

R. H. LUNG

Lung Named Trust Officer

The promotion of Raymond R. H. Lung to the position of trust officer of the U. S. National Bank of Portland has been announced by E. C. Sammons, bank president.

Formerly an assistant trust officer, Lung is U. S. National's trust man for the Southern Oregon area. His headquarters are at the bank's Town and Country branch in Klamath Falls.

Lung joined the U. S. National in 1954 and was assigned to the trust department. He was named assistant trust officer and assigned to Klamath Falls in July, 1959. In addition, he is a member of the Oregon State Bar Association.

SHA Students Top Scholars

Two Sacred Heart Academy High School students attained perfect grades for the fall semester.

They are Rosalie Bartell, a junior, and Mary Andrieu, a sophomore. They received a 4.0 grade average in all major solid courses. The average is the highest possible in the point system used by most high schools and colleges in the nation.

Five high school students attained first honors. They are Joylene Georges, Robert Amberg, Cecilia Crouse, Mary Ann McClary and Michael Wagner. Second honors went to Jean Gasperini, Deanna Louie, James Ryan, Patricia Kosen and Kathleen Radsperner.

Third honors were won by Kenneth Arne, William Krueger, Ann Jendrzewski, William Manning, Patricia Miller, John Novak, Gary Pastega, Elizabeth Sykes, Con Fitzgerald, Rose Waters, Rose Sandberg, Gerald Amerling, James Novak, Valerie Waters, Dan Fitzgerald, Carmelle Hartin, Paul Hurley, Catherine Ross, Richard Steinhock, Katherine Brett, James Britton, Richard Krueger, Judith Madden and Judith Sandberg.

First honor students must average 3.75 points, second honor students, 3.5 points, and third honor students, 3.0 points.

DEPUTY ILL

Deputy District Attorney Otis W. Gasky was confined to his home Monday with pneumonia. The illness developed over the weekend.

Hatfield Lauds Employee Drop

SALEM (AP) — Gov. Mark Hatfield said today that "we have reduced the number of Tax Commission personnel positions even though the number of returns will probably be higher this year."

He said this has been accomplished through reorganization of the commission.

He added that he has ordered the commission to give all help possible to people in preparing their returns.

Field locations where this help is given have been set up in Portland, Astoria, Bend, Eugene, Klamath Falls, Medford, North Bend, Ontario, Pendleton and Roseburg.

About 92 per cent of the total land area of Kansas is devoted to farming and grazing.

23 Years Ago

Monday, January 24, 1937—Plans are complete for the annual meeting of the Klamath county junior chamber of commerce at which the organization will make its award to the young man chosen for outstanding civic service in 1936. Martin Swanson, retiring president of the junior chamber will preside. Percy Murray, president, and Earl Reynolds, secretary, of the senior chamber, will take part.

Tuesday, January 25, 1937—A party of Rotarians braved the winter's coldest night Monday to go to Lakeview for the charter presentation of the Lakeview Rotary club. Wilson Wiley presented the charter to the Lakeview club on behalf of the district governor.

Wednesday, January 26, 1937—Lloyd DeLap is acting as secretary of Senator U. S. Baleentine at Salem during the legislative session.

Thursday, January 27, 1937—Claude Kerns, auxiliary ketch "Nomad," and with a crew largely composed of local youths, has set sail for Honolulu on the first lap of a winter cruise. After returning from the Hawaiian islands, young Kerns and his crew will take the "Nomad" in the Gulf of Lower California on a fishing trip.

Friday, January 28, 1937—Mr. and Mrs. J. Truman Runyon (Alexis Lyle) have moved from their former home on Earle Street, to a house at 220 South Ringers Street, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Macartney, Jr.

Saturday, January 29, 1937—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Childers of 2346 Radcliffe street have chosen the name Ernest Everett for their 9½ pound baby boy born on January 28. The baby is named for his father and his father's twin brother. Childers is chief clerk in the Southern Pacific yard offices here.
