College Aid To Thailand To End Soon

OREGON STATE COLLEGE - A 5 1/2-year Oregon State College program of technical assistance to Kasetsart University in Thailand will be concluded next April when the contract between the two schools and between the U.S. and Thai governments expires, President A. L. Strand has announced.

OSC has been assisting the Thai University in development and expansion of teaching, research and extension service programs.

Fifty-nine Kasetsart staff members have been brought to this country for training under the contract and 19 OSC staff members have worked in Thailand on one-month to two-year special assignments in various fields of agriculture, forestry, science and home economics.

Training of Kasetsart staff members to carry out an improved and expanded total program after the technical aid was completed has been one of OSC's most important objectives. The program is financed by the Thai government and the U.S. State Department's International Cooperation Administration.

Significant advances have been made under the program, President Strand said, in pointing to the rapid growth and development of the Thai institution in recent years.

The Greek historian, Herodotus first wrote of cotton in India in 486 B.C.
