

Brownson-Barnett Vows Exchanged In Menlo Park

YREKA—Lois Jean Barnett became the bride of Jack J. Brownson in a 2 o'clock candlelight service the afternoon of December 19 at the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Roland W. Anderson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Barnett of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Brownson of Waverly, Iowa, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Chester Barnett gave his daughter in marriage before the altar decorated with large baskets of white stock and flanked by lighted candelabra. For her wedding, the bride chose a cocktail length gown of white lace tulle, featuring a scalloped scoop neckline and long sleeves. The full princess style skirt fell from an Empire waistline, marked with a bow. A crown of pearls held her float veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of white butterfly orchids and stephanotis. A strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Maid of honor for her sister was Charlotte Barnett of Palo Alto, and serving as bridesmaid was Sybil Hoffman of Redwood City, roommate of the bride. Linda Barnett, the bride's younger sister, was junior bridesmaid.

Identical gowns of green iridescent tulle were worn by all the attendants, who carried bouquets of English holly and red carnations.

Serving as best man was Ken Morely of Palo Alto, and guests were seated by Nestor Delevaux, Palo Alto and Dan Heaton, Menlo Park.

Claudia Andreason of Palo Alto, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. She also sang the 13th chapter from First Corinthians.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in Westminster Hall of the church, which was decorated with English holly and red carnations in keeping with the Yule season. Focal point of the bride's table was a beautifully decorated three tier cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Of particular interest was the miniature porcelain bride and groom made by Mrs. Irene Willenbrink, a close friend of the bride and her family. The veil on the figure bride was a piece of the bride's own veil, and the gown was made to closely resemble the bride's own gown.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barnett chose a blue floral print dress, complemented with black accessories. Her corsage was of white butterfly orchids. The bridegroom's parents were unable to be present.

Guests were registered by Barbara "Bobby" Ramsey.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to the Monterey peninsula. They returned to Yreka where they spent the holiday season with the bride's parents. For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Brownson donned an aqua knit suit, complemented with black accessories, and the corsage was from her bridal bouquet.

The bride, a graduate of Yreka High School and Stanford University, teaches second grade at White Oaks Elementary School in San Carlos.

Her bridegroom is a research scientist for Ames Research Center at Moffett Field. He is a graduate of Waverly High School and Iowa State College. They will reside in Palo Alto.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lauridsen and children, Sharon and Vernie; Mrs. Irene Willenbrink, Mrs. Ernest Johnson, and Mrs. Victor Henderson, all of Yreka; Mrs. Dorothea Stripling, Mountain View; Mrs. Doris Hubbard and son, Gene, Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fioletta of El Cerrito.

While the newlyweds were in Yreka, Mr. and Mrs. Barnett feasted them by holding open house on Sunday, December 27, which was attended by approximately 40 people.

Local Couple Greets Daughter

A baby girl, their second daughter, was welcomed last week by Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Cruikshank of 1020 Pacific Terrace, Lynn Reed weighed 7 lbs., 14 ozs., when she arrived on January 23 at Klamath Valley Hospital. She joins an older brother and sister, Robert, 4, and Carol, 2.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elton S. Wayland of Southbury, Connecticut, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Cruikshank of Watertown, Connecticut.

NAME IT and Peggy Chilcote could show the latest in any sports equipment for the members of Nile Club at their regular meeting on January 5.

— Photo by Kettler

Sojourners

Sojourners met for a regular luncheon meeting January 13 in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. Mrs. Ward Baldwin, president, conducted a short business meeting.

First time guests attending were Mrs. C. C. Pinner, Mrs. Mary Reames, Mrs. R. C. Simmers, Mrs. lone Waybright and Kay Garrison; second time guests were Mrs. C. N. Garrison, Mrs. Gus Pranger and Mrs. Joe Strite, third time guests were Mrs. Jeanne Dody and Mrs. Bert Meir. There were two visitors, Mrs. Florence Schonebaum and Mrs. Ella Christopherson. Thirty-one members were present.

An afternoon of cards followed and high score prize at bridge was awarded to Mrs. Lee Holliday and second high to Mrs. Charles Dakin. Mrs. Richard Bowers won high score prize at canasta and Mrs. R. C. Simmers at pinocle.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Emma Carter and Mrs. Barbara Holliday.

Newcomers are welcome and can secure information from Mrs. Eugene O. Jackson at TU 5-5078.

HEDDA HOPPER couldn't have done better in choosing a hat to complement the costume worn by Pat Lindley as she commented the fashions at the show given for Zuleima Nile Club.

— Photo by Kettler

Prosperity Lodge

Noble Grand Helen Blanas presided at the regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge, No. 104, on January 21.

During the meeting Kathryn Hogue was elected to a three year term as trustee. Olive Hanna, vice grand, announced she would, with the members' cooperation, collect coffee can lids for the white elephant fund.

The Social Club is planning a card party and tea for the near future. Kathleen Hepburn and Edith Barleen are the newly elected president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the club.

The annual Odd Fellows pancake and ham supper will be held on February 2 at the IOOF Hall.

Following recess Odd Fellow members were welcomed to the meeting in recognition of the 178 years of the founding of the order. Edith Ward gave a reading on Thomas Wildey, founder of the IOOF in the United States. Retha Kirby, Donna Odell, Juanita Lundsten, Naomi Fay and Helen McCornack sang "Jack the Sailor."

Nile Club Sees Unusual Styles

A variety of ensembles defying description and of dubious origin were modeled at the January 5 meeting of Klamath Zuleima Nile Club at the Willard Hotel. Pat Lindley, convincing as Hedda Hopper, commented on the debatable styles modeled by Marge Dugan, Harriett Johnson, Betty Kellstrom, Wilma Wiley and Peggy Chilcote. Florence West served as chairman of the day. Ninon Nyback, in charge of decorations, used centerpieces of iris, carnations and hyacinths with greenery and pink candles for the tables.

New members of Zuleima Nile introduced and presented with corsages were Roberta McGee, Delight Hicks and Marge Whytal. Other new members, but not present, are Mildred Steele and Isabel Sanders.

Birthday awards were presented to Jean Aldrich, Fern Miner and Mary Sayre. Special prizes went to Jean Coddington, Pat Lindley, Ruth Renie, Mary Totton and Faith Brock.

Mae Moss displayed a beautiful afghan which will be used as a club project.

Carrie Rush gave a report on the Christmas box sent to the Shrine Hospital.

Katherine Stonecypher and Grace Huls reported on the recent Ceremonial in Ashland. The next Ceremonial will be in Eugene in February. President Pat Lindley appointed Ruth Renie, Dorothy Ellis and Karen Young to the nominating committee.

The next local meeting will be February 3 and election of officers.

SURPRISE PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Bud Lee gave a surprise party at home in Langell Valley on Saturday evening for her husband who was celebrating his birthday. Pinocchio was enjoyed followed by refreshments which included a birthday cake made by Patty Schmidt. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Walker of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden, Jean and Ronald Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Lee.

MR. AND MRS. JACK J. BROWNSON

Faculty Wives Present Hobbies

A hobby show in keeping with the theme of the month provided an interesting January meeting for the OTI Faculty Wives and Womans Club. A display of various hobbies in the Student Lounge was open to the public during the afternoon. Included in the show were collections of coins, postcards, flower arrangements, paintings, cut glass, pitchers, spoons, to name a few.

Each person displaying a hobby told how she became interested in it and where different items were collected.

Chairman for the meeting was Mrs. Hal Rotrock. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Elmer Ziegler, Mrs. Donald Whitner and Mrs. Grant Bailey.

A special prize was won by Mrs. James Boyle.

Jon Houston Receives Honor

From Pacific University at Forest Grove comes word that Jon Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, 1954 Manzanita Street, has recently been tapped for membership in Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism honorary. Formal initiation will be held February 22.

Jon is a senior majoring in business administration and serves as advertising manager of the Index, the university publication. He is also past president of Pi Upsilon Rho, local radio-speech honorary.

Lakeview Couple Reveals Betrothal

LAKEVIEW—The engagement of Wanda Sue Cossey to Jere P. Barry has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cossey. He is the son of Mrs. M. P. J. Barry. Both families are Lakeview residents.

Wanda is a graduate of Lakeview High School and the Medford Beauty School. Her fiancé is also a Lakeview High School graduate and attended Oregon State College.

A wedding date has not been set.

SPRING SUIT SHAPE-UP

New decade—new spring—new suit shapings on the horizon. Thoroughly feminine in all of their several interpretations, you can make a certain suit look your own and exclusive property this year. Individuality is the keynote, so take your look and go like '60. Left: suit with an impeccable line. Green or grey Glen plaid; 79.95 Center: kimono sleeve suit, gently belted by Harrod's Navy or beige tweed; Right: belted suit with tri-tone highlights. Grey; 89.98.

La Pointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE