Palmberg Hits 26 For KU JV

MEDFORD (Special)—Klamath Union Jayvee Wally Palmberg, who sank 26 points to lead his club to a 55-34 win over the Medford Jayvees here Saturday night, put the finishing touches on his performance with a pair of free throws that won the game with four seconds to go.

Young Palmberg hit 11 field goals and connected on four of six tries from the foul line in piling up his total.

Medford's Gary Winetrot w's next with 15 points and KU's Bob Lapsley was third with 12.

The ball game, which was played on the Hedrick Junior High floor, was the preliminary to the Medford-KU Southern Oregon Conference tussle.

West Wallops East In Pro Grid Finale

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The accurate arm of Johnny Unitas, the dogged defensive play of Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb and the talented toe of Paul Hornung proved a winning combination in the 10th annual Pro Bowl.

The West walloped the East 38-21 Sunday for its sixth triumph in the National Football League's All-Star series.

A crowd of 56,876 in the Coliseum saw Baltimore's Unitas, named the game's most valuable player, toss three touchdown passes, all in the first half, for a new Pro Bowl record.

Green Bay's Hornung scored one touchdown, kicked a field goal and five conversions for a total of 14 points, another record.

The West's defensive line was led by Baltimore's Lipscomb, named the game's top lineman. They held the East running game to a scant 59 yards.

Y. A. Title of San Francisco spelled Unitas and tossed seven strikes in a row during a second-quarter touchdown drive. He completed 13 of 18 passes for 72 percent.

Los Angeles' Jon Arnett led the West's runners with 61 yards in 11 carries. He picked up 44 more on passes, 38 on punt returns and 68 on kickoff returns for a total of 211 yards.

The West's defensive line put a terrific rush on Pittsburgh's Bobby Layne. He was saddled all day with the quarterbacking because Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia had the flu.

Layne's 43-yard pass to Pittsburgh's Jimmy Orr sparked the East's final drive in the last period. The East marched to the 5-yard line but needed eight plays and a penalty to score. Several times the East tried, but failed, to power over Lipscomb at tackle. Finally Layne passed a two-yarder to Cleveland's Jimmy Brown for the score.

The scoring summary: EAST 7 7 0 7 21 WEST 10 21 0 7 38

EAST: TD, Patton (22-pass interception); McDonald (63, pass from Layne), Brown (2, pass from Layne), PAT, Groza 3.

WEST: TD, Berry (22 pass from Unitas), Moore (13 pass from Title, 65 pass from Unitas), Smith (6 pass from Unitas), Hornung (2 run), FG, Hornung, (16), PAT, Hornung.

Expansion Probable NFL Executives OK League Applications

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—One word—"alignment"—could be the key to whether the National Football League expands this year.

The league's executive committee met for an hour Sunday night and voted favorably to consider at Wednesday's annual meeting franchise applications from Dallas, St. Louis, Miami and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Acting Commissioner Austin H. Gansel said a majority vote of the executive committee — comprising one representative from each of the 12 clubs — approved the move. He refused to disclose the vote but a reliable source said it was 10-2.

The word "alignment" crept in to the picture when several club owners were asked just what they meant by favoring expansion. The owners, who declined to be identified, said they thought the league should expand if a satisfactory alignment of the two conferences could be agreed on.

Also, an agreeable schedule and method of allotting players to new clubs would be necessary before new teams were admitted.

The vote to consider the four franchise applications was cast along the lines of expansion feeling. Ten clubs have indicated a desire to consider expansion now. George Preston Marshall of Washington and Walter Wolfner of the Cardinals are against adding any team.

Marshall remains firm in his belief that the league should remain a 12-club circuit.

However, he could be waging a losing fight unless he gets at least one more team to join the Redskins and Cardinals in the minority opinion. The strategy of the others is to pass a constitutional amendment changing from a unanimous vote to 10-12 the number necessary to expand. Marshall is hoping the New York Giants will join him.

Wellington and Jack Mara of the Giants say they are undecided on expansion. They want to hear specific plans first.

It was learned that Gansel, who was named acting commissioner last October after the death of Bert Bell, and Marshall Leahy, San Francisco attorney, are leading candidates for commissioner. A source said Gansel possibly holds a 7-5 edge. It takes nine votes to elect.

An Associated Press poll of the teams showed six clubs firmly committed to Gansel, two to Leahy and four uncommitted.

Bob Pettit Hits 10,000, Talks Taxes

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bob Pettit, the bachelor business man, had just reached the select 10,000-point circle of pro basketball and was talking with boss Ben Kerner in the St. Louis Hawks dressing room.

The topic of discussion: tax deductions.

This wasn't surprising because the former Louisiana State All-America personifies the ballplayer-businessman of modern sports. Bob is an easy going, quiet, well-mannered young man. He never lets his ego or his temper get out of hand. He makes about $40,000 a year, $25,000 of it from the Hawks.

"I just play each game as it comes, one at a time, and never set any goals for myself or shoot for records," Bob said.

Pettit reached the 10,000-point plateau at the age of 27. It took him roughly 5½ seasons.

The 6-foot-9 scorer-rebounder rewrote the National Basketball Assn. record book last season with 2,165 points and a 29.2 average. This season his average is 26.5, second best of his career, but his rebounding and passing are the best of his career.

Only nine other players in NBA history have reached the 10,000 mark and none were close to his career average of 25.1. He scored 34 in the Hawks 135-119 victory over Minneapolis Sunday.

In other games Sunday, the Boston Celtics, leaders of the Eastern Division, defeated the Philadelphia Warriors, 129-123. The Syracuse Nationals returned back the New York Knickerbockers, 129-117, and the Detroit Pistons outscored the Cincinnati Royals, 115-110.

The world champion Celtics lengthened their lead to 4½ games over the Warriors.

In last Saturday's action, the Knicks defeated the Royals, 132-106 and the Pistons defeated the Lakers, 105-98.

PSC Vikings Host Wolves

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Portland State, alone atop the Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball race with a 2-0 record after an idle weekend, plays host tonight to Oregon College of Education.

Oregon Tech and Southern Oregon, both with 2-2 records in conference play, will fight it out for second place Tuesday at Ashland. Both teams won Saturday night.

Southern Oregon whipped Oregon College 72-58 and avenged a beating the night before, 74-65, by OCE. Gene Branson led Oregon Tech's run-away 90-65 victory over Eastern Oregon after OTI barely squeaked by 64-63 Friday night.

Branson, who had 22 points, and Dennis McKee, with 18, pulled Oregon Tech into a 40-29 lead at the half with an 11-point spurge just before the period ended. OTI padded the margin throughout the second period.

Southern Oregon pulled out of a nip-and-tuck contest just before the first half ended for a 31-28 halftime lead over Oregon College, then fashioned the triumph in the second period. Gordy Carigan led the winners with 18. Dennis Spencer of the losers was high with 19.

No Visitors Yet For Slats Gill

SEATTLE (AP) — Slats Gill, Oregon State College basketball coach, still was allowed no visitors Monday but was reported "coming along well" from a heart attack suffered here Jan. 10.

Gill, 58, was stricken in his hotel room after the Beavers lost to the Washington Huskies. Hospital attendants said there was no immediate indication how long it would be before he could return home.

Owl Hoots To Meet

Tonight at 6:30 in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant the Owl Hoots, the Oregon Tech backers association, will hold its regular weekly session.

Owl basketball coach Wally Palmberg, whose ball club hit its true potential Saturday night with a 90-65 smashing of the Eastern Oregon Mounties, the second win for the Owls in as many nights, will present his views of the games.

Tuesday night the Tech squad travels to Ashland for its first conference meeting of the season with the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders. The game marks the renewal of one of the strongest rivalries in Oregon Collegiate Conference action.

'Unbeatable' Wipe-Out Week Over, Teams Hit The Books

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The bulk of the major college basketball teams turn full attention to the classroom for mid-term exams this week, leaving unanswered the question of which is the nation's best.

Bradley's giant-killing Braves and their invincible home court at Peoria, Ill., chopped down Cincinnati's clear-cut claim to No. 1 last Saturday with a sizzling 91-90 defeat of the last major unbeaten. It was, in fact, wipe-out week among the "unbeatables," with the three other perfect record clubs of a week ago also falling. First it was Texas A&M, beaten by Southern Methodist Tuesday night. Then LaSalle, defeated by Syracuse on Wednesday, before Villanova, beaten by West Virginia (fell Saturday night).

Now the race for the top national rankings is thoroughly jumbled, with a half-dozen or more teams presenting impressive credentials.

Besides Cincinnati, which holds an 86-71 earlier victory over Bradley, there's defending NCAA champion California (14-1), West Virginia (15-1), Bradley (12-1) and Georgia Tech (13-1) in the front line.

Behind them Ohio State (11-2), the twin Skyline powers of Utah State (13-2) and Utah (13-2), Texas A&M (11-1), Villanova (10-1), and Miami (Fla.), holder of a 15-1 record and an 11-game win streak that's now best among the major schools.

Of the top 20 teams in last week's Associated Press poll, only 12 have games this week and only two of those 12 play more than once.

Bradley, which used the clutch play of sophomore Chet Walker and senior Mike Owens to overcome a 6-point spurge by Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, has a major test against improving Notre Dame (11-3) at Chicago Stadium on Friday. Cincinnati plays at Duquesne on Saturday in its only game of the week. Both second-ranked California and West Virginia are idle.

Fifth-ranked Ohio State is at Purdue Saturday, seventh-ranked Utah at Brigham Young Friday, and 12th-ranked Utah State at Montana Saturday. Georgia Tech, No. 6, is the only top ten club to double up — facing Auburn in a non-Southern Conference game Tuesday and Tennessee in a game that counts in the SEC on Saturday.

Miami (Fla.), rated 13th nationally last week, tries to push its win streak to 12 against Houston Saturday.

Some of tonight's top pairings send 14th-ranked Illinois (19-2) against Big Ten foe Minnesota, 13th-ranked Wake Forest (9-4) against Tennessee, and Kansas State, the Big Eight conference leader, against Iowa State.

UO Ducks Practice Shooting

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Oregon's basketball team is going to practice its shooting this week.

"We'll have to shoot better than we did last weekend if we want to keep on winning," coach Steve Belko said Sunday night.

Oregon split over the weekend, losing to the University of Portland 66-43 Friday night, and then bouncing back to trim the Pilots 65-50 Saturday night at Eugene.

Against Portland in the losing effort, Oregon shot at only a .218 clip. And that, said Belko, "was as poor as any team I've ever coached."

Oregon picked up a bit Saturday night, hitting 32 per cent of its shots, but Belko said that wasn't too good, either.

"We'll have to concentrate on some shooting drills this week," Belko said, in order to get ready for a Friday night game at Seattle with Washington.

"Washington has a good ball club and a nice bunch of sophomores," Belko said. "I think we'll have to improve our defense too."

Belko said the University of Portland has improved greatly since the Far West Classic earlier this season. One of the reasons, he said, is Portland's Bill Garner, a 6-9 sophomore.

"Garner is developing into a fine defensive player. He's starting to play like Bill Russell, knocking shots down all over the place."

Garner drew the job of checking Oregon's 6-7 Glenn Moore, and Friday night held him to four points. Moore rebounded Saturday, though, scoring 21. "Moore was able to outmaneuver him better," Belko said.

Oregon, which now has a 13-3 record for the season, will Wednesday in Eugene through Wednesday, and then leave the following day for Seattle.

Belko said Moore's injured ankle, hurt in a game several weeks ago, should be at full strength by then.

Even if Moore hadn't fully recovered Saturday night, his 21 points still topped both teams.

Oregon took its first decisive lead with 11 minutes left to play when Chuck Rask's field goal and free throw put the Ducks out in front 42-32.

Portland's Jim Altenhofen and Art Easterly helped chop the margin to 47-42, but Denny Strickland, Dale Herron and Moore sank three field goals in a row and Portland never got close.

To Be Better?

Machen, Folley Try Again In Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Heavyweights Eddie Machen and Zora Folley both go out with a lot to prove tonight when they battle over 12 rounds or less at the Cow Palace.

First, they both want to be considered worthy challengers for the title held by Ingemar Johansson.

Secondly, when they met here on April 9, 1958, a charitable word to describe the action was dull. That one ended in a draw amid boos from fans who thought Folley had won and fans who didn't think they'd seen a good fight.

After that bout, Machen was knocked out by Johansson in one round and Folley lost a disputed decision to England's Henry Cooper to further deflate their stock.

Both say things will be much different this time. Each won seven without a loss in 1959.

Machen vows this time he's going to "knock him out as soon as possible."

Folley said, "We were both counter-punchers and waiting for the other last time. I think we'll both be leading this time."

When they first met, Machen was a 2½ to 1 favorite as the No. 1 ranking heavyweight challenger. Folley was No. 2. Even though currently still No. 2, the fighter from Chandler, Ariz., finds himself on the short end of odds at about 2-1.

A fat purse for a fight against Sonny Liston of Chicago, the No. 3 ranked contender, awaits the winner with several promoters bidding for such a fight.

Machen has the additional job of convincing fans in San Francisco, where he has had big money fights, that he's a top boxer. The Folley bout and his last one here in which he outpointed Reu-

Hialeah Choices Get Test

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Candidates for two $100,000 races get their first tests this week as Hialeah begins its first full week of a 40-day thoroughbred racing operation with three-year-olds and handicap horses slated to see action.

The $20,000-added six furlong Hibiscus Stakes will be run on Wednesday, giving candidates for the Flamingo Stakes a chance to test their speed. The Hibiscus drew 40 nominations for its 25th running, including 20 Flamingo eligibles, headed by Bally Ache.

This colt finished second in five $100,000 races last year and may face such youngsters as Mad Count, Cuvier Relic, Greek Page, Francis S., Gaylad, Winonly, Grand Total, April Skies, Good Joy, Allowable, Hellenic Star and others.

The $25,000-added Royal Palm on Saturday is for Widener prospects and may attract Dunce, Talent Show, Rose Trellis, Petare, Troubadour 2nd, Muscadell, Amerigo, Captain Kidd 2nd, Stratmat and Grey Ghost, the latter an Australian horse yet to start in this country.

Saturday's crowd of 25,033 set an opening day record at the betting windows of $1,856,426. Record opening day crowd was 28,945 in 1946.

Silver Creek Farm's Roman Coloneo continued his brilliant career with a head victory in the $29,850 Royal Poinciana Handicap, his seventh straight triumph.

DUPAS RISKS STREAK

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Tony Dupas of New Orleans opposes Victor Zalazar of Argentina tonight in the main bout of 10 rounds at the New York Academy of Music. Dupas is risking a winning streak of six bouts while Zalazar has won eight of 12 outings in this country.
