VODKA TONIC—FOR SKIN
 NEW YORK (UPI)—Maybe the Russians should peddle this skin lotion to thaw the cold war. The Glycerine Producers' Association reports that a Soviet woman's magazine, "Rabotnitsa" (Woman Worker), offered this suggestion on skin care: "It is desirable to rub the skin once or twice a day with fortifying substances, e.g. two g. hydrochloric acid, 10 g. glycerine, 70 g. mint water and 30 g. vodka."

NEW DESIGN SPEEDS FLOW — The inevitable clash of pedestrians meeting head-on in the middle of the street was solved in Madison, Wis., with this new crosswalk design. Two parallel lines of white tile extend from either curb, fading out midway across. A diagonal curb-to-curb line between them forms two "wedges" which, city authorities say, shorten walking time across the street.

1960 Olympic Tickets Are Hard To Come By Now

ROME (UPI)—Inflation has been stopped at the 1952 level as far as ticket prices for the 1960 Olympic games are concerned.
 Prices for the games in Rome, if purchased here range from 300 to 6,000 lira (48 cents to $9.60), about the same as they were at Helsinki in 1952, less than they were at Melbourne in 1956. If you buy your tickets abroad, they are a little higher.
 The problem, however, is how to get the tickets.
 The various Olympic stadiums will accommodate a total of 250,000 spectators. The tickets will be distributed early in 1960; half of them abroad.
 Judging from the number of inquiries already received by the Italian Olympic Organizing Committee, there will be a premium for the main events—a premium that might be 10 times their original value in a city where black-marketing is an old and refined art.
 In an effort to give foreign visitors as fair a chance as possible, the Organizing Committee worked out an elaborate system for ticket distribution.
 The main points are:
 —Tickets are being shared between Italy and foreign countries on a 50-50 basis;

—Only officially accredited tourist agencies are authorized to sell tickets abroad, and only to persons who can show they have secured housing accommodations in Rome;
 —An initial number of tickets are allocated to each foreign country; if demand exceeds supply, subsequent allocations will be made if tickets still are available;
 —Any tickets still remaining will be put on sale in Rome on a first-come, first-served basis.

FANCY POTATO SALAD
 NEW YORK (UPI)—Herbed potato salad is a one-dish meal designed to please all appetites. Saute until tender 1 1/2 cups of sliced fresh mushrooms in two tablespoons of salad or olive oil. Cool slightly. Combine mushrooms with 1/2 teaspoon of instant minced garlic, four tablespoons of fresh lemon juice, two tablespoons of instant minced onion, one teaspoon of salt and 1/2 teaspoon of ground black pepper. Let stand until cold. Combine two cups of cooked sliced potatoes, 1/4 cup of shredded carrots, 1/4 cup of chopped celery and two cups of lobster chunks. Pour mushroom mixture over this and marinate for one hour. Serves four.
