

Dorris Man Plans To Run For Board

DORRIS — Aidan Fenwick, Dorris resident, announced this week that he will be a candidate for District 1 for a seat on the Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors.

A resident of Klamath Falls before moving to Dorris 23 years ago, he was associated with the Oregon State Highway Department. He and his wife, Myrtle, purchased and opened the Star Inn and Cafe when they came here.

In the spring of 1937, Fenwick helped organize the Dorris Volunteer Fire Department, served as fire chief several years and is still an active fireman. He is a charter member and past commander of both the Butte Valley American Legion Post and Post 5944, VFW, and is still active. In January, 1942, Fenwick enlisted in the Sea Bees and served three years in the South Pacific.

When he returned here in 1945, Fenwick bought acreage near Maedoe and for four years successfully operated a potato ranch. He also built four modern three-bedroom rental houses on his property at the west side of town. This was a new development for Dorris and the Fenwicks held a contest to name the houses. When asked what name won, Fenwick chuckled and said, "Fenwick's Folly." However, this venture also proved successful.

Fenwick was instrumental in organizing the Dorris Lions Club in August of 1946 and, after serving in every office, is still an active member. He has also served on the Dorris City Council.

Fenwick was appointed chairman of the March of Dimes in 1946 and is still working in that capacity.

The Fenwicks still operate the modernized Star Inn and Cafe and have added a modern motel. They say it has been hard work, but has also been fun. They have one son, Richard, of this community, and three grandchildren.

Fenwick said that aside from the announcement of his candidacy, he prefers to make no further statement at this time.

DECLARE CREW DEAD

TRIPOLI, Libya (UPI) — All 10 men aboard a U.S. Army U-1A "Otter" aircraft that crashed on a flight from Wheelus Air Base to Benghazi Jan. 4 have been officially declared dead.

MR. AND MRS. AIDAN FENWICK, popular Dorris couple, are shown immediately after their return home from a hunting trip to Alexis Creek, British Columbia, last fall. Fenwick has announced his candidacy for a seat on the Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors, representing District 1.

Authorities Probe Report

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Authorities are investigating a report that Julian A. Frank, suspect in the Jan. 6 airliner bombing, knew a man under suspicion in a Nov. 16 crash.

The crashes, both of National Airlines planes, took a total of 76 lives.

Charles S. Collar, Civil Aeronautics Board examiner in Miami, called the acquaintanceship of Frank and Dr. Robert Spears of Dallas, Tex., "a little too strong to be called just a coincidence." He said "We will certainly look into the connection."

Collar commented after Los Angeles, Asst. Dist. Atty. Julian Blodgett told of a statement by Dr. Donald A. Loomis, a Los Angeles chiropractor.

Loomis was quoted as saying Dr. Spears, 64, wanted Loomis to agree to hiring Frank, 32, of New York, as their counsel in an abortion conspiracy case.

Spears ostensibly died in the Nov. 16 crash in the Gulf of Mexico. Frank presumably died in the Jan. 6 crash at Bolivia, N.C.

Historians Hear Realtor

Members and guests of the Klamath County Historical Society heard E. M. Chilcote, Klamath Falls realtor and resident since 1908, speak on "Land Development in the Klamath Basin," at the January meeting.

En route here to settle he came by railroad to Bray, California, stagecoach to Teeter's Landing on the Klamath River and the final stage by boat to Klamath Falls.

Much of the land at that time in the Merrill-Malin communities was in sagebrush. Irrigation brought by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation and advanced farming practices brought the land to its present day production, the speaker said.

The only road to Merrill at the time he arrived was what is now known as the Hill Road. There were only two automobiles in town, one owned by Harry Peltz Sr., and the second by Ed Dunham.

Men interested in selling real estate hired a team and rig from the local livery stable at $3 per day. Travel was slow enough that a trip to show a farm at Bonanza necessitated two overnight stays and three days time.

Lots in the present Hot Springs area sold then for $200 to $300 and Main Street property at unbelievably low prices.

Civilian Court-Martial Ruled Out By Top Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has ruled out peacetime court-martial trials for civilians abroad, but has gone out of its way to offer suggestions how the military might handle the resulting situation.

In divided decisions Monday, the high tribunal overturned military convictions of three civilian employees and a civilian dependent who accompanied armed forces overseas.

Justice Tom C. Clark, author of three majority opinions, said such military trials violated the constitutional right to trial by jury.

This right applies to everyone except members of the armed forces.

Clark recalled that in 1937 the court declared unconstitutional the military trial convictions of two women accused of killing their servicemen husbands abroad. These were capital cases, involving possible death penalties.

Monday's decisions broadened the 1937 legal holding to include civilian dependents of servicemen and employees of the military regardless of the nature of the offenses.

One Army official, emphasizing the problem, said the number of civilian dependents and employees abroad equals or is greater than the number of men in uniform.

The Justice Department, during argument of the cases, told the Supreme Court the civilians abroad commit a substantial number of offenses.

Clark said one plan to meet the problem would be to incorporate civilian employees directly into the armed services, either by compulsory induction or by voluntary enlistment.

News Scribe Sues Spouse

Pegler, 65, and the former Pearl E. Doane, 47, were married May 11 in New York City.

In a suit filed in Superior court Monday, Pegler alleges his wife harassed him, prevented him from sleeping and mistreated him in other ways to such an extent that it affected his health.
