

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM MARTIN VAN CLEAVE
— Photo by Jones Studio, Lakeview

Van Cleave-Hewitt Vows Read In Lakeview Church

LAKEVIEW — Shirley Loraine Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vere O. Hewitt of Lakeview, became the bride of William Martin Van Cleave, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Van Cleave, also of Lakeview, at a double ring ceremony on January 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Lakeview. Dr. Alfred Russell officiated, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The church was decorated with baskets of blue and white stocks and carnations, white tapers and blue ribbons. Organist was Mrs. Howard Ritchey of Grants Pass, and soloist was Mrs. William LaBlanc of Lakeview.

The bridal gown of Chantilly lace was styled with scalloped neckline embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The sleeves of the close fitting bodice came to a point over the wrists. The back of the dress was emphasized by a cascade of lace and tulle ruffles falling into a chapel train. Her veil was a mantilla of Chantilly lace and her bouquet was of white rosebuds centered with a white orchid, carried with a white Bible. The Bible was loaned by a former classmate, Holly Mackey of San Francisco. Matron of honor was Mrs. William Millsap of Lakeview. Her dress was fashioned of ice blue nylon organdy over royal blue taffeta, with bandeau neckline and full gathered skirt. The royal blue accent was in the shoes and headband and a taffeta cummerbund. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and chrysanthemums tied with blue ribbon.

Sherrain Arzner and Meachell Arzner, cousins of the bride, were the other attendants. They wore frocks of ice blue nylon organdy over sapphire blue taffeta and the costume accents were of sapphire blue. They carried nosegays of the carnations and chrysanthemums.

William Millsap was best man and ushers were Paul Rychard and Robert Gooch of Lakeview.

Sharon Lee Van Cleave, sister of the bridegroom, and Nancy Jo Clemens of Bly, a cousin, were flower girls. Their costumes were similar to those of the attendants.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The three tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. Norma Blalock and was served by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Herman Arzner, assisted by Mrs. Alvas Elliott, great-aunt of the bride. Aunts

MRS. HOWARD BRANDIS JR.
— Photo by Steinmertz Studio, Salem

Former Tulelake Girl Is Bride In Albany Rites

A wedding of interest to friends in Tulelake and Klamath County, solemnized on December 28 at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Albany, united Kathryn Jane McFadden and Howard Brandis Jr.

The dark-haired, petite bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Goldblatt and the late Arthur Goldblatt of Corvallis and Tulelake, and granddaughter of the late Senator and Mrs. J. N. McFadden, members of a pioneer Corvallis family.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Helen Hayes and Howard Brandis Sr., both of Reno.

The bride lived for several years in Tulelake, attending both elementary and high schools.

The Rev. Robert S. O. Cistercian of Sacramento officiated at the Nuptial Mass. Twin cousins of the bride, Michael and Patrick Irelan, Sublimity, officiated as altar boys for the 3:30 o'clock ceremony. Altars of the picturesque old church were banked with white snapdragons and white mums. Alternate pews were marked with the blossoms and white satin bows.

Soloist, Thomas J. Williams, Corvallis, sang "Panis Angelicus," before the mass and "Ave Verum," immediately following. Mrs. Odella J. Wilson was organist for the professional and recessional.

Arthur L. McFadden gave his sister in marriage.

Her blush pink peu de sole gown, a New York import, was fashioned with Alencon lace, bodice with the low, round neckline of lace scallops. The very full skirt of silk, swept into a chapel train, accented with a pleated cummerbund, completed with two full-blown roses of the silk above the train, accented the bride's tiny waist.

A fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of pearl outlined velvet leaves. Her only jewel was a golden cross with single pearl, gift of her brother Lt. Julian McFadden stationed in Okinawa. Her flowers were a cascade of gardenias, garnet roses and white velvet leaves.

Ann Robinson, Eugene, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid were Mrs. Theodore Osgood, Seattle, and Bette Brandis, Reno.

All wore frocks of American Beauty velvet with fitted bodices, belled skirts and matching satin cummerbunds ending at the waistline with pleated bows. Their white veils were velvet trimmed and they carried woods - green shirred velvet muffs with sprays of holly and pernetty berries.

Small Jenny Hector, flower girl, in a bouffant white organdy frock, belted in American Beauty velvet and matching headband, carried garnet roses. Ring bearer was Ronald Crook.

Best man for his brother was Daniel Brandis of Reno. James McFadden, Coos Bay, was one of four ushers.

The wedding reception was held at "Pleasure Acres," family home. A lighted fireplace, Christmas greens and lighted tapers formed the background for the receiving line.

The five-tiered white wedding cake was encircled with red rose buds and gardenias. Tapers in sterling candelabra completed the center motif. The white-satin-covered bride's table, the music room and gift display rooms, carried out the holiday color theme.

NEW OFFICERS were installed by Ewauna Toastmistress Club on Monday, January 11. Pictured, left to right, are Rowena McDonald, president; Mrs. Fred Journeay, treasurer; Mrs. H. F. (Bud) Smith, past president; Norma Reiche, secretary. Not pictured is Mrs. Eldred Hansen, vice president.

The new Mrs. Brandis is a graduate of the Convent of Notre Dame at Belmont, California, and of Corvallis High School. She attended the University of Oregon, Providence School of Nursing at Portland, and UCLA for three years. Recently she has been employed as a Braniff airline stewardess based in Kansas City, Missouri.

Her husband is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and a student in architecture at the University of Oregon where he will continue his studies this winter.

The newlyweds will make their home at 335 North 31st Street in Eugene.

Lions Auxiliary Plans Annual Party

Plans for the annual sweetheart party for Klamath Falls Lions Club Auxiliary members and their husbands were announced by the president, Mrs. Walter Franklin, when the group met on January 11 at the home of Mrs. Keith Codrington. Mrs. Roy Lien, Mrs. C. W. Davis and Mrs. Robert Garrison were co-hostesses.

The party this year will be held at the Yacht Club on February 3 with a cocktail hour at 6:30 preceding a potluck dinner and evening of dancing. Auxiliary officers will be in charge, and any

TUNIC STYLES

A good many tunics are shown for resort wear. Not all of these are straight and slim. Some are double-belled skirts. Very pretty, too.

Toastmistresses Install Officers

Rowena McDonald was installed as the new president of Ewauna Toastmistress Club at ceremonies on January 11 at the Willard Hotel. She succeeds Mrs. H. F. (Bud) Smith. Other new officers are Mrs. Eldred Hansen, vice president; Norma Reiche, secretary; Mrs. Fred Journeay, treasurer. Each officer was presented a medallion representing the key to her office.

Mrs. Ed Boothby gave her ice-breaker speech. Toastmistress was Mrs. Mark Carman.

Lois McKendree was inducted as a new member.

The next meeting will be January 25 at 7:30 at the Willard Hotel. Those interested are invited to attend.

ALONG WITH THIS... SEND

Valentines

And A Thoughtful GIFT

Distinctive and loving messages touch the hearts of those you love... Gibson Valentines. Browse through our complete selection of Gibson Valentine cards.

YOUR STORE

"Klamath's Home Accessory
And Gift Store"
721 Main TU 4-4561

LUPE
NOW at SANDRA'S
BEAUTY SHOP
337 E. Main TU 4-5335
Evening Appointments, Too!

The Town Shop

500 MAIN

The new Pendleton coats, jackets, skirts and sweaters for Spring have arrived!

The original reversible skirt

Pendleton

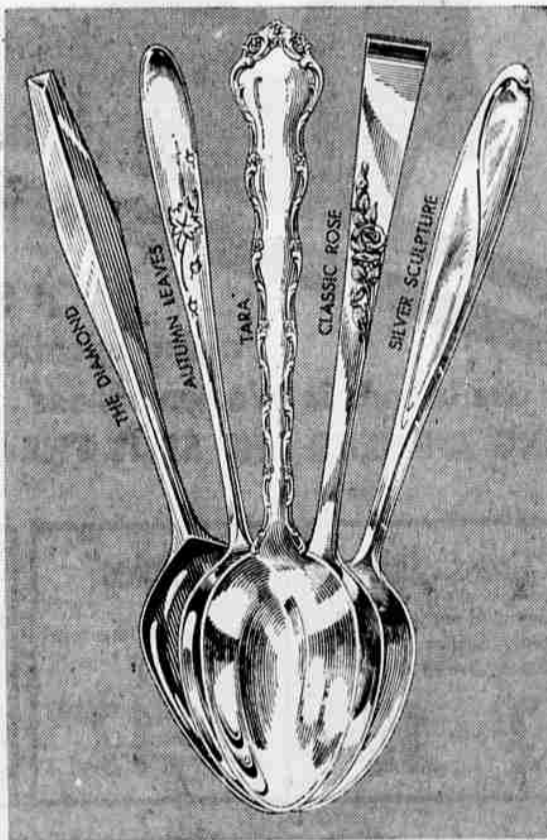

Turnabout

$29.95

You're seeing double... the two skirts shown are one and the same! Thanks to Pendleton's patented design*, either side's the right side, yet truly different in pattern and colors. (Construction is identical inside and out.) From the figure-flattering stitching at the hips to the swaying of its hem, TURNABOUT is twice as nice, twice as versatile, in virgin wool ombres, stripes and plaids in sizes 8-16. Color-coordinated to Pendleton sweaters and skirts. Shown with (left) fine gauge collar slipover, 36-40, and (right) whisper-soft Pendleflor slipover, 36-40. Both sweaters virgin wool at $12.95

Pendleton...
Exclusively at
The Town Shop,
in Klamath Falls!

"Spoon!" with
Reed & Barton
Sterling — Gifts from $4.00

Prickys
Downtown
700 Main St.
and
Town & Country

See more... enjoy more... spend less!
"An Adventure in Travel!"
GATEWAY ALL EXPENSE-12 COUNTRIES
Holidays 35 to 54 DAYS
EUROPE $685 UP
Or by AIR — 22 DAYS
$741 up (Family Plan)
$835 up (Individual Basis)
Via Cunard, U. S., Holland, Home, French, American Export, North German Lloyd Lines, etc.

FIRST CLASS THROUGHOUT EUROPE

See all of Europe at a price you can now afford. Rate includes steamer tourist class round trip or air—hotels—practically all meals—sightseeing—tips, etc.

- * Luxurious liners * First class hotels — more than 50% of nights with private bath
- * Complete sightseeing * Gala lunches, dinners, cocktails, entertainment included
- * Trained tour managers * Modern motor-coaches, spacious seating * Superb food throughout — many extra features.

So for the best trip your money can buy, write for descriptive booklet to:
McIntyre Travel Service
716 Main Phone TU 4-5143