Karen Hartley Is Bride In December Ceremony

Karen Lee Hartley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Hartley, became the bride of Jerry D. Switzler, son of Mrs. C. W. Switzler, at 8 p.m. on December 12 at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Large beauty baskets of white pompon chrysanthemums and red poinsettias provided a colorful background for the ceremony read by the Rev. Laing Sibbet. Prior to the service tall tapers in candelabra were lighted by the ushers, Carol Barnes and Gerald Switzler, nephew of the bridegroom.

Approximately 100 guests were present when Howard Hartley escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle. She wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over net and satin with scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. A half hat of sequins and seed pearls held a fingertip length veil and she carried a white orchid tied with satin streamers atop a white Bible. For tradition she wore a blue garter and lucky penny in her slipper.

Mrs. Freddie Morehead was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Elaine Jones and Carole Lee, both of Oakland, California. All were dressed alike in emerald green brocaded taffeta frocks with matching cummerbunds and small green headbands with short veils. The matron of honor carried a cascade bouquet of white poinsettias and the bridesmaids, red poinsettias.

Debbie McCracken was flower girl and Randy Mislter, the bridegroom's nephew of North Highlands, California, the ring bearer. Mrs. Ross Ragland played the wedding music and accompanied Carl Hagel, soloist.

Terry Smith of Klamath Falls was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hartley chose a beige lace sheath dress with brown accessories and a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Switzler wore a gray crepe suit, white hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The newlyweds received congratulations at the reception in the church parlor following the marriage ceremony. Poinsettias were used for decorations and the bride's table was centered with a three tiered cake decorated with red roses. It was served by the sister and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Orval English and Mrs. Van Switzler. Mrs. Gladys Ervin and Mrs. Frank Foster presided at the coffee services and Jeanna Switzler, niece of the bridegroom, poured punch. The guest book was passed by the bride's sister, Joan Hartley.

For traveling the new Mrs. Switzler changed to a blue wool sheath dress with matching hat and black patent accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet. She is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and attended the University of Oregon. She is presently employed at the Merchants Credit Service.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Central High School at Oklahoma City, served four years with the Air Force and is now an employee of Weyerhaeuser Company. They will reside at 125 Sheldon Street.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carol Mislter and Randy and Stephen of North Highlands, California.

Alturas Couple Exchange Vows

ALTURAS — Alvarita Kelly, granddaughter of Mrs. Beulah Allen, became the bride of Virgil Dick on December 22 when they exchanged marriage vows in the Federated Church. The Rev. Karl E. Olson read the nuptial ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick will be at home to their friends in Fort Bidwell after a brief honeymoon trip. Mrs. Dick is the great-granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hess of Southfork Valley in Modoc County.

Open House Held In Malin

MALIN—A delightful affair was the open house held Sunday afternoon, December 20, at the J. Walter Browning home near Malin. Many friends called between 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Browning, who is well known for her artistic ability, had many arrangements and decorations in the Christmas theme about her home. She had chosen the theme, "Look About Your Home for a Christmas Decor" for the party.

Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Browning, poured at the beautifully arranged refreshment table, and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Loyal Loveness, Mrs. Laddie Reimus, Mrs. Karl Kujac and Mrs. Hubert Morelock.

MUCH TRAVELED little boys, Michael, left, and Ronald, arrived with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Bramlett, to spend the Christmas holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bramlett in Klamath Falls. The youngsters with their mother, pictured with their other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Funk in Hershfeld, Germany. Their stay was prolonged until October in order to participate in the 908th anniversary of the founding of the town. At that time all shops and businesses are closed for the week long festivities. Society To Show Indian Artifacts

ALTURAS—The Modoc County Historical Society has received an invitation from Stockton College to exhibit some Indian artifacts in the library building of that college in February. The invitation was extended to the society through one of the college students, Mrs. Ora H. Demick, a sophomore, who is spending the holidays with her husband, Charles, in Alturas.

Exhibits by foreign students during the fall semester included articles of clothing, tableware, objects of art, jewelry and defense arms from Japan, Thailand, India and China.

The articles are displayed in locked glassed-in wall cases located in the corridors of the first and second floors of the library building.

President A. K. Wylie of the Modoc County Historical Society will appoint a committee to plan the exhibit.

Tibbs Family Visits Oregon

FORT JONES—Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Tibbs and their children, DeWayne, Judy and Jeffrey, visited in Fort Jones and Gilchrist, Oregon, over the holidays.

Tibbs' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tibbs of Fort Jones and Mrs. Tibbs' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buckley of Gilchrist, formerly of Fort Jones and Yreka.

They planned to return to their home in Santa Ysabel near San Diego January 4.

Tibbs is a foreman for the state Division of Forestry there.

REHEARSALS ANNOUNCED

MOUNT SHASTA—Mrs. Rilla Peterson, president of The Star-makers, Mount Shasta's little theater group, has announced that rehearsals will begin Monday evening, January 4, for a play, "The Night of January 16th," to be staged at a date yet to be set. This is a project sponsored by the Mount Shasta Recreational District. It is hoped that the show will take a high spot in the entertainment of the area.

SHIRLEY MARIE MOCK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mock of Malin, is the bride-elect of Paul Dean Malick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Malick of Lebanon. The engagement was recently announced on the Oregon State College campus when the traditional candle with blue carnations was passed among the bride-to-be's Alpha Delta Pi sorority sisters. Yarn dolls encircled with engagement rings were given as favors. Both young people are junior students at OSC where she is an elementary education major. Her fiancé attended Lewis and Clark College one year and served three years with the Army before entering electrical engineering school in Corvallis. No date has been set for the wedding. — Photo by Ferebee

CAPT. AND MRS. ARNOLD KONERZA

Local Couple Wed In Reno

Eva Taylor and Capt. Arnold Konerza exchanged wedding vows on December 12 at St. John's Presbyterian Church in Reno. The 10 o'clock ceremony was read by the Rev. G. Martin.

Attendants for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Don Bridge. Mrs. Simmons and Don Bridge are niece and nephew of the bride.

For her wedding the bride chose a sheath dress of ice blue brocade. She carried pink roses on a white Bible belonging to Mrs. Bridge.

Mrs. Simmons wore a beige dress and Mrs. Bridge's frock was tulle.

Corsages for both were of pink rosebuds.

Present for the ceremony were nieces of the bride, Jody and Judy Simmons and Starla, Vicki and Pamela Bridge.

Guests witnessing the ceremony were the bride's sister, Mrs. Don Myer of Santa Monica, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bridge of Klamath Falls, Captain and Mrs. George Spring and Lieutenant and Mrs. Jim Herman, all of Sacramento, and Capt. Bert Cubbitt of Winemucca.

The newlyweds are at home at 2344 Union Street in this city. Captain Konerza is stationed at Kingsley Field.

BUT DOES HE MAKE A SMART APPEARANCE?

The other day I overheard two businessmen talking.

"I'm sure Bob's smart enough," one of them said, "but does he make a smart appearance?"

Good appearance is more important than ever in today's business world. Everything else being equal, the man who makes a smart appearance is the man who has the edge.

A man's shirt is an important part of his appearance. That's where Cascade can help you.

Our people at Cascade are experts at turning out a shirt that is crisp and neat — a shirt with that professionally finished look.

Send your husband's shirts to Cascade. That's the sure way to get that truly professional look.

I think you'll find the price to your liking, too. Six shirts, expertly finished, exactly to your husband's specifications, for $1.80.
