

A VISIT with old St. Nick was the highlight of a party given on December 22 by Mrs. David Richardson for neighborhood children. Approximately 35 youngsters were asked to the Richardson home, 5050 Shasta Way, where Santa passed out gifts, many of them games which were played during the party hours. Mrs. Richardson was assisted in serving refreshments by 12 mothers present. Santa Claus holds the interest of this group. Standing are Trudie Chayne and Bobbie Ward. On the couch are Donnie Payne, left, and Marlene Stinson. Seated on the floor are Jimmie Barnes, left, and Kerry McFall. — Photo by Guderian

VISITING for the Christmas holidays with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. David Richardson are Pat Patterson, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lightfoot of this city, and Penny, center, and Sheila Ann Lightfoot, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lightfoot of Portland. The girls are learning to play bridge under the direction of their aunt, who conducts classes in the city. — Photo by Guderian

Bridge Club Winners Told

Ten tables of duplicate bridge were in play at the first meeting of the Lakeshore Duplicate Bridge Club at the city library on Thursday evening, according to Mrs. David A. Richardson, club director. North-south position winners were Mrs. H. O. Juckeland and Mrs. Robert Thompson, first; Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. Frederick Hyde, second, and Mrs. L. C. Offield and Mrs. George H. Rogers, third. East-west position winners were Mrs. Lloyd Goble and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, first; Mrs. L. C. Jones and Mrs. O. K. Puckett, second, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr, third.

UPSIDE DOWN CHANGE

Upside down cakes do not always have to be made of pineapple and white cake batter, delicious as that combination is. Canned pears and gingerbread make another fine team.

A TOUCH OF SPRING

Cut velvet handbags now bloom with winter roses on an off-white background. Very beautiful and very fresh with a dark winter coat.

Class Slated In First Aid

A Red Cross first aid class will be open for the public January 21 at 7 p.m. at Room 116, Klamath Union High School. Ella Redkey will serve as instructor, and the course will include standard, advanced, and instructor training. Miss Redkey is qualified as an instructor trainer by the National Red Cross headquarters, and plans to take the student group through the entire first aid training program, including 10 hours of standard first aid, 18 hours of advanced, and 10 hours of instructor training. There is no charge for the instruction. Each student should have the first aid textbook which can be purchased at chapter headquarters in the county library building, 126 South Third Street.

Two Take Vows At Church Altar

McCLOUD — Beverly Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson of McCloud, became the bride of James McOmber of Sacramento, December 29. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles McOmber of Sacramento.

The double ring ceremony was conducted in St. Joseph's Catholic Church of McCloud, with the Rev. Vincent Lyons officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white lace over net and taffeta, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves.

Her bouquet was Stephanotis, centered with red rosebuds.

Mrs. Jackie Cottini, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a princess style dress of red taffeta with a full skirt. She wore a white fur headpiece and mull trimmed with poinsettias.

Janet Frizelle of Sunnyvale was bridesmaid, Sherry Cottini, wearing a white organdy dress with a red sash and a headpiece of red carnations, was junior bridesmaid; she carried a nosegay of red carnations.

William Dunk was best man and David Arthur was usher; both were from Sacramento.

The bride's mother chose a green silk dress with green accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue silk gown.

Following the rites, a reception was held in the McCloud dance hall. Mrs. Mae Holmquist served the cake and Sandie Holmquist was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graves of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bast of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Glen McOmber, Mr. and Mrs. David Arthur, William Dunk, and Mr. and Mrs. Steward Wood, all of Sacramento.

The newlyweds will make their home in Carmichael, after a brief honeymoon on the coast.
