Just Desserts Given Robbers

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Bandits finally got their just dues at the Honest John Market Monday. Two gunmen sacked $4,500 from the market's cash register and ordered owner Oran Clayton and several customers into a frozen food locker. Clayton played it cool. Inside the locker he pressed a button. A buzzer sounded in a nearby police station. The bandits never had a chance. They walked out of the market and met police officers with pistols drawn. Clayton installed the locker room burglar alarm after sweating out two earlier holdups.

William P. Bickers, who has been employed by the Johns-Manville plant and making his home with his mother at Modoc Point, moved to Grants Pass last Saturday with his bride, the former Marge Wilder of Grants Pass.

The Homestead 4-H Club at Newell will have a potluck dinner meeting Monday, January 18, at 6:30 p.m. at the school. Those attending are to bring their own table service. All parents are urged to attend.

John and Gene Berthelson spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Berthelson of French Creek. Mrs. John Berthelson will visit with her husband's parents until she can join him at Fort Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reichman of Scott Valley had as recent visitors their nieces, Candace and Janice Smith of Hill.

Elta Edwards, Kathy Eastlick, Patricia Sargent, Judy Palmer, Beverly Polston, Billie Fifer, Jerry Johnson and Marvin Kopf, all teen-agers from Greenview, attended the basketball tournament in Fort Jones January 8 and 9.

Dan Crawford, former resident of Tulelake, now public relations director for Lockwood Graders, Inc. at Gering, Nebraska, visited in the Basin briefly last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gibbs of Happy Camp may be the parents of the first baby born in Siskiyou County this year. A daughter was born to them on January 1.

Mrs. Fannie Ryckman, Tulelake, returned home last Friday after spending several days in Klamath Valley Hospital.

Mrs. Evelyn Galloway returned to her home at Tulelake last week after spending the holidays visiting her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillis, of Washtuena, Washington.

Robert E. Bungardner, Navy machinist's mate third class, was promoted to that rate December 15 while serving aboard the Atlantic Fleet repair ship Amphion.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bungardner of Midland.

Frederick R. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Russell, Gilchrist, recently was promoted to Navy control technician third class while aboard the heavy cruiser Bremerton on maneuvers in the Far East.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lewis and two children, formerly of San Anselmo, California, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Reynolds and family at Fort Jones recently. They were on their way to their new home at Poplar, Montana. Lewis is the new minister of the First Presbyterian Church there.
