

Home Rites Unite Couple

WEED—Marriage vows were solemnized January 19 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tidmore in Angel Valley for their daughter, Rita Fay, and Gerald Gene Zabel. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Graham of Gazelle.

The Rev. J. A. Meadows performed the double ring rites at 8 o'clock with many friends and relatives of the young couple attending. For her wedding, the bride wore a white lace over nylon net gown and fingertip veil held by a crown of lace. A bright blue ribbon tied the bridal bouquet of white carnations.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Naomi Allen, sister of the bride, wore a white and orchid dress and carried a pink carnation bouquet.

Best man duties were performed by Curtis Tidmore, brother of the bride.

Following the wedding ceremonies a reception was held in the Tidmore home. A four tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the reception table and was surrounded with white roses. The couple cut their wedding cake in the traditional manner before its serving to the nearly 50 friends and relatives.

The bride attended the Weed Elementary School and Weed High School. Her husband has been with the Air Force for the past four and one-half years.

Immediately following the reception the newlyweds left for Edwards Air Force Base where he is now stationed and they will make their new home.

Clara Moore Honored By Club

Mrs. Clara Moore was welcomed as an honorary member of Quota Club of Klamath County at its meeting February 2 at the Willard Hotel. Mrs. Moore, who was introduced by Margaret Sheridan, was Quota Club Woman of Achievement of 1957. Natalia Reichenberg, vice president, presented her the Quota emblem and a red rose corsage, the 14th district flower.

B. K. Swartz, curator of the Klamath museum, was introduced by Margaret Sheridan, program chairman. He spoke about the museum and outlined its various programs and functions.

Women's Society Schedules Dinner

YREKA — The Yreka Women's Society of Christian Service has scheduled February 25 for its annual dinner. Preliminary plans were discussed at a meeting held by the group last week at the Yreka Methodist Church.

Mrs. Harold Evett presided over the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. James Sullivan. Mrs. Robert Buckner led the devotions.

The annual dinner, one of many projects sponsored by the Yreka WSCS, is open to the public and will take place at the Yreka Methodist Church.

A potluck luncheon was served after the meeting in the social room of the church. Mrs. Henley Clawson gave a talk on missions in Africa, which she illustrated by showing a film on the subject.

Church Altar Nuptial Site

The wedding of Barbara Edwards to William Reaney was solemnized on January 23 at 8 p.m. in the Free Methodist Church of this city. Baskets of carnations were decorations for the double ring ceremony read by the Rev. James Rockholt.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Edwards. She wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace in a wedding ring design with white slippers and a short tulle veil made by her maid of honor. She carried a bouquet of white roses. For tradition she wore a blue garter and a borrowed necklace of pearls.

Maid of honor, Ann Martin of Ashland, wore a blue frock and carried white carnations.

John Gamble served as best man. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rowan of Salem.

Assisting at the reception in the church parlors were Alene Carothers, Jeanine Olson and Sue Ferrell. Phyllis Edwards, the bride's sister, was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are at home on the Oregon Technical Institute campus.

Camellia Lodge Elects Officers

Mrs. Mario Pastega was elected and installed president of Klamath Falls Camellia Lodge, Daughters of Italy, during a regular monthly meeting recently in Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

Other officers are Mrs. Louie Pastega, assistant president; Mrs. Remo Melchiori, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Nello Pieruccini, treasurer, and Clara Cabella, financial secretary.

The lodge will sponsor a dance and buffet dinner for Sons and Daughters of Italy and their guests at the parish hall Valentine's evening, February 14. The dance will begin at 8:30.

Each member was asked to contribute an article for a cedar hope chest to be awarded later. A potluck luncheon was served following the business meeting.

New Member Guild Hostess

Mrs. David Jensen, a new member of the Wesley Service Guild, entertained the group at her home, 4416 Bristol Avenue, on Thursday, January 7. Dorothy Dickerson was co-hostess.

After a business meeting presided over by President Dorothy Dickerson, plans were discussed for the smorgasbord dinner tentatively set for April 30.

Mrs. Christine Murray led the devotions and the interesting lesson on Africa.

Those attending were Mrs. Irene Markham, Mrs. Alpha Phelps, Mrs. Clara Fink, Mrs. Thelma Elliott, Mrs. Florence McNeil, Mrs. Christine Murray, Mrs. Genevieve Schweigert, Mrs. Ruth Herman and the hostesses.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served during the social hour.

Home Vows Unite Pair

Mildred L. Bergman and William T. Lenninger were married in a 3 o'clock double ring ceremony on January 1 at the Martin Arnold home, 3206 Butte Street. The Rev. Robert C. Groves of the First Presbyterian Church officiated.

The bride wore a blue knit suit with matching hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of phalaenopsis orchids and she carried a Bible belonging to the bridegroom.

Mrs. Fae Arnold, matron of honor, was dressed in blue with a pink rose and carnation corsage.

Martin Arnold was best man. A three tiered wedding cake was served at the reception following the ceremony by Mrs. Laverne Wise. Mrs. John Lenninger presided at the coffee service. Linda Lenninger passed the guest book and Judy Lenninger received gifts.

Later in the evening a dinner was served to 30 close friends of the couple at the Arnold home.

Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lenninger are at home at 630 Pine Street.

Reno Rites Unite Couple

TULELAKE—Barbara Lileak of Klamath Falls and Con Novotny of Tulelake were married in a ceremony at Park Wedding Chapel, Reno, Saturday noon, January 10.

The bride wore a wine wool gown accented by a corsage of white carnations centered with a deep wine colored rose that matched her gown.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauldin, Klamath Falls, parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Novotny, Tulelake, parents of the bridegroom, accompanied them to Reno.

After a short honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Medford where the bridegroom is employed.

Dunsmuir Couple Exchanges Vows

DUNSMUIR—Judith Lynn Penman and David Lee Borders exchanged wedding vows at an informal ceremony at the Parks Wedding Chapel in Reno on the evening of January 5.

Both are from Dunsmuir. The new Mrs. Borders is a member of the Dunsmuir High School class of 1959, and is currently employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company here. The bridegroom also attended Dunsmuir schools and is now serving in the Navy.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Penman, accompanied the couple to the Nevada city for the double ring ceremony. An aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McElroy of Dunsmuir, served as wedding attendants. Another aunt, Mrs. Ethel Hage of Central Valley, was also present. The bridegroom's father is Robert Borders of Redding.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a rust sheath with black patent accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following a wedding trip to Sacramento and San Francisco, they returned to Dunsmuir. The bride will continue to live with her parents until her husband receives a shore assignment.
