

Thanks Given By CD Aide

Malcolm H. MacEwan, public information officer, Oregon State Civil Defense Agency, here this week from Salem, expressed gratification at the countywide acceptance of the need for a workable Civil Defense setup.

He spoke before a meeting of representatives of women's organizations, called by Joe Searles, Klamath County Civil Defense director, held on Tuesday afternoon.

At the meeting, where nearly a dozen individual organizations were represented, Mrs. Natalia Reichenberg, a registered nurse who has for several years directed the practical nurses' instruction at Oregon Tech, was elected as chairman pro tem. Mrs. Bernard Schm and the name, Klamath County Women's Civil Defense Committee, was chosen. Mrs. Reichenberg is first vice president of Quota Club of Klamath Falls.

The women's group will hold its next meeting on Tuesday and has indicated additional organizations will be represented.

Col. A. M. Sheets of Salem, state director, Oregon State Civil Defense Agency, is expected to visit Klamath Falls within about 10 days, Searles said today. While he is here, a meeting is planned with Civil Defense leaders across the California state line in order to work out a plan whereby Civil Defense facilities and personnel

Marines Lift Restrictions

Quota restrictions at the Marine Corps recruiting office in Medford have been lifted, Sgt. Stan Elbie said today.

Elbie said unlimited numbers of applications will be received. He added those who enlist together will train together.

A Marine recruiter will be in Klamath Falls at the Selective Service office in Veterans Memorial Building each Friday afternoon.

"In case of an attack by manned enemy aircraft," Searles said, "this area might have from 30 minutes to three hours warning. The first warnings would come via Conelrad on radio and means of sound trucks. The warning system is worked out on a national basis," he explained.

Doctor Judged 'Best Speaker'

Modoc Toastmasters Club critics judged Dr. Glen Miller's talk best during a breakfast meeting and contest Tuesday.

He is thus qualified to compete against other speakers in further contest rounds. Competitors were Don Hall and Bob DeRoiser.

Frenchy Richard was toastmaster for the day. Wayne Crumb delivered the invocation. The day's word was given by DeRosier. Paul Chitwood was topicmaster.

Job Picture Said Brighter

Almost 23,000 weeks of unemployment were claimed last year through the State Employment Office here, manager Guy Barker reported today.

That number, however, indicates that the employment picture in Klamath County has brightened over 1958, when 38,030 weeks were claimed.

Another indication of better employment revealed through Barker's statistics was a reduction of 25 per cent in the number of workers claiming unemployment last month, compared to December, 1958.

The week that ended with Christmas showed 7.2 per cent of Klamath County's workers were unemployed. This compared with a statewide average of 6.5 per cent, and Klamath County's average of 9.2 per cent a year before.

Barker said payrolls were larger and employment was greater in Klamath County at the beginning of 1959, but dropped in the second quarter because of a log shortage and because weather hindered logging operations and construction projects. Employment rose in the third quarter and finished strong in the fourth quarter.

During the year, the employment office here placed 3,742 persons in non-agricultural jobs (compared with 2,979 in 1958) and placed 2,292 workers in agricultural fields (compared with 2,007 in 1958).

Barker said employment in the

Guards Foil Escape Plot

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Investigating a report of a planned jailbreak, Summit County deputies found a collection of equipment in county jail cells Wednesday.

There were sharply honed can lids, an iron bar, a wooden handle whittled to a sharp point, makeshift ropes devised from strips of mattress covers and a home-made blackjack loaded with pieces of broken cups, food trays and a bar of soap.

Deputies rushed into a cell block shortly after midnight to stop a fight between two prisoners. One of the fighters told deputies 11 inmates planned to hang him to attract guards to the range. They planned to overpower the guards, he said, and escape.

Shortest book in the Old Testament of the Bible is Obadiah, which has only 21 verses.

Ex-Residents Become Parents

Former Klamath Falls residents, Mr. and Mrs. William Master of Dunsuir, became parents of their first son, December 28. The baby, weighing 4 lbs. 5 1/2 oz. at birth, has been named Keith Earl. The Masters have three daughters.

Mrs. Master is the former Queenie Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jarvis, 229 Radcliffe, and came here with her parents from England nine years ago. She worked at the Pelican Cafe before her marriage.

Master is dispatcher for Southern Pacific at the Dunsuir office. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Master, also of Dunsuir.

The doctor said it is believed the patient swallowed a toxic agent which caused a kidney shutdown and that he was in danger

Fake Kidney Aids Patient

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—A homemade artificial kidney constructed by a 27-year-old doctor is keeping a 41-year-old patient alive, attendants at Mercy Hospital said today.

The patient was reported rational for the first time after the kidney was put to use. Dr. Bill McCullough built the apparatus from equipment discarded from open heart surgery and spare parts purchased from the dime store, plumbing and hardware shops.

Television Star To Head Safari

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Arthur Godfrey reportedly will lead a safari to India next month.

Sam Levenson, radio and television personality, disclosed this Wednesday. Levenson said an official of the Columbia Broadcasting System asked him to take over Godfrey's daily radio show in February.

Levenson, here for a lecture performance, agreed.

WAIT TO HURRY UP MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — Charles Culbertson, director of South Carolina Civil Defense, sat in his jet plane for 40 minutes waiting for takeoff clearance on a flight from Charleston, S.C., to Montgomery. When he finally got airborne, the flight took 36 minutes.
