

Algiers Fight Replaced By Shame

ALGIERS (AP) — (passed by censor) — This was a city of defiant barricades, of hope mixed with uncertainty.

Algiers is about to bury its dead — civilians and gendarmes felled Sunday by bullets fired by Frenchmen against Frenchmen in a moment of panic.

Today shame replaced the heat of fighting.

But armed men continued to hold out in the barricades in the heart of the city. They stood around campfires on the sidewalks and grimly clutched guns.

Other armed men—Frenchmen like themselves—have thrown cordons around their encampment. They are the troops called in to seal off the troubled area.

No one believed after bloody Sunday that Frenchmen would again fire upon Frenchmen in Algiers.

Yet men inside the barricaded area vowed they would not surrender, that they would not leave the stronghold until Algeria is proclaimed forever French.

Most of the armed men inside the barricaded encampment have no political doctrine. Their only doctrine was a powerful throaty roar "Algeria is French."

But many of those who led them espoused right-wing ideas. Some said it was a solution of despair and fear — of fear that this country in which they formed an elite minority would some day be run by rebels.

Some solution has to come. No one knows how.

As night shrouded the city, paratroopers spread out cots and blankets on the sidewalk. Near machineguns and field packs a portable radio broadcast a Bee-thoven concerto.

PREDICTS KENNEDY VICTORY

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — State Sen. Marshall Kizer, co-manager of the Indiana Kennedy for president organization, predicted today that Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) will enter on Feb. 4 the May 3 Indiana presidential primary and win it easily.

Buck Lienallen, experienced with horses, was called. He recruited additional help. The crew dug down into the river bank so they could get a work area. The horse was then lassoed and pulled out. It suffered severe neck bruises from the rope, but otherwise was all right.

Judge Unshaken By Novel Alibi

CENTRAL FALLS, R.I. (AP) — Bertrand R. Duhamel, 22, Woonsocket, had a novel alibi in District Court Sunday where he appeared for driving 100 miles an hour.

He told the court he was driving with the girl he loves when a rival for her affections pulled up in front of them and drove at 100 miles an hour.

Duhamel said he became infuriated and put on a burst of speed, just when state troopers appeared.

He was fined $10 after Judge Guillaume Myette cautioned him he is likely to become a corpse before he becomes a bridegroom.

Inter-Tie Given Go Slow Tag

PORTLAND (AP) — Any intertie between the Columbia River Power System in the Pacific Northwest and California utilities ought to be held up until the Northwest has more assurance of protection than it has now.

That view was voiced by representatives of Northwest states, utilities and industries at a meeting here today, and California's spokesman, Ralph M. Brody, representing Gov. Pat Brown, said his state would do all it could to protect the rights of Northwest customers.

Bonneville Power Administration recently recommended an economically feasible 230,000-volt line, to be built by California private utilities, connecting to Bonneville power. The purpose would be to allow California to draw on Northwest power when surpluses were available. Congressional approval is needed.

A committee of 13 representatives of interested groups met today to make their recommendation and it developed that nearly all were worried that public agencies in California might get connected to the wire which, under the law, would give them preference over private industries or utilities in the Northwest.

Ken Billington, representing public agencies in the Northwest, recommended that no action be taken on the inter-tie until the law provides protection.

Crew Rescues Saddle Pony

PENDLETON (AP) — Nine men worked four hours Sunday to rescue a saddle pony which had fallen into the Umatilla River, east of town.

Pam Schacher, a Pendleton teenager, was leading the horse along a steep bank when it fell into the neck-deep river. The horse became mired in the soft river bottom and was unable to get out.

Buck Lienallen, experienced with horses, was called. He recruited additional help. The crew dug down into the river bank so they could get a work area. The horse was then lassoed and pulled out. It suffered severe neck bruises from the rope, but otherwise was all right.
