porch. The incident also caused slight fire damage, firemen said. Other departments received no calls.

Northern Oregon beaches—Mostly fair through Tuesday, but with increasing high clouds Tuesday afternoon. Beach winds variable to easterly, 5-15 m.p.h. Temperature range 32-48. Western Oregon—Partly cloudy through Tuesday with patches of night and morning fog and low clouds in valleys. Highs 40-50; low tonight 25-35. Coastal winds easterly, 8-18 m.p.h., except northerly, 15-25 m.p.h., in afternoon along the south coast. Eastern Oregon—Generally fair except for patches of fog or low clouds in valleys. Highs 32-42, except 25-30 in fog areas; low tonight 12-24.

Police Report Little Action

The Christmas weekend was peaceful even for Klamath Falls police. Aside from arresting an average number of tipplers, officers: 1. Investigated a burglary reported by Mrs. Oscar Rylander; a thief entered her unlocked garage Saturday and stole about 30 empty bottles and a padlock from the garage door. 2. Heard from Benjamin F. Lambert of Route 3 that someone tore the top of his new convertible as it was parked in the city between 11:30 p.m. Saturday and 1 a.m. Sunday. 3. Looked into a complaint by Bill Glodowski of 630 Pine Street that vandals ripped a spotlight from his car as it was parked in a lot at 185 Pine early Sunday morning. They left the mangled light at the scene, he said. 4. Are looking for a green 1956 Lincoln automobile with a cream-colored top loaned by Eldon H. Age of 3957 Boardman Avenue to a friend Christmas Day. Age said he loaned the car to George Hughes for transportation to church. Hughes hasn't returned, he said. 5. Turned a 17-year-old over to juvenile authorities Saturday evening. The youth told officers he was "farmed out" by the McLaren School for Boys to a ranch family near Modoc Point and ran away about four months ago following an argument over wages. The youth said he has been all over the nation since then. He turned himself in. 6. Asked the finder to return a billfold reported lost by Leon Lybrand of 4145 Balsam Drive while he shopped in a downtown store Saturday noon. The billfold contained $5 in cash, a Weyerhaeuser Company payroll check worth $171 and valuable papers. Lybrand said he left the billfold on a counter.

Marine Kills Island Woman

NAHA, Okinawa (UPI) - Brig. Gen. John Ondrick, U. S. civil administrator, expressed "profound regret" today over the fatal shooting of an Okinawan woman last Saturday by a U. S. Marine sergeant who mistook her for a wild boar. The woman, Katsu Atokurane, 50, was killed by Marine Sgt. Charlie T. Brown on the restricted military firing range of Camp Hansen in central Okinawa. Ondrick said Brown also was deeply sorry over the incident. But he warned residents of the nearby village to pay more heed in future to laws forbidding them to enter restricted military areas. Brown was hunting wild boar when he accidentally shot the woman, who was hidden by heavy brush and whom he mistook for a boar. He summoned a doctor immediately, but she was dead when the doctor arrived.

Judges Declare Lighting Tie

LAKEVIEW—The judging committee for the home lighting contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Lakeview decided on two residences as first place winners in the inside-outside category. Cash prizes went to the Art Morton and A. L. Waltmire residences. They will each receive $25 of the cash prizes supplied by the California Oregon Power Company. Placing second in the category of the inside viewed from the outside was the Harold Cooper residence with a prize of $15, and a third of $10 was listed for the Fred Hinkle residence. The Con Flynn residence won second and $15 in the outside lighting category, and third to Duncan Lincoo. The number of homes brilliantly decorated for the season in the Lakeview vicinity provided a difficult job for the judges.

Cellophane Scene Given Top Yule Lighting Prize

Maxine Eisenberg of 1818 Prospect Street won the grand prize for the Christmas lighting contest, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, with her replica of a stained glass window done in colored cellophane, depicting the three Wise Men and an angel. She will receive $100 grand prize money and a revolving trophy, and $25 first prize for window displays and a plaque. Her name will automatically be entered in a national contest sponsored by the General Electric Company, offering prizes of up to $5,000. Winner of the first prize for yard decorations went to Charles L. Johnston of 4430 Laverne Avenue. His entry was a cleverly lighted display of choir boys.

Charles Griffiths of 3950 Shasta Way received the first prize for porch decorations with his gigantic snowman made of tumbledweed and lighted in unusual fashion. First prize for roof decorations went to John J. Novak Jr., of 1919 Manzanita Street. His display pictured a shepherd boy watching the Star of Bethlehem. The three each will win $25 and a plaque. Second winners for window, yard, porch and roof decorations respectively, were Robert Ellingson of 1700 Fremont Street (stained glass window display); Ruth O'Connell, 2327 Garden Avenue (Santa and his reindeer); Mrs. Clara Ballantyne of 320 Lewis Street (a Nativity scene and others); and Emil Schiesel Jr., 3693 Shasta Way (Nativity scene). Second prize winners will receive $15 each. Jaycees and judges said they saw lots of beautiful, possibly prize-winning displays around town which had not been entered in the contest. They asked those home owners to make an effort to compete next year.

Judge Sets Hearing Date

Frank L. Lounsbury Jr., 21-year-old tire repairman accused of shooting a fellow employe after a drinking party, requested a preliminary hearing in district court Monday. Lounsbury is charged with assault with intent to kill. He is accused of shooting Paul Clay, 37, in the abdomen with a .22 caliber revolver bullet, December 19. Lounsbury was represented by Attorney David R. Vandenberg Jr. at Monday's appearance before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor. Police said the shooting occurred at Schulze Tire Service, Spring and Main streets, during an after-hours drinking party. Clay was shot in the left front and the bullet was removed from his right rear midsection. Clay still was in Klamath Valley Hospital, where his condition was reported "fine." The preliminary hearing was scheduled for 1 p.m. Wednesday before Judge Van Vactor.

Bonanza Man Denies Guilt

Philip Duane Jackson of Bonanza entered not guilty pleas to three separate charges in a district court appearance today. Jackson, 23, asked for trials on two charges, assault and battery and lewd cohabitation. He requested a preliminary hearing on the third charge, assault with a dangerous weapon. His codefendant, Bernadine Dickens, 18, pleaded not guilty to the lewd cohabitation charge. District Judge D. E. Van Vactor scheduled future court appearances on all three charges. Jackson was arrested December 21 after a disturbance at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Anna May Copperfield, in Bonanza. In the course of the disturbance, Jackson was accused of striking Bertie May Joe and of pointing a .22 revolver at Mrs. Copperfield. Deputy Sheriff Bob Hartley said the disturbance developed from Jackson's attentions toward Miss Dickens. Judge Van Vactor scheduled a preliminary hearing on the assault with a dangerous weapon charge for 10:30 a.m. January 13. Jury trials were scheduled for the other two charges, at 10 a.m. January 21 on the lewd cohabitation charge against both defendants, and 10 a.m. January 26 on the assault and battery charge. Both defendants were returned to jail. Bail, totaling $3,250 for Jackson, was not changed for either defendant. Jackson and Miss Dickens were represented by Attorney Robert Redding.

Malin Club Lists Victors

MALIN—Winners in the Christmas outdoor lighting contest, sponsored by the Malin Garden Club and the California Oregon Power Company have been announced. In the over-all display division Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henderson won first place; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kujac second and honorable mention went to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Holl. First place winners in the window division were Mr. and Mrs. James Ottoman. Mervyn Wilde placed second. The winners in the best decorated door division were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dalton Jr., first; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byrne, second; and Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Lovens and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Draxil, honorable mention. In the junior division John Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Greene, won the prize for his over-all display. Cash awards were given to the first and second place winners in each division by the California Oregon Power Company. Judging was done by Mrs. Earl McFall, Mrs. Chester Stonecypher and Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, all of Tulelake, and was based on artistic effect, conformity with the Christmas spirit, originality and size. Posters to publicize the contest were made by the members of the Malin 4-H Knitting Club and placed in several Malin store windows. General chairman of this year's contest was Mrs. Walter Slastny.

Burgess Chosen Chamber Chief

LAKEVIEW—The new board of directors of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce has elected R. C. "Bud" Burgess president for the coming year. He will be installed with other new officers at the January annual dinner meeting. Burgess is district manager for the Bureau of Land Management. Other officers are Richard Probstel, vice president, and Ed Casto, treasurer. A tentative date of January 18 has been set for the dinner, according to Robert Nichols, chairman of the planning committee. This will also be ladies' night and the time when junior and senior citizen awards are made.

Judge Improving

Klamath County Judge Robert R. Walker is improving in Klamath Valley Hospital where he has been a patient since December 27. Walker developed a severe nose-bleed which took medical measures to check.
