Duplicate bridge drew a good crowd at the Tuesday morning session on January 19 when 10 tables were in play, according to Mrs. Ted Hyde, director.

North-South winners were Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. L. C. Offield, first; Mrs. Frank Rickey and Mrs. J. Martin Adams, second; Mrs. William Grove and Mrs. E. M. Raymond, third; Mrs. Bill Cunningham and Mrs. Bruce Lattin, fourth.

East-West honors went to Mrs. G. H. Hancock and Mrs. A. J. Honzel, first; Mrs. Victor Palmer and Mrs. Guy Merrill, second; Mrs. B. J. Johnson and Mrs. Chester Stoneypher, third. Tying for fourth place were Mrs. Vern Moore and Mrs. W. L. Ballard, Mrs. Claudine Van Buskirk and Mrs. Charles Dakin and Mrs. Ruth Quinn and Mrs. Duane Cassidy.

Players are reminded to bring a sack lunch on February 2, the next scheduled play, when tables will be arranged at 10:15 a.m.

ENCAMPMENT AUXILIARY

Ladies Auxiliary affiliated with Encampment No. 46 met in the IOOF Hall on January 8 with Matriarch Alice Lawrence presiding.

Senior Warden Anna Erickson reported sending cards and flowers to sick members and also to those having birthdays.

After the closing of the lodge the members joined the Encampment for the installation of the new officers.

A 6:30 p.m. ham, dinner preceded the meeting.

TO VISIT MEXICO

Ann Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hawkins, 224 High Street, left Sunday, January 10, on the Shasta Daylight for California. In Oakland she will join relatives for a motor trip to Nogales, Arizona, and then to Mexico City where they will make their headquarters for a two-month tour of Mexico.

Rebekahs Seat Officers In Public Ceremonies

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104 held its 60th installation of officers in a public ceremony Saturday evening, January 9, at the IOOF Hall. Newly installed leaders were Helen Blanas, noble grand, and Olive Hanna, vice grand, with district deputy president, Helen McCornack, in charge of the event.

The lodge room portrayed the Rebekah colors of pink and green with pink and white frosted evergreen and pink carnations over each station. In the east, a large emblematic heart displaying the three links and the letter R was lighted by diffused colors of pink and green. This emblem was presented by the new noble grand, Helen Blanas.

Velma Krauss, the outgoing noble grand, was presented her jewel by Helen McCornack and was escorted to her past noble grand's station by deputy marshal, Irene Rickman.

The ceremony of candlelighting was performed by Carol Leib and Lyn Kirby as Jennie Hurn placed the Bible on the altar, and a chorus of Theta Theta Rho Girls sang "Prayer from Hansel and Gretel."

Elective officers installed to serve the following year were Helen Blanas, noble grand; Olive Hanna, vice grand; Genevieve Pierce, secretary; Donna Odell, financial secretary; and Kathleen Hepburn, treasurer.

After the noble grand was installed an arm bouquet of red roses was presented her by Mrs. Dexter Elliot on behalf of the noble grand's daughter, Catherine Elliot, who was unable to be present.

The noble grand appointed hon-

The Hattans Have A Boy

A second child and first son, first baby of 1960 for the Monterey Peninsula and the winner of the baby derby of radio station KIDD, came on January 1 by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hattan at Monterey Hospital Ltd. in Monterey, California.

The new arrival has a sister, Heidi, 4, and he is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hattan, 819 Pacific Terrace, and Mrs. Edgar L. Williams, 611 Addison Street, in Klamath Falls.

The baby boy, who weighed 9 pounds, 13 ounces, was born at 2:50 a.m. and was acclaimed the

College News

Ten students from Klamath Falls were listed on the fall term honor roll at Oregon State College. They are Kenneth R. Ostrom, Michael T. Propst, Neil E. West, Raymond A. Zalunardo, Jerry L. Bramwell and Donalea M. Brooks. Also listed are Sheila K. Finchum, Judith K. Hadley, Lance E. Davis and Susan Goeller.

To be eligible for honor roll listing, students must make at least a B plus average for the term. Neil West was one of 76 students singled out for special recognition for having straight A grades for the fall quarter.

SWEATER AND HOOD

Now the cotton knit sweater blouse comes with a cowl that can be worn as a hood, too. Department stores have it in both light and dark colors.
