

THE SPACIOUS home of Mrs. Dick Henzel on the Lakeview Highway was the setting for a holiday tea staged by the Mt. Laki Garden Club on December 18. Traditional Christmas decor was carried out in every room of the house. Members of the club of which Mrs. Henzel is president, decorated the room with the reverent nativity scene and huge old fashioned tree dominating the living room to beautiful and unusual greens and finally Santa and his reindeer in modern glitter. Fleming was in charge of the refreshment committee. — Photo by Guderian

Church Altar Nuptial Site

LAKEVIEW — The wedding of Lottie Ann Pearson of Eugene and Bruce Arnold Vandergaw of Lakeview was a Christmas Eve event in the Community Church at Davis, California. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. David Burnight. White poinsettias and tapers decorated the altar. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rice of Davis, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Vandergaw of Lakeview. The bride wore a waltz length gown of white slipper satin and lace, fashioned with a round neck, fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was fastened to a headband of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids. Mrs. Thomas Appel of Sacramento was matron of honor. She wore an off white wool sheath dress and carried a bouquet of red poinsettias tied with white ribbon. Dale Vandergaw was best man for his brother. Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The linen covered table was centered with a three tiered cake surrounded by sprigs of holly and white tapers. For traveling the bride changed to an emerald green wool jersey dress with black accessories and wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple spent several days in Sacramento and returned to Lakeview where they were feted by relatives and friends at several post-nuptial parties. The bride is a graduate of Davis High School and Oregon State College where she was affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She is now teaching fourth grade in Eugene and the couple will be at home there. The bridegroom, a 1935 graduate of Lakeview High School, is a major in agricultural engineering at Oregon State College.

Program Set For Library Meet

Members and guests of the Klamath Falls Library Club will hear an interesting and timely talk on the Food and Drug Administration, what it is and what it does, on January 11 at 2 p.m. in the lecture room of the city library. The speaker will be Clifford G. Shane, Portland resident inspector representing the administration. Mrs. William Wales Jr. is program chairman. The musical portion of the afternoon, arranged by Mrs. E. A. Fredricks, will feature vocal selections by the Rev. L. J. Hall of Immanuel Baptist Church.

SPARKLE HOSIERY

Sparkle hosiery is one way to pep up a midwinter wardrobe at small cost.

A LARGE CROWD of garden club members of District 12 and their friends attended the holiday tea at the home of Mrs. Dick Henzel on December 18. They were greeted by Mrs. Henzel, Mrs. Will Blackman and Mrs. Crystal Cheyne. District officers presided at the tea table. Serving punch from a copper bowl is Mrs. Oscar Rylander. Among the guests were Mrs. Victor Stockebrand, left, and Mrs. W. H. Graham. — Photo by Guderian

Owings-Raines Nuptials Read In Medford Church

MERRILL—Doris M. Raines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Swisher of Merrill, became the bride of Cecil H. Owings, son of Mrs. James Owings, Medford, in a ceremony held at the First Methodist Church in Medford.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring rites held December 4 at 7:30 p.m. Gold colored chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony attended by 75 relatives and friends. Mrs. Lester Boardman played the organ wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Milton Snow, soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid. Her pearl necklace and earrings were a gift from the bridegroom.

For something old she carried a three dollar goldpiece given her by her grandfather. Shirley Swisher was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a gold taffeta frock with matching headdress and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Max D. McKinney, Medford, served as best man. Seating the guests were R. J. Igo, Jacksonville, uncle of the bride, and Peter Johnston, Central Point. For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the church, Mrs. Swisher wore a green and brown sheath dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Owings chose an aquamarine suit with white accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

Mrs. Vivian Kyker, great aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. E. Igo, grandmother of the bride, poured the coffee. Mrs. Curtis Donahue, aunt of the bride, cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Dwane Raines, sister-in-law of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Tamara Smith and Kathryn Byrne were at the gift table. The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip and are now making their home at 748 West Fourth Street, Apartment 3, Medford. For her traveling attire, the bride wore a gold and grey suit with black and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Merrill High School and Robertson School of Business. She is employed as a secretary for the law firm of Van Dyke, Dellenback and McGoodwin of Medford. Her husband is a graduate of Medford High School and attended Southern Oregon College. He is employed by Oregon Veneer.

Duplicate bridge play opened the new year with seven and a half tables at the Tuesday morning session in the city library club room. East-west players Mrs. Robert Cuendet and Mrs. William Graham won first and overall high for the day. Other winners at that position were Mrs. Dalton Oliver and Mrs. Jack Warrick, second; Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. L. C. Offield, third. North-south winners were Mrs. Raymond Reeves and Mrs. Vern Moore, first; Mrs. N. B. Drew and Mrs. David Richardson, second; Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. L. C. Offield, third. The next play will be on January 19 at the city library. Players are asked by Mrs. Ted Hyde, director, to be ready for play at 10:15 a.m.
