Home Extension

Klamath County homemakers will be discussing program planning in their units during the months of February and March, reports Ruth Dyer, county extension agent. Program planners and observers were trained for their duties in a countywide meeting held at the fairgrounds January 22.

In this training meeting the County Advisory Committee participated by discussing the situation in the subject phases of the Home Economics Program. The representatives of the units who attended the meeting included the following:

Altamont—Mrs. Peale Harsey, Mrs. Alma Uppendahl; Bonanza—Mrs. Eula Prough, Mrs. Lura Urbach; Buena Vista—Mrs. Betty Adams; Chilquin—Mrs. Pansy Ohles, Mrs. Viva Kirk; Conger-Fairview—Mrs. Ann Federhart, Mrs. Neva Hayes; Fairhaven—Mrs. Pat Blakesley, Mrs. Jo Harris; Henley—Mrs. Marjorie Stough; Mrs. Mildred Swisher; Keno—Mrs. Stella Padgett, Mrs. Lorraine Anderson; Klamath Falls—Mrs. Naomi Ritzel; Langell Valley—Mrs. Virginia Kent; Malin—Mrs. Emma Morelock, Mrs. Rosella Martin; Merrill—Mrs. Mary Reed, Mrs. Anne Johnson.

OTI—Mrs. Jeanette Galian; Mrs. Ann Folk; Poe Valley-Olene—Mrs. Loraine Emrick, Mrs. Martha Wenz; Shasta-Homedale—Mrs. Margaret Kirkpatrick.

County Advisory Committee members included Mrs. Beulah Klobner, Mrs. Mildred Marten, Mrs. Marion Pratt, Mrs. Maren Randall, Mrs. Kathryn Billings, Mrs. Margaret Freuer, and Mrs. Leah Ferrell.

A second program planning meeting will be held in March. Each of the program planners and observers will discuss the topics submitted by the units.

ALTURAS GARDEN CLUB

At the January meeting of the Alturas Garden Club in the home of Mrs. Warren Sloss reports were given on the various workshop and social activities since the last meeting.

The Christmas show and sale held at the home of Mrs. Fred Huffman was reported to have been a highly successful undertaking. Mrs. Carlo Neilson and Mrs. Harry Pinneo, guests, and 16 members enjoyed the beautiful decorations, gift exchange and luncheon served by Mrs. Huffman and her co-hostess, Mrs. Jay Novack.

The committee expressed thanks to all who participated in the outdoor Christmas lighting contest. The Modoc Medical Center Committee members reported they had decorated a modern tree in the lobby of the hospital, a living tree for the staff members party and a traditional tree for the older people in the television room. New material and lights were purchased with funds from the Christmas display sale.

Mrs. Warren Cantrall, chairman of the entertainment of the older people at the hospital on Valentine's Day, will contact members for donations of homemade cookies and candies. A workshop will be held in the near future to make Valentine containers.

The club will again sponsor the conservation essay contest for pupils of the elementary grades and the planting of trees for Arbor Day, March 7. Mrs. Leo Gloster will be chairman.

There was general discussion in regard to junior gardens and the ways and means of getting this very important project started in Alturas. Mrs. Warren Sloss was named chairman of this project.

BONANZA GARDEN CLUB

BONANZA—The Bonanza Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Gloria Wooten of Langell Valley January 22. President Mrs. Elsa Clark was in charge.

Mrs. Wooten gave a talk on African violets, potting and the care of them. Later a sale of African violets was held for the benefit of the club.

Mrs. Elsa Clark presented a quiz of flower arrangements.

A collection was taken to be given to the New March of Dimes. At the next meeting in the home of Mrs. Violet Brown members will make arrangements of dried cones and flowers on plaques. It is hoped Mrs. Crystal Cheyne from Klamath Falls will instruct.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Virginia Halsey, Mrs. Violet Brown, Mrs. Elsa Clark, Mrs. Wiladean Hall, Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, Mrs. Alyce Haley, Mrs. Aline Overheide and Mrs. Irene Hartley.
