

Rose Bowl Pact Ends Ironically

Schloredt, Fleming Trigger UW Victory

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The 13-year Rose Bowl pact between the Big Ten and the now defunct Pacific Coast Conference ended with a few touches of irony.

Washington's young Huskies surprised favored Wisconsin 44-8 Friday to close out the series.

Wisconsin was the only Big Ten team to have lost previously under the just expired pact. The Badgers were whipped 7-0 by Southern California in 1953.

Aside from Wisconsin's 1960 and 1953 losses, the Big Ten teams made the annual New Year's Day trek look like a plague of locusts to West Coast fans.

Washington's triggermen were a brilliant quarterback, Bob Schloredt, and a speedy Negro halfback, George Fleming. It was the Huskies' first triumph in five trips to Pasadena.

Many of the 100,000 fans who sat in the chilly stadium were startled when the inspired Huskies exploded for 17 points in the first quarter.

"The turning point was when Fleming kicked that field goal and gave us a 16-0 lead," said Washington's Young (32) Coach Jim Owens. "That put us in control and Wisconsin began to press."

Owens said the key to victory was Washington's smaller but faster line which manhandled the Badger offense all afternoon.

"Washington was just more aggressive than we were — much more aggressive," said Wisconsin Coach Milt Bruhn.

Wisconsin handed the ball over on fumbles four times. Coach Bruhn blamed the bobbles on "just good hard tackling—nothing else."

Schloredt and Fleming—named the game's most valuable players—wrecked the Badgers in the opening quarter. Schloredt marched the Huskies 48 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown and Fleming kicked a 36-yard field goal and ran back a punt 53 yards for a touchdown before the Badgers knew they were in a ball game.

"We came down here to win and that's what we did," said Fleming, who picked up 122 yards on three punt returns.

"Our line was the difference," said the modest Schloredt. "We out-hit 'em and outfought 'em all the way."

To the complete amazement of the some 100,000 chilled fans, the gallant band of juniors from the Northwest racked up two touchdowns and a field goal for 17 points in the first quarter.

Washington's smaller but faster line which manhandled the Badger offense all afternoon.

"Washington was just more aggressive than we were — much more aggressive," said Wisconsin Coach Milt Bruhn.

Wisconsin handed the ball over on fumbles four times. Coach Bruhn blamed the bobbles on "just good hard tackling—nothing else."

Schloredt and Fleming—named the game's most valuable players—wrecked the Badgers in the opening quarter. Schloredt marched the Huskies 48 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown and Fleming kicked a 36-yard field goal and ran back a punt 53 yards for a touchdown before the Badgers knew they were in a ball game.

"We came down here to win and that's what we did," said Fleming, who picked up 122 yards on three punt returns.

"Our line was the difference," said the modest Schloredt. "We out-hit 'em and outfought 'em all the way."

To the complete amazement of the some 100,000 chilled fans, the gallant band of juniors from the Northwest racked up two touchdowns and a field goal for 17 points in the first quarter.

REMAINS CALM—Syracuse coach Ben Schwartzwalder remained cool, calm and collected while his national championship Orange rolled to a 23-14 victory over Texas in the Cotton Bowl Friday.

Mighty Sraycuse '11 Whacks Texas, 23-14

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Any possible doubt that Syracuse was the nation's best should have been dispelled Friday by what Ernie Davis and his mates did to Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse won 23-14.

The Orangemen certainly proved they were national champions as they finished the season with a perfect record of 11-0 and a victory that never in doubt after 1:23 of the first period. It was that long before Ger Schwedes threw a pass to Davis that covered 37 yards and set a major bowl record.

The victory was a vindication for Syracuse. The Orangemen had never won a bowl game before although given three chances.

Syracuse also showed it was not averse to a good fight because the Orange bench emptied late in the second period when punches were being thrown on the field and the players joined a mass of milling, showing, brawling fellows out about the 50-yard line.

A holding call against Syracuse apparently precipitated the fist-cuffs but the players on both sides said there was too much talking back and forth. Syracuse players accused Texas of calling its Negro tackle, John Brown, "a dirty nigger." Players on both sides hinted at dirty play.

Davis easily earned the award as outstanding back. He scored 16 points with two touchdowns and two 2-point conversions and his interception of a pass set up the other Orange touchdown. Davis then ran 21 yards to put the ball on the Texas three and Schwedes scored.

The victory was a vindication for Syracuse. The Orangemen had never won a bowl game before although given three chances.

Royals Halt Celtics Bid For Record

DETROIT (AP) — The Cincinnati Royals may have made good on a New Year's resolution Friday night, smashing the Boston Celtics' bid for a new National Basketball Assn. consecutive victory record.

The Royals certainly had need for such a resolution, having been personal doormats for the fabulous Celtics since last season. But the Cincinnati team gained revenge for 13 losses in a row to Boston by coming from behind for a 128-115 victory, snapping the Celtics' winning streak at 17 games.

The Celtics loss was the high spot of a doubleheader in which the host Detroit Pistons ended a six-game victory famine by trimming St. Louis 119-107. At Minneapolis, Syracuse pinned a fourth-straight loss on the Lakers, 109-98.

For Boston, it was the first loss since Nov. 28. But Coach Red Auerbach will get his name in the record books twice anyway. He was coach of the Washington Capitols who set the standard at 17 straight victories in the 1946-47 season.

The Celtics started off with a rush. They held a 34-26 lead at the end of the first quarter as Bill Sharman hit for 17 points.

Then the Royals started to move, with league-leading scorer Jack Twyman and Phil Jordan showing the way.

Twyman was high man for the game with 40 points. Jordan posted 31.

The Cincinnati move began when Boston's Big Bill Russell ran into foul trouble early in the game. The rebounding star was lifted in the second quarter after picking up his fourth personal.

While Russell rode the bench, the Royals rode the Celtics out of the game.

Gene Shue dumped in 28 points as the Pistons gave Dick McGuire his first victory since becoming coach last Monday.

Syracuse, paced by George Yardley and Dolph Schayes, handled the slumping Lakers with ease.

Cannon Rhubarb Brewing

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Billy Cannon, Louisiana States' highly publicized All-America football player, is being claimed today by two professional football teams.

The Houston Post reported Friday that Cannon signed with the Houston Oilers of the newly formed American Football League. But, Pete Rozelle, general manager of the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, said in New Orleans, that his team had a "binding contract with Cannon."

Cannon, who played in LSU's 21-0 loss to Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day, was due in Tucson, Ariz., this morning to play in the All-American Bowl Saturday. He was unavailable for comment Friday night.

C. S. (Bud) Adams, Houston Oilers owner, said Cannon signed a contract with Adrian Burke, Adams' attorney, shortly after the Sugar Bowl game.

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

After hearing that Houston reportedly had signed Cannon, Rozelle said, "I can't say when Cannon signed with us because this thing might reach the courts, but we do have a binding contract with Cannon and we intend to enforce it."

HUSKY WISCONSIN WRECKERS — The numbers on these jerseys just seemed to get larger as the University of Washington Huskies roared to a 44-8 upset of the Wisconsin Badgers in the 46th annual Rose Bowl game in Pasadena Friday. The winning backfield, above, from left to right, are halfback George Fleming, fullback Ray Jackson, quarterback Bob Schloredt and halfback Don McKeta.

Ole Miss Avenges Defeat, Drops LSU Tigers, 21-0

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — When Mississippi fell 7-3 to Louisiana State last Oct. 31, many Rebel followers blamed the loss on Coach Johnny Vaught's cautiousness.

Vaught didn't have much to say then. But Friday in the Sugar Bowl he answered his critics with a style of football they should have liked as the powerful Mississippians ripped LSU 21-0.

Quarterback Bobby Franklin, the game's most valuable player, never gave the devotees of wide open action a chance to grumble.

His first call in the rout was an 11-yard pass to All-America Charlie Flowers. It set Mississippi off on its first of many drives. Although the march didn't score, LSU was in a hole from it.

Passes brought the Rebels, ranked second nationally, all three of their touchdowns against the third-ranked Tigers. Quarterback Jake Gibbs threw for the first score with less than one minute remaining in the first half.

Both Vaught and LSU Coach Paul Dietzel described the play, good for 43 yards, as the turning point of the game.

Franklin passed 19 yards to Larry Grantman in the third quarter for the second touchdown and 9 yards to George Blair in the fourth period for the last touchdown.

LSU, third in the final rankings, was a fine ball club, Vaught said, but undoubtedly suffered from its injury list.

Ole Miss also got even with Billy Cannon, LSU's All-America halfback who was the hero of the first Ole Miss-LSU game with his storied 89-yard touchdown punt return in the fourth quarter.

Like the other LSU players, he never could master the Ole Miss tacklers. LSU wound up with a minus 15 yards rushing.

"We came down to win, but the best team won," said Missouri Coach Danny Devine. "We planned to rush the passer, and the two touchdowns they got were when their passer got away from our rushing."

Rush the passer they did, with the result the Bulldogs completed only nine of 21 tosses for a total of 123 yards, far below their usual performance.

Phil Snowden, the lanky Missouri passer, was rated only so-so in comparison with Georgia's artists. Snowden completed 11 of 17 for 152 yards, and the over-all Missouri passing record was 14 of 24 for 180 yards.

Hull, Bronco In Score Duel

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago's Bobby Hull and Boston's Bronco Horvath head into the new year with only two points separating them in a duel for the National Hockey League scoring lead.

Horvath, who surrendered his season-long goal scoring lead to Hull last week, picked up two goals and assist as the Boston Bruins downed the New York Rangers 7-3 Friday night. But Hull came up with a goal and an assist in the 4-4 deadlock with Detroit and held to first place 46 points to 44. Each has 23 goals.

The Boston forward collected his 22nd and 23rd goals in a first period spree when the Bruins took a 3-1 advantage over the Rangers. Doug Mohns also tallied twice for the Bruins with the other goals going to Don McKenney, Vic Stasiuk and Charley Burns. Andy Heintz, Andy Bathgate and Ken Schinkel were the Ranger scorers.

Hull fed a pass to rookie Murray Balfour in the final 15 seconds for the goal that gave the Black Hawks their tie with the Red Wings. The tally came while Chicago goalie Glenn Hall was on the bench in favor of a sixth skater as the Hawks battled for the tying marker.

The tie moved Detroit into a tie for second place with idle Toronto.

Elliott Nabs Weary Third

SORRENTO, Australia (AP) — World record holder Herb Elliott, in his first competitive run of the season, finished a weary third Saturday in a slowly run 1,000-meter race.

Competing on a rough, grass track and in a cold wind, Elliott looked only a shadow of his old self as he finished 15 yards behind the winner.

His time was 2 minutes, 28 seconds—and it took every ounce of energy that he had to run that. "I didn't expect to do much better," said Elliott, whose world record for the mile is 3:45.3.

"I just finished my first week of real training and it left me very tired, but I'm not worried. There is a long time to go before Rome." He referred to the 1960 Olympic Games at Rome in August.

who finished second in the Big Eight Conference, played the Southeastern Conference champions to a standstill Friday.

Only the Tigers' failure to bottle up rubber-armed Francis Tarkenton on two occasions constituted "the difference" as the two teams battled in a bruising contest.

On those two occasions Tarkenton rifled long passes down the middle to Bill McKenny and Aaron Box, respectively, for touchdowns. Durward Pennington kicked the extra points and that was it: Georgia 14, Missouri 0.

"We didn't play our best game," Georgia Coach Wally Butts said. "Our morale was not good. It definitely was our worst game of the year."

"We came down to win, but the best team won," said Missouri Coach Danny Devine. "We planned to rush the passer, and the two touchdowns they got were when their passer got away from our rushing."

Rush the passer they did, with the result the Bulldogs completed only nine of 21 tosses for a total of 123 yards, far below their usual performance.

Phil Snowden, the lanky Missouri passer, was rated only so-so in comparison with Georgia's artists. Snowden completed 11 of 17 for 152 yards, and the over-all Missouri passing record was 14 of 24 for 180 yards.

Hull, Bronco In Score Duel

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago's Bobby Hull and Boston's Bronco Horvath head into the new year with only two points separating them in a duel for the National Hockey League scoring lead.

Horvath, who surrendered his season-long goal scoring lead to Hull last week, picked up two goals and assist as the Boston Bruins downed the New York Rangers 7-3 Friday night. But Hull came up with a goal and an assist in the 4-4 deadlock with Detroit and held to first place 46 points to 44. Each has 23 goals.

The Boston forward collected his 22nd and 23rd goals in a first period spree when the Bruins took a 3-1 advantage over the Rangers. Doug Mohns also tallied twice for the Bruins with the other goals going to Don McKenney, Vic Stasiuk and Charley Burns. Andy Heintz, Andy Bathgate and Ken Schinkel were the Ranger scorers.

Hull fed a pass to rookie Murray Balfour in the final 15 seconds for the goal that gave the Black Hawks their tie with the Red Wings. The tally came while Chicago goalie Glenn Hall was on the bench in favor of a sixth skater as the Hawks battled for the tying marker.

The tie moved Detroit into a tie for second place with idle Toronto.

Elliott Nabs Weary Third

SORRENTO, Australia (AP) — World record holder Herb Elliott, in his first competitive run of the season, finished a weary third Saturday in a slowly run 1,000-meter race.

Competing on a rough, grass track and in a cold wind, Elliott looked only a shadow of his old self as he finished 15 yards behind the winner.

His time was 2 minutes, 28 seconds—and it took every ounce of energy that he had to run that. "I didn't expect to do much better," said Elliott, whose world record for the mile is 3:45.3.

"I just finished my first week of real training and it left me very tired, but I'm not worried. There is a long time to go before Rome." He referred to the 1960 Olympic Games at Rome in August.

Syracuse Stars Take The Leap

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Wedding bells rang Saturday for Gerhard Schwedes and Bob Yates, stars of the Syracuse football team that beat Texas 23-14 in the Cotton Bowl.

Schwedes married Lou Personius of Elmira, N.Y., and Yates wed Sarah Morrison of Portland, Maine, in ceremonies at Perkins Chapel of Southern Methodist University.

All are 21 and seniors at Syracuse. Friday night, Schwedes, halfback from Whitehouse, N. Y., and Yates, tackle from Montpelier, Vt., were signed to contracts by the Boston club of the American Football League.

Rides Cloud Nine

Jim Owens, Huskies On Top Of The World

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — Washington coach Jim Owens descended from the "cloud nine" reserved for Rose Bowl winners to make a New Year's wish.

"I just hope they improve—and I'm not being facetious," the youthful Owens told reporters after Friday's 44-8 triumph over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

"They" referred to the predominantly junior squad which will return in the regular 1960 campaign.

"I'm on top of the world," said Owens after an uproarious celebration in the Washington dressing room. Silent only for a moment of prayerful thanks, the Husky squad erupted in shouts and cheers and mutual admiration. Co-players of the game George Fleming and Bob Schloredt were lifted to the shoulders of their teammates and rocked back and forth.

No one needed a program to know Wisconsin had lost. The Badgers sat quietly in their dressing rooms as coach Milt Bruhn and his assistants offered words of encouragement.

"Fumbles and mistakes hurt us and they scored when we were down," said Bruhn in summing up reasons for the loss. He said Washington had more speed than he anticipated and believed the turning point of the game was George Fleming's 53-yard punt return in the first period. The TD run made it 17-0.

Owens, almost mobbed by his players after the game, credited his team with "tremendous ball. I felt beforehand our boys would win it if they prepared themselves—and they did."

"It was a real wonderful day for us," he went on. "We got off to a good start, slackened off a bit and then came on strong. Our pass protection was good. That was something I had worried about."

Hull, Bronco In Score Duel

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago's Bobby Hull and Boston's Bronco Horvath head into the new year with only two points separating them in a duel for the National Hockey League scoring lead.

Horvath, who surrendered his season-long goal scoring lead to Hull last week, picked up two goals and assist as the Boston Bruins downed the New York Rangers 7-3 Friday night. But Hull came up with a goal and an assist in the 4-4 deadlock with Detroit and held to first place 46 points to 44. Each has 23 goals.

The Boston forward collected his 22nd and 23rd goals in a first period spree when the Bruins took a 3-1 advantage over the Rangers. Doug Mohns also tallied twice for the Bruins with the other goals going to Don McKenney, Vic Stasiuk and Charley Burns. Andy Heintz, Andy Bathgate and Ken Schinkel were the Ranger scorers.

Hull fed a pass to rookie Murray Balfour in the final 15 seconds for the goal that gave the Black Hawks their tie with the Red Wings. The tally came while Chicago goalie Glenn Hall was on the bench in favor of a sixth skater as the Hawks battled for the tying marker.

The tie moved Detroit into a tie for second place with idle Toronto.

Elliott Nabs Weary Third

SORRENTO, Australia (AP) — World record holder Herb Elliott, in his first competitive run of the season, finished a weary third Saturday in a slowly run 1,000-meter race.

Competing on a rough, grass track and in a cold wind, Elliott looked only a shadow of his old self as he finished 15 yards behind the winner.

His time was 2 minutes, 28 seconds—and it took every ounce of energy that he had to run that. "I didn't expect to do much better," said Elliott, whose world record for the mile is 3:45.3.

"I just finished my first week of real training and it left me very tired, but I'm not worried. There is a long time to go before Rome." He referred to the 1960 Olympic Games at Rome in August.

Dick Nixon Q-Backs In Stands

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A one-time Whittier College football player who never won a letter did a bit of quarterbacking from the stands during the Rose Bowl game.

It was the seventh Rose Bowl game for Vice President Richard M. Nixon and despite the nippy weather, he enjoyed it immensely.

Nixon, grand marshal of the New Year's Day Tournament of Roses, sat across the aisle from Rose Queen Margarethe Bertelson.

"Who you rooting for?" asked Miss Bertelson, a transplanted Minnesotan now attending Pasadena City College.

"I'm neutral as vice president," Nixon replied. "But as a Californian, I'm for the West."

At one point, he commented to the queen: "Wisconsin's playing too cautiously, that's why they're losing. Just look at (Washington quarterback Bob) Schloredt. He's a great player. He runs the team like (pro quarterback John) Unitas. Washington's playing like the pros."

"You sure know a lot about football," Miss Bertelson declared.

"I should," Nixon laughed. "I sat on the bench for four years next to the coach while I was at Whittier."

Husky Official Looks To '60

SEATTLE (AP) — The University of Washington Huskies want a chance to go back to the Rose Bowl again next year.

The Seattle Times said the U. W.'s athletic director, George Briggs, plans to ask the Big Five to start fresh on the rule prohibiting a Coast team from succeeding itself in the Rose Bowl.

Under Pacific Coast Conference regulations no team could go to the big bowl twice in succession. But the Washington-Wisconsin game in which the Huskies triumphed 44-8 was the last game under the old conference setup.

"It's a brand new start with a new conference and a new contract," said Briggs, referring to the fact that the new Big Five will send the future representatives to the annual game.

Big Five members have said they favor another tie with the Big Ten.

All of Washington's starting eleven will be back for another year. Ten of the eleven are juniors and one, John Meyers, is a sophomore. Of the 47 players taken to Pasadena, only nine are seniors.

Tatum Honored

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Gator Bowl marked its 15th anniversary football game Saturday with an 80-page program dedicated to the memory of Jim Tatum. Tatum, North Carolina coach who died shortly before the 1959 football season, brought three teams to the Gator Bowl and didn't lose a game.

Elias Selected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bill Elias, backfield coach at Purdue, Saturday was named head football coach at George Washington. He replaces Eugene (Bo) Sherman, who resigned last November. Neither the length of Elias' contract nor his salary was disclosed. This will be the first collegiate head coaching assignment for the 35-year-old Elias.

National Basketball Assn. Friday Results

Cincinnati 126, Boston 115
Detroit 119, St. Louis 107
Syracuse 109, Minneapolis 98

Sunday Schedule

Boston at Syracuse (afternoon-TV)
New York at St. Louis (aft.)
Cincinnati at Detroit (aft.)

Need Program Said For Loss

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Is the Big Ten declining as an athletic power because of its "need" program for helping athletes?

Indiana University's football coach, Phil Dickens, thinks so after watching the 44-8 pasting Washington handed Wisconsin Friday in the Rose Bowl.

"This is the result of the 'need' program," Dickens said Saturday on his return from Pasadena.

"The Big Ten no longer can attract the same number of top-flight athletes under its aid program as other schools operating under NCAA rules only.

"We've set ourselves back with our recruiting rules, and it's going to get worse. Our drop in caliber was concealed in playing against ourselves, and it took a game like this to show everyone what is happening."

Under the Big Ten's "need" program, inducements to athletic prospects are determined partly by the prospects' own financial resources.

No prospect can be offered more than room, board, tuition and books, plus $15 monthly for laundry. If he was in the upper quarter of his high school class, he can be offered this regardless of his family's resources. If not, he may be offered less if he or his family has enough money.

"Bible" Picks Colt

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The