Stocks WALL STREET NEW YORK (AP) - The stock market deepened its losses in quiet trading late this afternoon. Volume for the day was estimated at 2,800,000 shares compared with 2,600,000 on Friday. Pivotal issues fell from fractions to 2 points or more. Some higher-priced issues took sharper losses. Union Carbide fell more than 3. Du Pont about 4 and International Business Machines around 5. Losses of about 2 points were shown by U.S. Steel, American Motors, General Electric and Checker Motors. Brokers said the decline was due more to a drying-up of bids than to selling pressure. Although the business outlook remained good, the market was technically vulnerable, analysts said. U.S. government bonds eased slight fractions.

Mrs. Foster Rites Tuesday

Funeral services will be held from the chapel of Ward's Klamath Funeral Home at 10 a.m. Tuesday, January 26, for Mrs. Pearl Allen Foster, 63, a lifelong resident of Klamath Falls. Final rites and interment with vault entombment will be in Wilson Cemetery with the Rev. Laing W. Sibbet of Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church officiating. Mrs. Foster died in Hillside Hospital January 23 following a month's illness. She suffered a stroke following pneumonia. She was the daughter of a pioneer family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Allen. Her father was one of the early day blacksmiths, employed on the Presley Dorris and John Fairchild ranches in Siskiyou County, California, near the present town of Dorris. Survivors include sons, Donald Campagna, Grants Pass, and Pat Ryan, Klamath Falls; daughters, Marie Fields, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Clifford Fields, Grants Pass; sisters, Mrs. Alice Hamilton, this city, Grace Rambo, Chiloquin, Ruth Barfield, Klamath Falls, Dorothy McAnulty, Sprague River, and Mrs. Ada Rossi, Chiloquin; brothers, Robert Allen, Klamath Falls, and Wilbur Harrington, Chiloquin; also eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Trial Opens For Crawford

A defendant's statement that he would get Chiloquin Police Chief Lewis Jones because he thought Jones had killed his cousin was heard in the circuit court trial of Leon Merle Crawford today. Crawford, 23, was charged with threatening Jones with a .22 caliber revolver after Jones chased his car from Chiloquin to a point beyond Collier Park last August 2. The trial opened today before Judge James M. Main of Medford. Judge Main was appointed after defense attorney Glenn D. Ramirez sought disqualification of both Judge David R. Vandenberg of Klamath Falls and Judge Charles H. Foster of Lakeview on alleged grounds of prejudice and bias. Selection of a jury required less than 30 minutes, and Jones was called as the first state witness by Deputy District Attorney Ernest Gordon. Jones said he spotted Crawford's car speeding out of Chiloquin and took chase. The chase ended on the Hatcher access road above Collier Park, six or seven miles from Chiloquin. Jones testified Crawford jumped from the car with a revolver, but Jones grabbed a shotgun from his police car. Asked for Crawford's reasons for pointing a gun, Jones said, "He said I might as well go ahead and shoot him because he was going to get me because I had shot his cousin. "I told him he had the wrong man, and I didn't know the incident he was talking about." Ramirez pressed Jones about his rights of pursuit beyond the city limits. "As a matter of fact," he said, "wasn't the car outside the city limits when you started following it?" "It was pretty close, but it was inside," Jones said. When the car was stopped, Jones said, he arrested Crawford on charges of assault with a dangerous weapon, two other occupants for drunk in an auto, and the fourth for being a minor in possession of alcohol. Jury members were Guy Ferguson of Gilchrist, George Brothman of Malin, Lloyd Hankins of Bonanza, and Norman Wilson, Robert Dohlinger, Martin Swanson, Jean Brown, Mark Carman, Harry Clik, Joyce Utley, Lenore Owens and F. C. Foster, all of Klamath Falls.

Judge Grants Delay Request

Two defendants who face charges in both circuit and district courts were arraigned before Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg today. Each asked time before entering a plea.

The defendants were William Olen Gairson, 40, Bonanza ranch-hand charged with first degree murder in the death of 11-month-old Gary Lee Bursik, and Philip Duane Jackson, 24, Bonanza, charged with pointing a .22 caliber revolver at his aged grandmother.

Gairson's attorney, Warren Lesseg of Medford, maintained he had not had time to study the indictment returned Friday by the grand jury. Judge Vandenberg permitted Lesseg to enter a plea at 10 a.m. February 2.

Gairson was charged with first degree murder on Christmas Eve. He was arrested December 19 and charged with cruelty in the severe beatings of Gary Lee Bursik, who died two days before, and Gary Lee's half-brother, Billie Joe Breeding, 3-year-old who was brought into the Klamath County juvenile home one day before. Gairson's trials on the cruelty charges are to be held tomorrow before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor, beginning at 9 a.m.

Jackson was charged with assault with a deadly weapon for allegedly pointing the revolver at his grandmother, Mrs. Anna May Copperfield, December 21. He also faces district court trials on charges of assault and battery and lewd cohabitation.

His plea was set for 10 a.m. February 5 at the request of Attorney Robert Redding, who also maintained he had not had sufficient time to study the indictment. Jackson was freed on continuing $2,500 bond; Gairson was held in jail without bond.

Honesty Pays Off

Two honest Klamath Falls boys received a fat reward and a nice compliment from city police Sunday for turning in a wallet they found containing $93 and some valuable papers.

The boys are David Vincent of 111 Pine Street and Darrell Hardman. They found the billfold at the corner of Twelfth and Main streets. It belonged to Gerald Adamson of Oregon Technical Institute who works at a filling station near the point where the wallet was found.

RANCH FIRE CALL

Oregon Technical Institute and Stewart-Lenox fire departments answered a fire call to the Lee Holiday ranch near the Weyerhaeuser Company mill on Ken Road Sunday. The fire was out on arrival. No damage resulted.

ESCAPEE CAUGHT

Bybee Butler, 54, Chiloquin, was lodged in Klamath County Jail over the weekend after being arrested on escape charges. Officers said Butler disappeared for four hours Thursday while working as a trusty. He originally was arrested on drunk and disorderly conduct charges.

Police Investigate Reports Of Gun Wielder, Vandalism

A potential gunman who attempted to steal some groceries from the Safeway Store at Eighth and Pine streets Friday eluded a police detail.

Police received a call from Marvin Martin, a clerk, at 6 p.m. Martin told them a man entered the store, shopped a while, then went to the front of the store and made off with a box of groceries.

Martin said he gave chase and the man produced a pistol. The thief gave up the groceries, however, and fled.

Several other thefts or attempted thefts also came to the attention of city police over the weekend. Jack Hansen of Price Wise Incorporated, 700 Market Street, reported numerous articles of merchandise were stolen from a truck parked near the store Saturday afternoon.

Police later arrested Carlos Armandares of 518 Broad Street, and charged him with drunkenness.

Funerals

Funeral services for Frank Force, 79, who died in this city January 22, will be held in O'Hair's Memorial Chapel Tuesday, January 26, at 2 p.m., the Rev. Dallas McNeil officiating. Interment will be made in Klamath Memorial Park.

Father George Murphy officiating. Interment will be made in Mt. Calvary Cemetery. O'Hair's Memorial Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

MARTIN

MONTAGUE—Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday from the Masonic Temple at Yreka for Robert Milton Martin, 58, Little Shasta sheep rancher, who died Saturday night in the Siskiyou County General Hospital after a long illness. He was born on September 29, 1901, of a pioneer family. His father was the late Milton Martin, one of six sons of Gen. R. M. Martin and his mother was the late Beulah Marchbanks Martin. He was a member of all local Masonic orders and the Ben Ali Shrine Temple of Sacramento, Surviving are the widow, Anita, and one son, Marshall, both of Montague. Another son was killed in action in World War II over Germany. Interment will be in the family plot in the Little Shasta Cemetery.

MILLER

YREKA—Funeral services will be held from Girdner's Chapel in Yreka at 2 p.m. on Tuesday for Mrs. Minerva Alice Miller, 80, of Mount Shasta, who died Friday night in the Siskiyou County General Hospital following a short illness. She was born on the Hoover Creek Ranch in Oregon, near Beswick, California, on October 10, 1889, and lived in that area for nearly 60 years prior to moving to Mount Shasta. Survivors include the widower, George, Mount Shasta; five daughters, Elnora Ethel, Klamath Falls, Mrs. Frank Alzes, Weed, Mrs. Bert Hitchcock, Concord, California, Mrs. C. J. Doah, Mount Shasta, and Mrs. Gladys Benschuff, Sandy, Oregon; two sons, Raymond Miller of Concord, and Irvin Miller of Mount Shasta. The Rev. N. E. Ryan of the Glad Tidings Church of Weed will officiate and burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery at Yreka.

ROYSE

WEED—Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday from Upton's Mortuary for Herschel Jennings Royse, 59, who died of a heart ailment in his hotel room at Redding sometime Friday night. He was born September 7, 1900, in Missouri, and had lived at Weed for 23 years where he was employed as a watchman at the Long-Bell Division, International Paper Company, until 11 months ago when he moved to Redding. The Rev. Harold Foster of Weed Community Presbyterian Church will officiate at the funeral. Interment will be in Mount Shasta Memorial Park, Mount Shasta, with Fielding Russ of Upton's conducting the services. Survivors include three brothers, Chester Royse of Weed, Earl Royse of Redding and Jack Royse of Sacramento.

CHAMBER MEETS

CHILOQUIN—Chiloquin Chamber of Commerce will have an important dinner and business meeting at 7 p.m. Monday, January 25, in the Masonic Hall at Chiloquin.
