

Past Decade Changes Community

By THELMA OWEN
 GREENVIEW—There have been changes in the small community of Greenview and surrounding territory in the past decade. The Greenview fire department was organized February 29, 1952 and property was leased from Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Whipple on which to erect a cinder-block building to house the fire engine. Everett Malloy has succeeded Garland Sheffield as fire chief. The fire department sponsored street lights which were installed March 2, 1953. The new state highway going through Scott Valley is finished from the top of the Yreka-Fort Jones mountain to just south of Greenview. It has been realigned to completely bypass the town. The flood of December, 1955, washed out the bridge south of town, and one south of Fort Jones washed out approaches to the Crystal Creek bridge between Greenview and Etna and the one on the Scott River by the Meamber schoolhouse and did much damage to adjacent fields. The forest fire west and south-west of Greenview in September of 1953 burned thousands of feet of fine timber. Good timber remaining was logged off during the next two years. In 1958, the residents of Greenview voted to join the Etna Elementary School District and a bus now takes children to school each morning and returns them in the evening. The high school bus, driven by Merwyn Rickey, teacher in the high school, takes students to Etna. Scott Valley Grange has remodeled the hall at Greenview. The Perry Harris Post of the American Legion at Greenview has remodeled its hall. Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in Greenview has been sold to Mrs. Evelyn Edwards of Quartz Valley. In 1959, the dial telephone system came to Greenview. Many of the old houses have been renovated and some new ones have been erected. The dry weather of 1959 and extremely cold temperatures of the past couple of weeks have caused many wells to dry up and pipes to freeze.

SHORT CHANGE ERROR.
 ATLANTA (UPI) — State Auditor B. E. Thrasher reported Wednesday that the state of Georgia short-changed former Gov. Marvin Griffin by $1,512.89 through a clerical error in his 1958 salary. "If I'm entitled to the money under law I appreciate the diligence of Mr. Thrasher in seeking it out," Griffin said. "I'm not picayunish or persnickity."
