Youth Sunday Rites Slated

Youth Sunday, January 31, will be observed by the Congregational Church, 2154 Garden Avenue, with youth groups of the church participating at the 11 a.m. worship service.

A special Church School choir under direction of Mrs. Truman Nelson will present the anthem and lead congregational singing. Members of the Pilgrim Fellowship, the church Sunday Evening Youth organization will provide leadership in the service.

The sermon will be by the Rev. M. A. McKinnie, pastor. A coffee hour will follow the service. All families and friends of young people of the church are invited.

Taking part will be Roger Eastman, Pilgrim Fellowship president, who will review the program and activities of the group; Jo Ann Duffy, vice president, worship leader; Dennie Montague, Faith chairman, reading of the Scripture lesson; Gay Wood, secretary, organist.

Ushers will include Robert Burnett, Glenn Gentry, Francis Kenyon, Robert McKinnie, Bruce Pinson and Lester Plowman.

Tobi Duffy, Pamela Nelson and Charlotte Reynolds will pour at the coffee hour.

The Pilgrim Fellowship includes eighth grade and high school young people of the church and community who meet each Sunday evening for a two-hour period of planning, worship, discussion and recreation. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Burnett and the Rev. McKinnie are co-sponsors.

LDS Church Slates Work

BURNEY—The Burney Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will begin construction next spring of a chapel at an approximate cost of $40,000.

The site is located in the northwestern part of town and has been dedicated by Albert B. Peterson, president of the Shasta District of the LDS Church.

The proposed structure will serve as a chapel and recreation room until other units are added, when it will be converted into classrooms. The Burney Branch will contribute 30 per cent of the cost, including donated labor by members, and the parent body will pay the remainder.

The branch, organized in October, 1955, serves a membership of 60 residents in Burney, Montgomery Creek, McArthur and Fall River Mills.

The brick veneered structure will contain a kitchen and utility rooms.

Charles W. Wells is president of the Burney Branch.

THOUGHTS FOR MEDITATION

"Christianity," someone once said, "is not something you do to people but something you do for them."

The author of the above statement had a keener insight into the true meaning of Christianity than many of us realize at first thought. It seems a common tendency today to think in terms of what we can do to people, religiously speaking.

This is not the attitude of Christ, nor did God send His son into the world that he might do something to mankind, but that he might do something for it. Christ's life is an example of a desire to do things for the people of the world.

He caused the blind to have sight, the lame to walk, and the diseased to be healed. His coming to earth and his death on the cross are true examples of the spirit of a person whose sole interest was in doing something for us; of a person who had the greatest possession known to any being, and yet wanted only to share it with others.

Through a sacrifice of himself he made eternal life available to all who seek it. If we could enter into the true spirit of Christianity to the extent that the world could see somewhat of this spirit of Christ in our lives, we have accomplished something. If we could make them see that Christ and every true Christian since then had only the sincere desire to do something for them, then we have accomplished much.

Servicemen's Sunday

January 31 is the day which the Free Methodist Church has set aside to honor young men and women of the church, who are serving in the armed forces.

The Rev. C. O. Tremain, pastor of the church at 1918 Oregon Avenue, extends an invitation to attend the 11 a.m. service in tribute to men and women in the service.

The local church will distribute blanks for those present to send names and addresses of service personnel to whom they would like to have the ministries of this department of the church extended.

The Free Methodist Church has an active roster of 2,308 servicemen and women and has, during the past year, sent out 17,745 pieces of literature through the Servicemen's Department of which Rev. C. Mervin Russell is director.

First Baptist

"Down Memory Lane" is the theme for the all-church banquet for the First Baptist Friday night, February 5, 6:30 p.m., at the First Presbyterian Church, 601 Pine.

Lloyd Samson, Training Union director, is general chairman of the banquet. Mrs. Norman McKeehan is program chairman, and Clyde Dixon is in charge of ticket sales.

The tickets are 75 cents for children under 12 years and $1.50 for all over 12. Members and friends of the church may get tickets from Clyde Dixon, or from the following committee members: Dale Ellis, Bob Bates, John Herring, Judi Robinson, Katy Warren. They will also be available in the church office.

Public Address

A public address, "What's This World Coming To?" will be given at 3 p.m. Sunday, January 31, in Kingdom Hall, 833 North Ninth, meeting place of Jehovah Witnesses. The speaker will be Lewis Casey, local minister.

A weekly Watchtower study will follow at 4:15 p.m. Subject of this study will be "The Pursuit of Peace." The public is invited and no collection is taken.
