

EDGAR HILL, standing in front between Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew, is the 92-year-old father of Mrs. Drew. He accompanied another daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gregg, from their homes in LaJunte, Colorado, to Klamath Falls for the holiday season. While in this city he was a houseguest at the Lloyd Drew home, 928 Pacific Terrace.

where the entire family gathered for Christmas Eve dinner. During the holidays family gatherings were held at the homes of his other grandchildren, who are pictured in back, left to right, Cecil Drew, Greer Drew, Frank Drew and Lloyd Drew. The visitors left for their homes on December 29. — Photo by Guderian

Paisley Couple Wed 50 Years

LAKEVIEW — Approximately 70 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lundy gathered at their home in Paisley, Sunday, December 13, to honor them on the event of their golden wedding anniversary.

The reception was hosted by their three children and families, Leland Lundy of Portland, Claude Lundy of Bend, and Mrs. Lew Harris of Lakeview. Weather condition prevented the two Lundy families from being present. A family reunion at the Harris home in Lakeview on July 4 had previously brought all members of the family together.

Yellow chrysanthemums and white poinsettias were used for home decorations at the December party and the four tier cake was decorated with yellow roses and gold leaves.

Belle Brewer was born at Myrtle Creek and was living at Silver Lake when she met Edward Lundy, who came there at the age of 14 from Minnesota. They were married on December 4, 1909, at Silver Lake by Justice of the Peace James Martin. They operated the hotel ago. Both worked for the ZX Ranch for several years and are now retired.

Guests gathered from Bend, Silver Lake, Summer Lake and Lakeview for the occasion.

Women's Society Observes Holiday

MONTAGUE — A potluck dinner, followed by a Christmas program, marked the Yule festivities of the Montague Women's Society of Christian Service, when they met at the home of Mrs. Ora Kouts, recently for their annual Christmas party, with Mrs. Alta Coatsney and Mrs. Marjorie Rugg sharing hostess duties.

The program, presented after the dinner by Mrs. Dorothy Small and Mrs. Fred Boersma, included a play, "Joseph and the Innkeeper," a poem read by Mrs. Small, with carols sung between each verse; and a vocal solo by Mrs. Don Accord.

The distribution of gifts by Faye Coatsney concluded the afternoon's activities.

Those present, in addition to the aforementioned, were Mrs. Cecil Bowman, Mrs. John Doren, Mrs. Hugh French, Mrs. Willard Freeman, Mrs. Ada Johnstone, Mrs. Laura Jones, Mrs. Sadie Messner, Mrs. Cora Myers, Mrs. Di Raver, Mrs. Charlotte Robinson, Mrs. Ruby Stafford, Mrs. Tom Toulouse, Mrs. James Walker and Mrs. Small.

Round About

(Continued from Page 4-C)

Christmas Day to a large group of young people. She and two college friends have spent the after-Christmas vacation in Palm Springs.

The Harry Fredricks and George Flitcrafts planned on seeing the East-West game. They will meet the Lowell Jones in the Bay Area where they have spent Christmas with his parents.

Christmas guests at the Henry Gerber home were their daughter and son-in-law, Marilyn and Ned Livingston of Eugene, and Mrs. Gerber's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henning Jensen from Orinda, California. Circumstances prevented them from staying over for Margaret's engagement announcement party.

Lt. Jerry Hayden brought his wife and children, Debra, Barbara and Chris Alan, to visit a few days in Klamath Falls. They stayed with Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. Hayden's grandparents. Also happy to see them was grandmother, Mrs. Jeanette Hayden.

The Frank Tarrs have enjoyed having their son Ron home since December 20. He returned after 16 months of teaching in the Palama School of Music in Honolulu and will leave Monday for Los Angeles where he will work for his doctorate in music at University of California. The Byron Tarrs and two young babies will move soon from Coos Bay to Oakland, California, where he has been transferred by Standard Oil.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop Jr. came from Fort Dodge, Iowa, to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bishop, 1545 Pacific Terrace.

Beauty by Day...Beauty by Night!
from FRANCES DENNEY

"Shopper's
BEAUTY
Special"

4.95
plus tax

For the dry skin... beauty is in the bag! And at such a saving!... a full $8.00 value for only $4.95! Two famous Frances Denney preparations for 'round-the-clock care.

VIVA, the magnificent night cream.
MULTI-LAYER MOISTURIZER, the dew that brings your complexion precious moisture.

Use Our Parking Lot at 5th & Klamath

Star Drug

435 Main

TU 4-5463

A PIONEER member of Klamath Falls Daughters of Italy Camelia Lodge, Mrs. Giovanna Cometto, right, was honored recently by lodge members while visiting friends and family members here. With her is Mrs. Mario Pastega of Klamath Falls.

Charter Member Honored By Lodge

A former resident of Klamath Falls, the oldest living charter member of Klamath Falls Daughters of Italy Camelia Lodge, Mrs. Giovanna Cometto of Santa Rosa, was feted at a party sponsored recently by the lodge.

The 25 women attending the

Theta Theta Rho Christmas Party

On December 21 Theta Theta Rho Girls Club No. 8 held a Christmas party in honor of their mothers and members of Rebekah Lodge. Theta Rho presented the mothers and Rebekahs with pretty handkerchiefs while the girls exchanged gifts.

Entertainment was presented by Maxine Kramer, Ruth Kramer, Donna Fay, Margaret Waggoner and Florence Warrington. Refreshments were then served by Deanna Salvestrin and Nancy Wise. All the girls participated on the cleanup committee.

One of the holiday projects of the club was an evening of caroling on Wednesday, December 23. At the recent Rebekah Christmas party on December 18, Theta Rho girls attended and lead the group in singing carols.

party at Sacred Heart Catholic Parish Hall presented Mrs. Cometto with a gift and a smorgasbord luncheon, cake, ice cream and coffee.

Several of Mrs. Cometto's friends made a special effort to come. Some live far out of town. Mrs. Cometto arrived in Klamath Falls from Italy about 25 years ago, her friends say. She was one of the lodge members when it was organized in Klamath Falls in 1936.

She moved to Santa Rosa five years ago. She lives with a daughter there, Mrs. Mary Billo, also formerly of Klamath Falls. She returned recently to Santa Rosa after visiting here for three months with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cometto of 508 Plum Avenue, and her daughters, Mary Lou, 10, and Joan, 6.

The latter three recently returned from a three-month tour of Italy.

FAKE FURS

Fake furs have been made into very chic little berets and ascots for the girl on a budget. They come in many different fur colorings.

"the best place to shop . . . after all"

SEMI-ANNUAL

Pre-Inventory
SALE

NOW IN PROGRESS!

Tremendous Savings Throughout The Store

Coats! Suits! Dresses!
SPORTSWEAR!

$352,279.67 in earnings

PAID
First Federal
Savers
The Last 6 Months of 1959

Lighting the future for
FIRST FEDERAL SAVERS

THEIR MONEY, set safely aside here works, building homes in the community, and returns to them a substantial reward — earnings!

Those earnings have just been credited to the savings accounts of thousands of folks in our community. It's money you, too, can count on, year after year, to build your savings and give an extra spark to your future. Because all the savings entrusted to us are put to work here in the community, savings benefit both local home owner and saver.

YOU can light up your future, too, by starting a savings account with us with any amount. You'll have a safe, fluctuation-free savings account that will bring you investment-size earnings every six months.

Start learning about earnings and safety now; see one of our savings officers who will start you off on a good program based upon your present income and future goals.

Money
received by January 11th earns
a full 12 month
return
in 1960

4%

current rate
per annum

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS and Loan Association

540 Main

Klamath Falls, Oregon

Phone TU 4-5195