Two Sisters Are Brides In Elaborate Yreka Rites

YREKA — Impressive ceremonies marked the double wedding of Carol Nadine Phillips to Sylvester Lucena Jr., and Charlene Lennie Phillips to Arnold Bruce Griewe Sunday afternoon, December 20, in Yreka Methodist Church.

The Rev. Harold C. Coleman read the double ring service for each couple.

The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips of Montague.

Carol's husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Lucena Sr., of Chico. He will be graduated from Chico State College in June. He is a member of Lambda Pi fraternity.

Charlene's husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Griewe of Sonoma. He was graduated from CSC and is a member of Delta Phi Delta fraternity.

The church was decorated with large wreaths of holiday greens, centered with holly berries and large white satin bows. The pews were trimmed with smaller wreaths centered with twin white wedding bells. The tall bases of the lighted candelabra were entwined with holiday greens, dotted with large white satin bows.

Large altar baskets of huge white chrysanthemums flanked the candelabra. The altar top was arranged with chrysanthemums.

Ceremonies opened with the entrance of Connie Navarro, candlelighter for Carol Nadine, and Delee Carrere, candlelighter for Charlene Lennie. Six ushers lined up in front of the altar.

The procession was led by flower girl Raelene Weaver, the brides' cousin. She wore a green frock and carried a white basket tied with a green bow and filled with white petals.

Then came the bridesmaids for Carol Nadine, Beverly Demorest, Marilyn Souza and Joan Darby, followed by the bride, who was escorted up the white carpeted aisle by her father.

Ring bearer Ronnie Griewe preceded Charlene's bridesmaids, Sharon Greathouse, Joanne Plunkett and Joan Masters. Charlene was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Ray Weaver of Santa Cruz.

The brides served each other as honor attendants, and both were given in marriage by their parents.

Sylvester Lucena's best man was Clyde Davidson. His ushers were a brother, John; Joe Navarro, a cousin, and Gary Leuvelett. Best man for Arnold Griewe was Jerry Griewe, a cousin. Ushers included a brother, James, Paul Fredrickson and Carl Foote.

The sisters wore identical gowns with snug fitted bodices of Chantilly lace, Sabrina necklines and long, tight sleeves. The full skirts of white satin fell into chapel length trains, with bustle bows at back.

Their identical shoulder-length veils were pinned with crowns of lily-of-the-valley. Carol carried a cascade bouquet of Fuji chrysanthemums centered in Christmas greens. Charlene's cascade bouquet was of miniature white orchids and stephanotis.

Candlelighters and bridesmaids wore identical green sheath frocks with velvet cummerbunds of larker green, and short jackets cut to a deep V in back and trimmed with velvet bows.

They also wore green net circular veils studded with large pearls. The bridesmaids all carried bouquets of white poinsettias centered in Yule greens. Each candlelighter wore a large white chrysanthemum on her left wrist.

LAZY 8 CLUB

TULELAKE—The Lazy 8 pinocle club met at the home of Audrey Bettendorf Tuesday evening, January 5. Marinella Hundley won high prize, Jure Stearns, traveling prize, and Natalie Macy received low prize. Others attending were Katherine Lillard, Audrey Anderson, Velma Robison and Joanne Dahle.

There are about 65,000,000 telephones in use in the United States.

Mrs. James B. McAdams of Montague, the organist, played several Christmas hymns and carols prior to the ceremony. Soloist Dick Rash of Modesto, the brides' cousin, sang "O Holy Night," and "Oh Promise Me." While the couples knelt, he sang "Wedding Prayer."

The Melody Room of the Yreka Inn, decorated in the holiday theme, was the scene of a reception.

Heading the receiving line were the brides' mother and those of the bridegrooms.

Mrs. Phillips wore a satin dress with a background of winter white. The brocaded pattern was pale green. It was complemented with a green handbag, green brocaded slippers and pale beige gloves and hat.

Mrs. Lucena wore a blue satin sheath and a blue flowered half-hat with black accessories. Mrs. Griewe chose an off white nylon jersey, embroidered in blue and silver with off white accessories. All three wore orchid corsages. Candlelighters registered the guests.

The couples toasted each other from champagne glasses etched with their names and the wedding date. They cut initial slices from both three tiered cakes, each topped with three wedding bells.

Mrs. Paul Tara and Mrs. Ray Weaver, both of Santa Clara, the brides' aunts, cut and served the cake. Marge Flatchman, Marie and Eileen Erba and Thelma Rash tended punch bowls.

The brides both attended Montague Elementary School and were graduated from Yreka High School. Carol, the eldest, is a 1958 graduate of Chico State College. She is employed in the superintendent's office of Chico city schools.

Charlene attended Chico State.

Both are members of Alpha Chi sorority.

About 250 guests attended the reception including many from out-of-town and relatives of the three families.

From the brides' family were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weaver and children, Raelene and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tara and son Paul Jr., and Mrs. Lemmie Phillips, their grandmother, all of Santa Cruz; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McFadden and Twila McFadden, all of Stockton; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Des Jardins, Oakdale, and Mrs. Jay Bonds of Lodi.

Mrs. Sylvester Erba, the brides' aunt, flew from Jamaica with her daughters, Marie and Eileen. Also present was the brides' lifelong friend, Louise Swigart of San Jose.

Relatives of the Lucenas included Joe, Danny and Connie Navarro and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fine-gold, all of Chico, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lucena and their son of Roseville.

Relatives from the Griewe side included Wally Griewe and children Barbara, Susan and Ronnie, and Mrs. Lucy Griewe, the bridegroom's grandmother, all of Santa Rosa, and Mrs. Edith Griewe and son Jerry of Vallejo.

Some of the brides' out-of-town friends were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carrere and their daughter, Jeanne, of Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bammarrin of Chico and many Chico State College students.

Beauty Tips
from ME to YOU
BY Mary Martin

This year it's all out for color . . . Real color, that is. No need to worry about "if it looks natural!" . . . This year, you are "gilding the lily". The important thing is to wear the right thing for you . . . But remember, the trick that may make you look alluring under candlelight may be impossible for you to wear under office lights . . . Don't overdo . . . Only accent one feature. If you are concentrating on eye make-up, use one of the paler lipsticks. For an evening trick, Gold flecks in your hair, a gold liner with your eyeshadow, and gold nail polish will do wonders for a white gown . . .

YES a CHANGE of HAIR STYLE — a CHANGE of COLOR too — can literally have you "floating on air" . . . Let our Skilled Hairstylists PROVE this to YOU at HOUSTON BEAUTY SHOP . . . Open 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. Mon. thru Sat. . . AMPLE PARKING . . . Phone TU 4-3316 . . . 500 MAIN STREET.
