

Child Born; Shocks Folks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Richard Lewises' fourth child was a complete surprise—even to Mrs. Lewis, 32.

Her husband, Capt. Richard Lewis of the Los Angeles fire department, said Monday: "We were just sitting around the house Sunday when Ellen said, 'I feel like I'm going to have a baby.' I thought she was kidding so I just grinned and said, 'That's fine—go ahead.'"

"I'm not fooling," she told me. And by golly, she wasn't!"

Lewis teaches birth procedures to fire department emergency crews, but: "Things got kind of fuzzy at one point and I couldn't remember all the details. But finally the baby was born — 7 pounds, 6½ ounces."

Mrs. Lewis said she thought nothing of her only indication of pregnancy—the need to change from a size 14 dress to a 15.

RONNIE L. YBARRA, Marine private, son of Mrs. Edna M. Ybarra of 2607 Radcliffe Avenue, is scheduled to finish four weeks of combat training February 5 at Camp Pendleton.

Shoe Shop Changes Hands

Change in ownership of Bob's Shoe Repair Shop, 1019 Main Street, brought a new family to Klamath Falls. Recent owner, Bob Gentry, traded shoe shops with Carl Gunnard Bjorsen, recently of Berkeley.

Bjorsen, in business for several years, has changed the business name to Gunnard's Shoe Revitalizing and will specialize in revitalizing footwear.

He was accompanied to Klamath Falls by his wife and 11-year-old daughter. The family is presently living at 1440 East Main Street.

A FARE RIDE
WYTHEVILLE, Va. (UPI) — Passengers on the Norfolk and Western's main line between Roanoke and Bristol, Va., got classier accommodations than they bargained for Monday.

A rock and earth slide had covered more than 500 yards of track. The passengers were shunted around the slide by taxicab.

2 To Attend 4-H Conclave

Two veteran 4-H club members will represent Klamath County at a statewide "Know Your State Government" conference in Salem this week.

Delegates are Toby Schuh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schuh, 4039 Shasta Way, and Martha Tubach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tubach of Poe Valley.

The three-day conference Thursday through Saturday will concentrate on state government functions. Speakers will include Secretary of State Howell Appling, Senate President Walter Pearson, House Speaker Robert Duncan, State Treasurer Howard Belton, Supreme Court Chief Justice William McAllister, and Charles Sprague, former governor, and publisher of the Salem Statesman.

Robert Lincoln, son of Abraham Lincoln, was United States representative to England from 1889 to 1893.
