EYE TREATMENT

Eyes strained by wind can be refreshed by a five-minute treatment. Saturate two cotton balls with warm water and lie down with them on your eyelids.

WISE CHOICE

When in doubt about adding one more touch to your costume for a particular occasion, don't. Too much is much worse than too little adornment.

BETHEL NO. 61

Bethel No. 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, held a Christmas party and regular meeting on Monday, December 21, at the Scottish Rite Temple with Honored Queen Penny Preston presiding over the bethel.

Special guests present for the evening were Joan Marshall and Babs Moore, past honored queens of Bethel No. 61, who were introduced and welcomed by all.

Business was conducted as usual with reports given on the rummage sale, held on December 19 and Pat Anderson, senior princess, giving the results of her project of selling Christmas trees. Natalia Reichenberg, guardian, explained the merit system for the benefit of new members and asked all girls to keep a record for checking purposes.

Pat Anderson, announced installation for January 1 with a formal dance following the ceremony.

Diane Bringle, librarian, entertained the bethel by reading a poem "To the New Year."

At the close of the meeting, Natalia Reichenberg, guardian, and Larry Whytal, associate guardian, wished the bethel a Merry Christmas as all joined in singing "Jingle Bells." To everyone's surprise Santa Claus appeared and distributed popcorn balls, after which all adjourned to the dining room for refreshments and dancing.

The dining hall and tables portrayed the Christmas theme and the lighted tree was piled high with gifts, all brought by the girls to give to the needy and "Operation Santa Claus" in Klamath Falls, Virginia McClure, guardian of hospitality, was in charge of the refreshments and dining room. Santa Claus, Mr. Anterson, father of the incoming Queen Pat, proved his role and disguise well.
