

PATRICIA ANDERSON was installed as Honored Queen of Bethel No. 61, International Order of Job's Daughters at ceremonies on New Year's day at the Scottish Rite Temple. — Photo by Kettler

Bethel No. 61 Installation

Bethel No. 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, held a public installation of officers on New Year's evening, January 1, at the Scottish Rite Temple, with Honored Queen Penny Preston presiding and as installing officer. Many friends and relatives were welcomed by Natalia Reichenberg, guardian, and Larry Whytal, associate guardian, as they opened the ceremony. Honored Queen Penny extended her thanks to both guardians for their help during her term and presented them with gifts.

The temple room was decorated in pink and gold shades with arrangements of pink roses about the hall and forming a background for the East.

Impressive candlelighting by Jean Bispham and Tamnia Mitchell lighted tapers in the west end of the hall, with a special ceremony of carrying and placing the Bible and crowns performed by Marie Rozum, Marian Rozum and Ronald McGill, all cousins of the incoming queen.

Entrance of a large choir preceded the march of elected officers, and after the seating of the choir, each officer lighted a pink light on a large white cross mounted near the east, as they took their chairs for installation.

Installing officers were Penny Preston, honored queen, Bethel 61, who was assisted by Joan Marshall, guide, past honored queen Bethel 61; Ann Anderson marshal, past honored queen Bethel 6; Patricia Crawley, chaplain, past honored queen Bethel 6; Barbara Moore, recorder, past honored queen Bethel 61; Sandra Nyback, musician, past honored queen Bethel 61; Jancy Meador senior custodian, Bethel 6; Sandra Short, junior custodian, Bethel 51; Susan Moss, narrator, Bethel 6; and Virginia Leaming soloist, Bethel 6.

Officers installed to serve for the next term were Patricia Anderson, honored queen; Nancy Hugelman, senior princess; Carolyn Osborn, junior princess; Susan Runge, junior princess; Susan Parisotto, marshal; Nelia Musselman, recorder; Barbara Vinson, treasurer; Nancy Herlinger, chaplain; Jackie Dukes, librarian; Tessa Green, musician; Carolyn Ball, first messenger; Jean Reichenberg, second messenger; Cheryl Ball, third messenger; Linda Hanville, fourth messenger; Jeanna Switzer, fifth messenger; Esther Deen, senior custodian; Barbara Leech, junior custodian; Sally Hanville, inner guard; Diane Bringle, historian; Oweta Homer, lady of the lights; Sue Ann Owens, soloist; and Regina Massey, flag bearer.

The Klamath Falls Chapter, Order of DeMolay, assisted in the installation with John Cox, escort; Thomas Abernathy, Richard Adkins, Trenton Douglas, Robert Kenyon, Lloyd Sealey and Robert Thompson performing their impressive sword ceremony. Virginia Leaming, soloist, accompanied by Sandra Nyback on the piano sang several selections during the ceremony with Sue Ann Owens at the closing singing "My Task."

Honored guests included Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian and present deputy grand guardian of this district; Elmer Vincent, past associate guardian of Bethel 61 and royal patron of Order of Amaranth; Kitty Hanville, Lucille Anderson, both past guardians of Bethel 61; Fanny Mae Thompson, royal matron of Amaranth; Ruth Rodenberger, worthy high priestess of the Order of White Shrine; Gus Vlahos, worshipful master of Crater Lake Lodge.

Lucille Crawley, guardian of Bethel 6, was introduced and escorted in the east by honored queen Penny. Honored queen Patricia presented the outgoing queen with the traditional Job's doll, after which an arm bouquet of flowers was presented her by all her officers. Past Honored Queen Penny presented the pins to Honored Queen Patricia after which a bouquet was presented from her mother and father.

The honored queen extended her appreciation and thanks to the Bethel and officers, after which she introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson. She also introduced her grandmothers, Mrs. Edward Rozum and Mrs. John Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. Max Rozum, Mrs. Leonard McGill and son Garry, all relatives present for the occasion. Many presentations were made by friends and by Fanny Mae Thompson, Order of Amaranth, and Ruth Rodenberger, Order of the White Shrine.

After the ceremony members and guests were received in the dining hall, transformed into a lovely pink garden, with decorations of glittering stars, stairways on the walls, spheres, fountains and "poodle trees" a background for the formal dance with the theme "stairway to the stars." The Glenn Fox Trio furnished music for the dancing party which was enjoyed by many girls and their escorts.

Janet Hall Heads Chiloquin Lodge

CHILOQUIN — "King Neptune's Paradise" was the theme of the installation of Janet Hall as worthy adviser for Assembly of Rainbow for Girls No. 70 at the Chiloquin Masonic Hall Saturday evening, January 16. She was crowned by George Howe, master councilor, for Lost River chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Installing officers for the event were past worthy advisers Janet Clark, chief officer; Claudia Heglund, marshal; Diane Kircher, chaplain; and recorder Sandra Haas. Guest Agatha DiUlio was installing musician.

Taking office in addition to Janet were worthy associate adviser, Judy Stanley; charity, Linda Oates; hope, Diane Haas; faith, Jinny Doak; recorder, Micki Wolf; treasurer, Donna Robinson; chaplain, Diane Kircher; drill leader, Sandra Haas; color stations, Karen Jenkins, Judy Adamo, Sharon Chase, Karen Chase, Lavena Martin, Kathy Peters, and Heien Hescoek.

Confidential observer, Donna Kircher; outer observer, Barbara Nicholson; musician, Cherry Wolff; choir director, Kathy Hayes. Mrs. Bert Stanley was reinstated as mother adviser and her board members are Mrs. Earl Hall, Mrs. Lyle Haas, Mrs. Joseph Adamo, Mrs. Lester Hoback, Gus Page, Dr. R. I. Kerwood, Layton Hoback, Mrs. Ricky Testi and Mrs. Bill Zurnbrun.

Assisting in the crowning ceremony were Ray Jackson, Bob Elliott, Ben Stockler, Don Breithaupt, Mike Ferguson and Dave Kennon.

Two clever addendas were presented, the number one hit song "Running Bear" dedicated to the outgoing number one adviser, Diane Kircher, and a family life skit dedicated to Janet Hall.

Later in the evening the Rainbow Girls and their guests enjoyed a dance.

SOCIETY

Officers Seated At Joint Session

YREKA — At a joint installation of officers on January 13 of Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 168 and Aurora Temple No. 53, Pythian Sisters, Clayton Rawson was seated as chancellor commander of the Knights, and Mrs. Clara Henderson as most excellent chief of the Aurora Temple.

Seated with the chancellor commander for 1960 were Edwin Brown, vice chancellor; Warren Smith, prelate; Wes McMillan, master of work; J. P. Morgan, secretary; Harold Thomas, treasurer; Harold Lange, financial secretary; Lee Morford, master at arms; Harold Coatney, inner guard; Al Glutch, outer guard; and Carl Hovey, Clarence Robinson and William S. Swigart, trustees.

To serve with Mrs. Henderson are Mrs. Irene Willenbrink, past chief; Mrs. Jackie Robinson, excellent senior; Mrs. Emma Ahlgren, excellent junior; Mrs. Dorothy Bischofberger, manager; Mrs. Marie Rawson, protector; Mrs. Gail Morgan, guard; Mrs. Mae Howard, treasurer; Mrs. Jeanne Lane, secretary; Mrs. Helena Schlueter, press correspondent; Mrs. Ruth Rider, musician; Mrs. Doris Robinson, degree staff captain; and Mrs. Valma Johnston, Mrs. Mertie Lewis and Floy Johnston, trustees.

Seating the new Knights of Pythias officers were P. Kenneth Bley, grand chancellor; Pete Schlueter, grand prelate; Ernest Johnson, grand secretary; and Wayne Armstrong, grand master at arms.

Installing officers for the Pythian Sisters were Mrs. Helena Schlueter, grand chief; Mrs. Marie Johnson, grand senior; Mrs. Ruth Barnett, grand secretary; Mrs. Kathryn Morford, grand manager; Mrs. Mildred Flock, grand musician.

Bible bearer was Susan Robinson, and presentation of the flag was by Wayne Armstrong, Wes McMillan and James Robinson.

The Rev. Harold Coleman gave the invocation prior to the installation ceremonies.

Entertainment for the evening consisted of piano solos and a duet by Sally and Susan Lange, and violin solos by Charlene Cordes.

Kenneth Bley presented past chancellor pins to Carl Hovey and Russell Smith. Mrs. Irene Willenbrink was presented the past chief's jewel by Mrs. Ruth Barnett.

Mrs. Ruth Armstrong sang, "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star," during a skit accompanied by Mrs. Helen Penney.

Mrs. Doris Robinson arranged the skit, and others participating were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ager, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wes McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robinson, Mrs. Dorothy Bischofberger, Warren Smith, Mrs. Ruth Rider and Al Glutch.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charlotte Davis, chairman, Mrs. Betty Calkins, Mrs. Alta Coatney, Mrs. Hilda Cooley, Mrs. Rita Prather, Mrs. Lee Smith and Mrs. Agnes Swigart.

Mrs. Marie Johnson was in charge of the decorations.

SUSAN MOSS was installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, at a public installation on Saturday, December 26. — Photo by Guderian

Bethel No. 6 Installs Officers

Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, public installation of officers was held Saturday, December 26, in the Masonic Temple. The lodge room was decorated in the Christmas theme with Queen Susan lettered across the window draperies in the east in honor of Susan Moss.

Candles in the east and west were lighted by Nancy Hall and Lana Gregory before the entrance of installing officers. Installing officer, outgoing Honored Queen Ann Anderson, was assisted by Pat Crawley, Jancy Meador, Sandy Short, Carol Baker, Pat Anderson, Penny Preston and Beverly Estelle.

New officers installed included Susan Moss, honored queen; Linda Hayden, senior princess; Joan Wither, junior princess; Charlotte Heyden, guide; Julie Bratton, marshal; Margaret Gallagher, chaplain; Diane Drew, senior custodian; Barbara Crapo, junior custodian; Suzanne Feeback, recorder; Sheila Hale, treasurer; Janice Parr, musician; Judy Angstead, librarian; Paula Goddard, first messenger; Hazel Robertson, third messenger; Norma Jones, fifth messenger; Myrna Frewing, inner guard; Jane Ann Craig, outer guard; Judy Esgate, lady of the lights; Judy Milne, historian; Linda Smith, soloist, and Rae Ro-track, assistant recorder.

Vivian Wilbanks sang "Shepherd, Show Me How To Go" accompanied by Carl Baker.

Honored Queen Susan Moss introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moss.

After the ceremony there was a reception and ball held in the dining room, beautifully decorated in the pink and silver theme with the focal point an illuminated pink Christmas tree.

Mrs. Charlotte Davis, chairman, Mrs. Betty Calkins, Mrs. Alta Coatney, Mrs. Hilda Cooley, Mrs. Rita Prather, Mrs. Lee Smith and Mrs. Agnes Swigart.

Mrs. Marie Johnson was in charge of the decorations.

PTA NEWS

MILLS-PONDEROSA

Mills-Ponderosa PTA held a parents night meeting on January 13 in the Mills School Auditorium.

Kristian Gippo's string orchestra and Mrs. Robert Craig's girls' ensemble entertained with several numbers.

Mrs. Vera Propst gave a very interesting inspirational opening entitled "Birds in Tree Three."

After a brief business meeting presided over by Mrs. Shirley Eccles, president, Mrs. Dorothy Norrie, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Forrest Hawley. His very enlightening subject was "What is your I.Q.?"

The flag salute was led by fifth grade Girl Scouts, Troop 74, under the supervision of Mrs. Ione Lundberg.

Refreshments were served by the second grade mothers in the cafeteria following the meeting. Tables were decorated by Cub Scout Pack 77, Den 1.

RIVERSIDE

Riverside School PTA honored various groups of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts at its January meeting held in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Winnie Scholer introduced each group. The groups included Mrs. Dolores Balcom's Bluebirds, Mrs. Martha Stearn's Brownies, Mrs. Florence Carter's Cub Scouts of Den 4, Mrs. Martha Cherry's Bluebirds, Mrs. Adolph Zamsky's Camp Fire Girls, and Mrs. Gail Brotherhood's Girl Scouts. Danny Strombough represented his Cub Scout group, Jimmy Brown spoke for Mrs. Wilma MacFarland's Cub Scouts, Judy Nicholson for Mrs. MacFarland's Girl Scouts, and Danny McKinney and Ronnie Williams were there for Mark Carman's Boy Scouts. Group members told of their activities at the present time.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Dolores Balcom, vice president, in the absence of Mrs. Julian Eccles, president. Don Golding, principal, who told the members that civil defense blanks taken home by students are to be filled in and returned to school. The test evacuation is hoped to be in May with Riverside participating.

Mrs. Orson Stearns announced the plans for a golden anniversary celebration to be held soon after the weather permits easy traveling. All those who have attended Riverside School are invited and urged to attend. Plenty of advance notice will be given. Riverside has been in active use 50 years next September.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. MacBeth's third grade room mothers. Flag salute was led by Janice Whitnire, Danny Strombough, and Judy Nicholson. Next meeting will be the Founders Day meeting in February. Room count was won by Mrs. MacBeth's third grade and Mrs. McCoy's combination sixth and seventh grades.

Delta Kappa Gamma Luncheon Hostesses

Hostesses Velma Tenney, Geraldine Owsley, Marguerite Parker, and Florence Ollman arranged a delightful luncheon meeting in the Pelican Party Room, Saturday, January 9, for the Alpha Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma and their guests, the local chapter of Alpha Delta Gamma.

Each group held its own business meeting and then both convened for a joint social hour, program, and luncheon.

The program, arranged by Helen Hoffman, was a comprehensive book review of Wallace's "Square Pegs in Round Holes." This was done by Lucille O'Neill to the delight of all her listeners.

The next meeting will be held February 6. The program will be "Spiritual Enrichment Through Social Channels." The Rev. R. C. Groves will be the guest speaker.

GEORGE HOWE was recently installed as master councilor of Lost River Chapter, Order of DeMolay. — Photo by Bob Anderson, Guderian Studio

Job's - DeMolay Install Officers

Henley Bethel 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, and Lost River Chapter of DeMolay met for a joint installation of officers Saturday, January 9, at the Henley High School cafeteria. Many guests were present for the ceremony in which Sandra Short was crowned honored queen and George Howe was installed as master councilor. The room was attractively decorated to carry out the theme of "Lavender Blue."

Donna Short was in charge of the guest book, and candles were lighted by Virginia Hatchett and Mary Swisher to open the ceremony. Retiring Honored Queen Virginia Hunt presided as installing officer and was assisted by Ann Anderson, Susan Moss, Dawn Reeder, Terry Moore, Linda Hayden, Pat Anderson, Marilyn Mack, and soloist, Vivian Wilbanks. Jerry Finchum and Randy Balsiger assisted with chairs.

Officers installed with Honored Queen Sandra were Beverly Moffitt, senior princess; Julie Rhodes, junior princess; Cindy Dehlinger, guide; Coleen Finchum, marshal; Barbara Kaylor, chaplain; Barbara Reed, recorder; Jeannette Hooper, treasurer; Helen Hurlbut, musician; Dottie Riker, librarian; Sara Williams, junior custodian; Marion Roberts, senior custodian; Linda Lanphear, first messenger; Karen Grimes, second messenger; Marlee Brethaupt, third messenger; Dana Reed, fourth messenger; Chandelle Horsley, fifth messenger; Linda Taylor, outer guard; Janie Williams, inner guard; Pamela DeLap, soloist.

Chair members are Carol Horsley, Merrie Lee, Sue Kennon, Sue Bebbler, Lydia Umloer, Vicki Brown, Jackie Williams, Cheryl Stoehler, Ann Breithaupt, Rosalind Warren, Alice Horsley, Julie McCollum, Sandy Woodard and Carol Ziegelmeyer.

Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian, was introduced and welcomed. Queen Sandra introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Short, and her sister Donna, also Guardian Orabelle Rhodes and Associate Guardian Paul Breithaupt. Retiring Queen Virginia received her past honored queen's pin, and presented the honored queen's pin to the new queen. George Howe presented her with a bouquet of red roses from the Lost River DeMolay Chapter.

Monte Dehlinger, retiring master councilor, was installing officer and was assisted by Gary Boyd, Ted Berry, Bruce Durant, Lee Kaylor and Burrell Guber. To serve with Master Councilor George Howe are Dave Kennon, senior councilor; Gary Say, junior councilor; John Roberts, senior deacon; Don Breithaupt, junior deacon; Jack Ziegelmeyer, senior steward; John Guber, junior steward; Tom McBride, orator; Gary Pippin, scribe; Aubrey Campbell, treasurer; Dick Dehlinger, sentinel; Mike Ferguson, chaplain; Ray Jackson, marshal; Tim DeYarnick, standard bearer; Larry Moffitt, almoner. Preceptors are Bob Elliott, Bill Taylor, Don Berry, Ben Stoehler, Chuck Blofsky, Bob Chapman and Gary Bebbler.

Monte Dehlinger expressed appreciation to Ted Berry for acting as master councilor during his absence.

George Howe introduced his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Howe, retiring adviser, Clyde Dehlinger, incoming adviser, Clyde Horsley, Ben Adair of the Lost River Masonic Club, and Marge Berry, president of the DeMolay Mothers Club.

After the ceremony members and guests were served refreshments by the mothers club. An evening of dancing followed.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

MACDOEL—Lynette Long celebrated her second birthday at a dinner party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Long of Macdoel, at which her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lesser Holzhauser, and Bert Holzhauser of Sams Neck were guests. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fields and family came for refreshments.

SANDRA SHORT was crowned honored queen of Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters in recent ceremonies. — Photo by Bob Anderson, Guderian Studio

Home Extension BONANZA UNIT

The Bonanza Home Extension Unit met at the library on January 12. The project was soup making, led by Phyllis Reid and Evelyn Valentine. The soup was served for luncheon at noon. Sixteen members and guests attended the meeting. The next meeting will be on patterns.

LUPE NOW at SANDRA'S BEAUTY SHOP 337 E. Main TU 4-5333 Evening Appointments, Too!

Whytal's LADIES APPAREL

901 Main Ph. TU 4-8222

annual Special Purchase handbag sale...

Novelty Bags...

Springtime favorites... so lightweight and spacious. Straws with shell and flower trims... beautiful canes with plastics... so fresh looking... all shades for spring!

$2.95*

and new summer patents!

A fresh new glistening bevy of black patent bags just waiting to be picked. Long stemmed ones with silver or gold frames, wide, roomy ones, narrow flaring ones self trimmed. Each one a gleaming accessory to carry cheerfully throughout the season!

$2.95 to $20.00*

*plus tax All purchases charged balance of January appear on February Statement... payable March 10.

JANET HALL was installed as worthy adviser of the Assembly of Rainbow for Girls No. 70 at ceremonies on January 16 at Chiloquin. —Photo by Miller-Williams