

Fun In The Snow Popular With Many Klamath Falls Families

MRS. CECIL DREW, standing left, Joe Hicks, and in front, Neil Drew and his father, Cecil Drew.

SOCIETY

By HELEN BECHEN

HOWARD PERNELL, right, with Mr. and Mrs. Sol Wirth

MRS. WILSON WILEY and daughter, Wanda

DR. AND MRS. JAMES H. NOEL

MR. AND MRS. VAN MOLLISON

FERRY GENTRY, Valerie Puckett and Jill Eccles

SNOW COVERED Geronimo, Ugh and Paleface, appropriately named ski runs at nearby Tomahawk Bowl, were bright last weekend with the colorful outfits of skiers, many featuring the new shades of green, lavender and powder blue mingled with the ever popular black and red ensembles.

Blustering January winds and low temperatures were braved by many skiers of all ages as well as spectators when these pictures were taken Sunday by Don Kettler.

Herald & News
Klamath Falls,
Oregon
Sunday,
Jan. 24, 1960

DR. AND MRS. HUGH B. CURRIN