Nancy Louise Gustafson Is Bride Of Gerald Ivan Barker In Seattle

Nancy Louise Gustafson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit R. Gustafson of Seattle, became the bride of Gerald Ivan Barker on Monday evening, December 28, in the Harrington Memorial Chapel of the University Congregational Church in Seattle. Dr. H. R. Turner officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Barker of Klamath Falls, parents of the bridegroom, were present for the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a blush pink delustered satin gown with a Sabrina neckline of Alencon lace embroidered with pearls. three quarter length sleeves and a scalloped, dropped waistline above the full floor length skirt. Her pink tinted veil was held in place by a wreath of pink pearl flowers and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and pink hyacinth surrounding a white orchid.

The attendants wore moss green satin and chiffon frocks made with short bell shaped skirts. Margery Gustafson was maid of honor for her sister and Sandra Whitehead and Virginia Cunningham were bridesmaids. Each carried a bouquet of pink roses.

John Ellis of Corvallis was best man and ushers were John Sahr and Omel Turk.

Assisting at the reception following the ceremony were the bride's aunts, Cecilia Miller of San Francisco and Mrs. William Taplin of Tacoma, and the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Ivan Barker of Sandy, Oregon. Mrs. Sherman Stevens of Pullman attended the guest book.

They were both graduated in June from the University of Washington where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority and he of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

The newlyweds are now residing in Vancouver, Washington, where Mrs. Barker is an English teacher on the faculty of McLoughlin Junior High School. Her husband is a pharmacist intern at the Sandy Rexall Drug Store in Sandy, Oregon.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Dixie Ann Scapple and Chester Klock Jr. was announced January 4 on the campus of Oregon State College. In a traditional ceremony a lighted candle adorned with yellow roses and ribbon was passed and cookies iced with clock faces were given to Alpha Phi sorority sisters of the prospective bride. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Scapple of 1810 Eldorado Street and is a sophomore student at OSC. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Klock Sr., 4846 Hilyard Street, is a junior at the University of Oregon and is affiliated with Beta Pi fraternity. A late summer wedding is planned by the couple.

FEBRUARY 20 is the date chosen by Margie Ann Longhofer for her marriage to Jerry A. Rajnus Jr. The engagement was made recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Longhofer of Midland. The prospective bride is a graduate of Henley High School. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry A. Rajnus Sr. of Malin and is a graduate of Malin High School. The wedding will take place in Mt. Laki Church. — Photo by Ferebee

MUGO PINE, sprayed white and arranged with lavender pink chrysanthemums and accompanied by white candles in black holders, made an attractive centerpiece for the tea table at the annual benefit party given by the Klamath Falls Women's Library Club on January 23. Mrs. Loren Palmer-

ANIMAL CHARACTERS, each one different, were designed and drawn by Mrs. Delmer Wright for "book cover" bridge tallies admired by the many women who attended the benefit party of the Woman's Library Club on Saturday. "It's Always Booktime" was cleverly carried out with a booktree design and banner for the stage and medallions of bookjackets on the walls. Score sheets were drawn on unprinted newspaper table covers and prizes were wrapped in newspaper, tied with black and white ribbon. Name tags were diminutive books.
