

Ex-Driver To Wed Deb

NEW YORK (AP) — Ex-chauffeur Andre Porumbeanu said today his wife has consented to a divorce and there "is no doubt in my mind" that he will marry Gamble Benedict, 19-year-old heiress.

Commenting on the Benedict family's efforts to break up the romance, he said, "I don't think any power can destroy love."

Romanian-born Porumbeanu made the statements at Idlewild Airport shortly after he arrived from Paris at 12:40 a.m.

Porumbeanu said that in Paris he received word "through intermediaries that my wife is willing to give me a divorce."

He said he planned to contact the intermediaries in New York to make arrangements for an early meeting with his wife Helma, 29, whom he has not seen in two years.

Porumbeanu, perspiring and appearing nervous, said he hoped to see Miss Benedict "as soon as possible." He added that he might "take legal means" to visit her if her family refuses to let him see her.

TONI GAUER

Swiss Native To Entertain

Toni Guaur of Switzerland, who is proficient with 18 native musical instruments, will entertain members of the Klamath Knife and Fork Club in the Willard Hotel Thursday evening. Reservations are required. Dinner will be served at 6:45 p.m.

Gauer, as a youngster, herded cattle in Switzerland, and thus learned to yodel and sing Swiss folk music. He is a college-trained bookseller and publisher.

At 25 Guaur made his first trip to America and set out to see the nation, liked the Midwest, and settled down to study for a year at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Gauer says his performance is essentially to entertain, but he indicates he will toss in some vignettes of his native country to prove to Americans it is more than a nation of cowherds and cheesemakers.

He has participated frequently in the famed Swiss Music Festivals.

Board Member Is Cub Scout

BLOOMFIELD, N.J. (AP) — Newest member of the Cornell University board of trustees is an 11-year-old Cub Scout and Little League baseball player.

Ezra Cornell, a tousle-haired sixth grader at Brookdale School, will have to wait ten years before he can take his seat on the 49-member board.

He succeeds his late father as the oldest lineal descendant of the school's founder, Ezra Cornell. But New York law forbids a minor from serving as a trustee, so the university will hold his place open.
