Couple Weds In Reno Rites

FORT KLAMATH—Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Jackson of Fort Klamath have received announcement of the wedding of Jackson's brother, Wilbur Jackson, well known member of the pioneer Wood River Valley family. He and his bride are expected to arrive shortly for a visit at the Jackson home.

On December 21, Mrs. Edith Pease of Yuba City became the bride of Wilbur Jackson at Reno, and the couple has since been at home at Yuba City. The new Mrs. Jackson is a girlhood friend of Mrs. Earl (Lida) Jackson, and with her late husband, Leroy Pease, has visited here frequently.

Wilbur Jackson is a retired Army lieutenant colonel and spent his childhood in Fort Klamath with his family.

WARDROBE BOOSTER

A heavy white lace camisole, such as many stores carry in the blouse department now, is a good booster for a girl's wardrobe. Worn with a black velvet or silk skirt, it makes a pretty costume for little evenings.

Holidays Bring Family Guests

ETNA—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rennison and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. Rennison's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gibbs of Paradise, arrived in Callahan from Lake Tahoe to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hayden.

On Christmas Day the Haydens served dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rennison and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gibbs; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meek and daughters of Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gilmore and son, Mitchell, Callahan; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stone, Callahan, and Lynette and Mary Lou Hayden.

The Rennisons accompanied by her grandparents then left for the Gibbs home in Paradise. From there the Rennisons will leave for Little Rock, Arkansas, where he will be employed as engineer with the Bureau of Public Roads.

EULALONA DAR

Eulalona Chapter, DAR, met Monday evening, January 4, at the home of Mrs. Roland E. Wright with Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, regent, presiding. During the business meeting delegates and alternates were elected to the society's state conference being held in Eugene March 9, 10 and 11. Delegates to the National Congress, held in Washington, D.C., in April, will be announced later.

Mrs. Roenicke read a list of the qualifications for DAR national Gold Honor Roll and reported that Eulalona Chapter has met all of the requirements.

Committee chairmen were reminded that their annual reports should be filed with their state chairman and with the chapter regent not later than January 15.

An interesting program on the constitution was arranged by Mrs. W. J. Owsley, who read a commentary on the philosophy of the constitution by Judge Edgar F. Smith, a retired trial and appellate court attorney of the state of California. Mrs. William L. Wales Jr. read the Bill of Rights and Mrs. Owsley also commented on the amendments to the constitution.

Another pleasing part of the evening's program was arranged by Mrs. E. M. Chilcote who showed interesting handmade quilts including two "Log Cabin" designs. One had been made by E. M. Chilcote's mother and the other one of silk was made by Dr. A. O. Roenicke's mother. Two "Double Wedding Ring" quilts were shown by Mrs. Guy Barton whose grandmother made them. "Flower Garden" and "Mosaic" patterns were displayed by Mrs. Albert Roenicke and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, both made by their respective mothers. Two exquisite quilts made more recently by Mrs. E. M. Chilcote were also shown, the "North Carolina Rose" and "Wild Rose."

The chapter was pleased to welcome as a guest Mrs. J. M. Mollert of Los Angeles.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Roland E. Wright, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm and Mrs. L. H. Stone.

The next meeting of Eulalona Chapter will be at the community lounge on February 1 when a special program on the American flag will be presented by Mrs. Dick Owens and Mrs. Phillip Brixner. Annual reports and election of officers will be on the agenda.

SENSIBLE IDEA

The hostess apron in crisp nylon is a sensible idea. These pretty aprons rinse out in the washbasin and drip-dry in no time.

SPARKLE NYLONS

Sparkle nylons are ready in time for the holidays. These come in gold or silver to be matched to slippers or gown and to carry out a shimmering theme.
