Folley Hospitalized; Tonsils, Not Machen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—No. 2 ranking Heavyweight Zora Folley, who kept his word and a secret as he jabbed out a clear-cut victory over Eddie Machen in a lack luster battle, today hopes for a title shot against Ingemar Johansson.

"I beat Machen before and I'll beat him again," the 27-year-old Folley from Chandler, Ariz., vowed before he climbed into the Cow Palace ring for his 12-round return match Monday night. Their first meeting ended in a controversial draw in April 1958.

The 194-pound Folley was so sure he could beat his 199-pound opponent from Portland, Ore., that he kept secret his troubles with ailing tonsils. The tonsils probably will come out Thursday in Phoenix, said Manager Bill Swift.

Machen, an 8-5 favorite despite his No. 4 rating, took a financial beating too. It cost him about $270 to box the 12 rounds. His manager Sid Flaherty signed a contract for 60 per cent of the net gate—then guaranteed Folley $15,000—win, lose or draw. The net gate for the non-television fight totaled $24,548.66 and 60 per cent of that is only $14,729.32.

Machen had lost just once before in his 33 previous fights—a one-round knockout when Johansson connected with his right in Sweden a year and a half ago. Monday night's fight brought repeated boos from the crowd of 5,447 and frequent warnings from referee Vern Bybee to step up the action.

Folley's jab kept Machen off balance throughout. Occasionally he followed with crisp right hand shots to the head and left hooks to the body.

Machen tried to bob in under the jab, but even when he did get a combination started he usually missed with his big right or Zora tied him up.

In the ninth, Machen suffered a slight cut near his right eye. Eddie also had a small bruise under his left eye and Folley was bruised over his right eye.

Otherwise the fighters weren't marked and there was nothing close to a knockdown.

Referee Bybee scored the bout 118-113, Judge Matt Zidich 117-114 and Judge Fred Bottaro 119-114, the same as The Associated Press.

Both Folley, who won victory No. 50 against 3 losses and 2 draws, and manager Swift called for a fight against Johansson.

Sugar Works In Window

BOSTON (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson scheduled another department store window workout today for the March of Dimes as well as for his 15-round fight Friday night against Paul Pender.

Sugar went through a brisk drill Monday in a first-floor display window of Raymond's Department Store and at least 1,000 persons caught a glimpse of him. Noticeable to the ring fans were the many left hooks thrown by Clarence Hinant, Washington, D. C., light heavyweight who is Robinson's sparring partner.

A left hook is a favorite punch of Paul Pender, 10th ranked middleweight contender, who will try for Robinson's share of the middleweight championship Friday night. Massachusetts and New York recognize Robinson as the champion.

Black Hawks Lose Captain

CHICAGO (AP)—Ed Litzenger, captain of the Chicago Black Hawks hockey team, who was seriously injured in an auto accident in which his wife was killed, apparently will be lost for the last half of the National Hockey League schedule.

The 27-year-old Hawk wing who has led the team in scoring for the last three years, was removed from the critical list Monday at Swedish Covenant Hospital. He suffered head and possible internal injuries.

Litzenger's wife, Doreen, 26, was fatally injured when their car, driven by Mrs. Litzenger, skidded on the ice-slicked Edens Expressway and crashed into a concrete abutment early Monday morning. They were returning to their home in suburban Glenview from the Hawks' 3-1 win over the New York Rangers Sunday night.
