

Naomi Shrine

"The Pelicanettes Dance Club," a service group of girls from the Klamath Union High School, entertained White Shrine members and guests with an intricate dance drill at the Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, January 9. Elvin Phillips, watchman of shepherds, presented the president, Opal Morgan, who in turn introduced the girls as follows: vice president, Rita Buckner; secretary, Merlene Ferebee; treasurer, Judy Gregory; the dance leader, Janet Phillips; hand drill leader, Marti MacBeth; Margie Fairchild, Judy Lenninger, Chubbain Spero, Sharon Unruh, Judy Milne, Lucille Waters, Susan LaVrar, Mary Ott, Shirley Inness, Janet Henninger, Linda Smith, Marilyn Richards, Darlene Clark and Linda Anning. Larry Bunyard was also introduced as choreographer.

Following the entertainment all assembled in the banquet room for a potluck dinner. The decorations were carried out with blue and white predominating. White bells, snow men and small blue and white sleighs completed the table decor. A colorful money tree centered the room honoring Nell and George Retterath, past worthy high priestess and watchman of shepherds respectively of Naomi Shrine, who have moved to Lakeview. The tree was dedicated to the popular couple by Ruth Rod-enberger, worthy high priestess. James Hunter read and presented them a poem of his own composition appropriate to the occasion. Both expressed appreciation and voiced their regret at leaving Klamath Falls.

The regular meeting of Naomi Shrine convened at 8 o'clock. This being advance night, Luella Chilcote, noble prophetess, presided.

Plans were discussed regarding a trip to Los Altos to a reception honoring Colopel Hicks, supreme first wise man, Virginia Sharp, district chairman of material objective, and Nellie Maguire, district deputy of District 32 of Lebanon Shrine No. 93, to be held on January 30. Planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Arlin A. Rodenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Chilcote. The supreme worthy high priestess, Rousa Thomas of Durham, North Carolina, is expected to be present for this function.

After the meeting adjourned, refreshments were served by the committee for the evening. Stella Dryden, Kate Peyton, Martha Powell, and Carrie and Harold Rush.

The next meeting of Naomi Shrine is scheduled for February 13. The committee will be Mary Vlahos, Patricia Fairchild, Lorene McCollum, Mary Ellen Gaster, Edith Applegate and May Phinney.

ELECTED TO HONOR SOCIETY

A student at North Carolina State College, Capt. Gary T. Smith, whose home is in Klamath Falls, has been elected to and received into membership in Sigma Pi Sigma, the only national physics honor society. Membership in this society is the highest scholastic honor which is conferred exclusively on students of physics and closely-related subjects. Requirements for membership are high standards of scholarship, promise of professional merit and academic distinction.

Royal Neighbors

The Royal Neighbors of America met at the IOOF Hall on Wednesday evening, January 13, with outgoing Oracle Lillian Rosen and her staff of officers presiding.

The opening and closing drills were exemplified and the flag was presented by Gertie Huff, flag bearer. Charlotte Carmichael, incoming oracle, presented her appointments for the coming year. They are Nellie LaMothe, faith, Dora Oberg, modesty; Mary Tennant, unselfishness; Viola Nelson, endurance; Elsie Longmire, courage; Billie Simpson, flag bearer; Alice Hoover, drill captain; Ada Barleen, yearly planning committee; Mayme Cammock, program; Lillian Simpson, publicity. Ada Barleen was also nominated for two-year manager.

Thelma Colvin thanked all who helped and attended the Christmas dinner and Mayme Cammock thanked all who helped with the Christmas program and the ladies who sacked the candy for the youngsters.

Plans were made for several money raising projects. Jessie Steele, district deputy, presented Alice Hoover for the outstanding member for purchasing insurance with a Royal Neighbor cup and saucer. Other presentations were made to Nellie LaMothe, Thelma Colvin and Mayme Cammock for perfect attendance throughout the year.

After the closing Alice Hoover, drill captain, asked all officers to be present for practice at the IOOF Hall on Sunday, January 24, at 3 p.m. Installation of officers will be held at the IOOF Hall on January 27 at 8 p.m. with Thelma Colvin as presiding officer.
