Longtime Residents Celebrate Golden Date

A well known couple who has lived in Klamath Falls since before their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lavenik, were honored on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary on December 20. The couple was greeted by their many friends at a reception at Molatore's Restaurant arranged for them by their children, Sister M. Felician of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon (Harriett) Skoog of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff (Audrey) Molatore, Mr. and Mrs. Martin (Barbara) Conlin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lavenik.

An honored guest at the reception was Mrs. Frances Lavenik, 101-year-old mother of Michael Lavenik. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Lavenik's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. Altenhoff, her niece, Mrs. Robert Lindner and son, all of Stockton; Mrs. B. G. Pinnell, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rayson and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. E. Richer and son, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Conlin, Ripon, California; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Bureau; Mrs. Stanley Pieser, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Louie of Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dreher came from Prineville. She was present for the wedding of the couple.

A four tiered cake, decorated with roses and gold leaves and topped with golden wedding bells, centered the reception table, handsome with gold appointments and tall white tapers. Punch was served from an unusual gold bowl, a gift to the couple. The cake was served by Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mrs. William Federhart and Mrs. Roy Pickert. Presiding at the coffee service were Mrs. Dave Totton, Mrs. John Kennedy and Mrs. Otto Smith. At the punch bowl were Mrs. Zelma Howard, Mrs. Harry Baldwin and Mrs. Charles Fairall. Gifts were in charge of Mrs. Ivan Pankey and guests registered in a book carried by Cheryl Ann Lavenik. Assisting guests with their wraps were Jerry Molatore and David Conlin. Mr. and Mrs. Lavenik were married at Sacred Heart Parish in this city on Christmas Day in 1909 and have lived here since. Their children were all born in Klamath Falls.

Samuel Johnson's only novel, "Russelas," was written in 1759 to pay the expenses of his mother's funeral.
