Local Church Picks Pastor

The Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Fosner have been elected to succeed the Rev. Silas Jones as pastor of the Klamath Falls Assembly of God Church, Eighth and Oak streets.

The new pastor will fill the pulpit for the first time Sunday, January 24.

The Rev. Jones resigned from the local pulpit to enter the missionary field.

The Rev. N. D. Davidson, district superintendent of the Assemblies of God, will install during the morning worship service beginning at 11. The public is invited to be present.

The Rev. Fosner is a native of Oregon and a graduate of Northwest Bible College, Seattle. He has served as pastor of a number of churches and as a district official for the church.

Rev. and Mrs. Fosner have four children.

Immanuel Baptist
Bill Clark, noted television personality and Christian layman, will present an illustrated sermon at the Immanuel Baptist Church, Eleventh and High streets on Sunday evening, January 24 at 7 o'clock. Clark, who comes from Southern California, has had wide experience in the field of electronics and sound.

Combining the elements of music, lights and the spoken word, he will present a simple, yet outstanding insight into the gospel message. Pastor Ron Hall announces that the public is cordially invited to attend this informative and inspiring evening.
