

WINS PAROLE
 WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (UPI)—An internationally-known jewel thief, who won himself a reduction of his jail sentence with legal knowledge acquired in prison, was eligible for parole today.

Gerard Graham "Raffles" Dennis had his sentence reduced Tuesday from 18 years to life down to 15 to 20 years after gaining dismissal of three felony convictions.

Meeting Slated
 ETNA — The annual Congregational Church dinner and meeting will be held in the church Wednesday, January 20, at 6:30 p.m. Following dinner, annual reports of organizations will be received. New officers will be installed and the 1960 budget will be adopted. Guest speaker will be the Rev. Ray L. Wells of the Redding Congregational Church.

Altamont Junior High News

On Friday, January 8, the Altamont Junior High Student Council held the fourth meeting of the school year.

The library and room No. 9 are being used as game rooms during the noon hour. The experiment looks as if it will be successful. It is supervised by members of the student council. All student council room representatives were told to make posters about the picture taking contest. These were judged by Alan Rathmaker, Diane Crawford, Mrs. Maxine Burritt,

Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, and Roxie Bennington. The winner from the seventh grade was Nada Douglas and Sally Bratton received honorable mention. In the eighth grade Fatty Bratton received first prize with Davy Davis and Daryl Mitchell both receiving honorable mention.

January 14 was the date of Altamont's first basketball game of the season. Our eighth grade team, coached by Jim McGown, played Merrill's eighth grade team. The game was played at Altamont. The score was 21 to 27 in favor of Altamont Junior High. Don Workman and Vernon Petrick each made three baskets. Bill Smith and Roy Denham both scored once. Marvin Yuncik made two baskets. Roger Rogers and Duane Singleton both scored once. Don Workman made two free throws and Vernon Petrick made one. Following this game our seventh graders played Merrill seventh graders. The first string, coached by Doyle Whipple, lost to the Merrill team with a score of 6 to 10.

Friday, January 15, marked the date of a talent assembly. Some of the students participated. Debra Kennedy did a piano solo. Twila Hunter played three numbers on her accordion. Daryl Mitchell, Dennis Rogers, Marvin Cunningham, George Webber, and Curt Coleman did the beatnik version of "Paul Revere's Ride." Mike Schlager did the English version of the same poem. Our talent assembly ended with Gerald Argetsinger doing some magic tricks.

On January 15 all of the Altamont Junior High students received tickets to sell for the PTA carnival. This will be on January 29. The high boy and girl salesman will each receive $5. The room selling the most tickets will elect a carnival king and queen. The high boy and girl salesman will crown them during the carnival. Altamont Elementary is also participating.

Teen Wives Need Spanking, But Make Wonderful Mates

HOLLYWOOD Calif. (AP) — Teen-age wives? "You have to spank them once in a while," says Glynn Wolfe, "but after they're tamed they made wonderful wives."

Wolfe, 46, a Hollywood hotel owner, should know. He has been married 12 times. Each marriage has been to a teen-ager, he said Tuesday "because they're happy that they don't have to work, and they don't make demands."

The break-up comes, the Indiana native added, when the girls get "fidgety" and want to "run loose."

"And you can't hold anybody if they don't want to stay."

The girls, however, often return after the divorce, Wolfe said, because: "They know if they get in a jam, they can come home. I feel obligated to furnish them a place to live and eat."

Four former Wolfe wives reside in his hotel. When one of them went to get a divorce from her second husband Monday, the other three and Wolfe went along to volunteer as corroborating witnesses.

Only Wolfe was called to testify, however, and Shirley Lou Espy, 23, was free by default from her radio executive husband, William D. Espy.

Another ex living in the hotel is Peggy Lou Spencer Wolfe, 29. He gave her half interest in the hotel, Wolfe said, and she is going to manage it when he moves to Las Vegas.

The Nevada gambling spot has less traffic and smog, Wolfe explained, and it might be an easier spot in which to find his 13th mate.

His parade of wives began in 1932 in Vincennes, Indiana. By 1936 he had been married and divorced four times and a judge asked him not to turn Vincennes into a Hollywood, Wolfe said. "So I went to Hollywood."

Wolfe said he considers each trip before a justice of the peace to recite marriage vows his last. "But it's awful easy to get a divorce," he added, "and they're a bad habit, believe me."

Birthdays Bore Philly Woman
 PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mary Middleton has become so bored with birthdays she watched television Tuesday. She was 104.

Mrs. Middleton, who still climbs the stairs and does light housework, said television is more fun than reminiscing about the day Lincoln was shot.

Mrs. Middleton was 9 then, still living in her native Chester, Pa. She came to Philadelphia when she was 15. Her husband died in 1890 and her two children in infancy.

Woman Loses Last Son

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — A tragic message and her last son was dead.

It had happened to Luda Best before. This time the message told of the death of her middle son, Marion R. Best, 36, in a fiery airplane crash at Holdcroft, Va. The death, like those of her other two sons, was sudden.

The Navy lieutenant commander was killed Monday night in the crash of a Capital Airlines flight. The plane, in which 30 persons perished, was en route to Norfolk, Va., from Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Best's oldest son, Marvin, died on a merchant ship in 1943 from a head injury. In 1955, her youngest son, Malcolm, was killed with three other men in an automobile collision.

Mrs. Best's son-in-law, John Smith was killed in an automobile-bus collision.
