Bob Cousy Rated All Timer By Member Of Original Celts

By OSCAR FRALEY NEW YORK (UPI) — Bob Cousy of the Boston Celtics is the greatest basketball player who ever lived, Joe Lapchick of St. John's said today in naming his all-time five, with Wilt Chamberlain a cinch to take the honors within another year.

"Each of them has everything," Lapchick, who has seen them all come and go through the years as player and both pro and college coach, also asserted that the famed Celtics are a legend of the past "couldn't have played as a team today."

Lapchick, the first "running" center — as compared with the tall men of the past who got the tap and stepped out of the way — said that in selecting any all-time team you have to consider such players as Hank Luisetti, George Mikan, Bill Russell and Maurice Stokes.

NFL's 'Quiet Man', Halas May Still Have Last Word

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The quiet man at the stormy National Football League meeting may yet have the last word.

for expansion. Halas also says such things weren't suggested. However it seemed strange they spent 2 1/2 hours behind closed doors just to pass the time of day.

"I used to think that Pettit was the greatest," Lapchick analyzed. "I would have chosen him over Cousy because he is a big man. But I have revised my thinking. Cousy is the greatest that ever lived. He really wheels and deals."

Alliance Boss Denies Erring

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of TelePrompTer — accused of engaging in an "unholy alliance" to monopolize the world heavyweight championship by the state attorney general — today denied any wrongdoing.

"We believe our contracts to be valid," thundered Irving B. Kahn, chief of the multimillion-dollar company. "We have no intention of backing out of this position. We will cooperate but not be intimidated."

Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz Monday obtained a State Supreme Court order permitting him to file an action to dissolve both TelePrompTer and Floyd Patterson Enterprises, Ltd., for attempting to monopolize heavyweight title fights and their radio-TV movie rights.

Steele Tops 'Y' Shooters

Sterling Steele, whose 13 points led Immanuel Baptist to 35-26 win over Klamath Temple in YMCA-Church League basketball Monday night, topped all the scorers in the three games played.

In other games LDS trimmed First Christian 35-23, and Bible Baptist edged past First Baptist 24-20.

Bill Alders scored 11 points for the losing First Christian quint while Charles Richey hit 10 for the winners. Paul Walkowski, with 11 for First Baptist, was high in the FB, Bible Baptist battle.

Webfoot Frosh Handed Defeat

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP) — Joe Malan led Clark College to an 84-73 basketball victory over the University of Oregon freshmen here Monday night.

Malan scored 22 points as Clark jumped to a 44-37 lead at halftime. Oregon's Gordon Scott and Ralph Rittenour scored 18 points apiece.

Each of the top three has 31 assists while Horvath has that number of goals. Beliveau has scored 29 times, 4 last week, and Hull has 28.
