So Gloria and I were waiting for a bus after the show and along comes Ricky with his jalopy.

You were stranded and he gave you a lift! What's wrong with that?

Not a thing, Stubbs!

But he didn't have to let me out first and then take my date home for me, did he?

Take it easy, Chip.

Don't let a little thing like that throw you!

But that's not all, Stubbs.

They've been together all week so naturally—

Chipper! Some girl on the phone!

Don't tell me who that was! Let me try an' guess!

You know who it was.

It was Gloria! And I'm taking her to the basketball game tomorrow night!

How sweet!

I figured she'd be available as soon as something happened to Ricky's jalopy.

Hm?

Why? Did something happen to it?

Haven't you heard?

He couldn't scrape up the 2nd payment on it. There it is, back on Helpful Henry's used car lot!
