

James P. Durgin Last Rites Set

Funeral services for James P. "Pat" Durgin, 61, former Klamath Falls resident who died January 25 in Medford, will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday, January 29, with the Rev. Harold Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, officiating. Final rites and interment at Kirby, Oregon. The Conger-Morris Funeral Home, Medford, is in charge.

Mr. Durgin lived in Klamath Falls from 1935 to 1954. He was a native of Haverhill, Massachusetts.

Survivors include the widow, Josephine, Medford; two daughters, Mrs. Beth Griss, Hines, Oregon, and Mrs. Ruth Masterson, Burns; his mother, Mrs. Grace Durgin, Medford; sisters, Mrs. Persis Voelzke, Knowles, Oklahoma; a half brother, Reginald Green, Long Beach, and three grandchildren.

Dog Fanciers Name Chiefs

Robert Starbuck, a licensed structural and civil engineer who, with his wife, Lynn, likes, raises and shows good dogs, was elected as president of Klamath Dog Fanciers, Inc., at the group's annual meeting earlier this month. He succeeds Mrs. Bob McDonald who becomes chairman of the board of directors.

New vice president is Mrs. Roy Birdsong and Mrs. Leonard Allen was reelected secretary-treasurer.

Other board members are Mrs. Tom Gigsby, Mrs. Gay Nichol and Jim Gigsby, Roy Birdsong is bench show chairman for 1960.

Initial plans will get underway soon of the annual all breed dog show to be held at Klamath County fairgrounds over the Labor Day weekend.
