

BETTY PERKINS, president of Sweet Adelines, presents a corsage to Nancy Bergman of the international group at a dinner given in her honor January 28.

Round About

By HELEN BECHEN

A good number of local folks are escaping the blustery days by doing a bit of traveling. Among them are the Ted Hydes who left this weekend for Portland where they will board a plane for the Islands. They will be a part of the Western Livestock Journal Cattle Tour and will for two weeks visit the largest operations in the Islands. Actually the trip will be more a homecoming, for the Hydes were married in Honolulu a little over 15 years ago. Ted served with the Hawaiian National Guard Regiment during World War II and Betty was working on a cost of living index for the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henzel will also join the Western Livestock Journal tour, having left by boat already.

Other Klamathites enjoying the balmy climate are the Lefe Stephens, the Loren Calhouns and Charles Heaton. And down Mexico way are the Howard Barnhisels, George Stevenson and the Dick Smiths.

Lieutenant Dennis Todd has sent word to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd, that he will leave on Monday for Heidelberg, Germany, for a 30-month assignment. He has just completed three months training at Fort Monmouth New Jersey. His wife, the former Nancy Warren, will return to the West Coast for a visit with her parents, the Lane Warrens now living in Palm Desert, and the Harry Todds before joining her husband.

Members of Reames Golf Club were treated to a delightful open house last Sunday by members of the board. It informally opened the new year for the club, now under new management of Dick and Dean Marks. They have given the big room a new look with pink fiber glass partitions and trickling waterfall set among potted plants. A pleasant corner for dining or snacks for those hardy souls who are braving the cold these days.

Mrs. George Merryman sails February 15 from Los Angeles aboard the SS Mariposa for an extended return tour of New Zealand and Australia. She and her traveling companion, Mrs. Archie Hunt, who have made many trips together, are looking forward to a week in the Fiji colony en route.

PIANO RECITAL

FORT ROCK—Piano pupils of Mrs. C. W. Boley gave a recital for their families January 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wagers. The pupils were Howard (Buck) McGee, Mrs. Richard Morehouse, Linda Kittredge, Marilyn Ward, Bill Parks and Mrs. Wagers. Refreshments and an informal time of visiting followed the presentation.

Bonanza Rebekahs

Fraternity Rebekah Lodge No. 106 of Bonanza met in regular session on Monday evening, January 4, with Marcene Holt, noble grand, presiding.

Plans were made for a card party to be held the last of January, date to be announced later. The white elephant was won by Gertrude Dick.

The next meeting on January 18 will be installation of officers. This will be a joint ceremony with the Odd Fellow Lodge. There will be a potluck dinner at 7 p.m. for all members and their families. The Rebekahs will furnish the baked ham.

Officers to be installed are Gertrude Dick, noble grand; Eva Roberts, vice grand; Marcene Holt, secretary and treasurer; Isabelle Hesolite, warden; Doris Butts, conductor; Esther Fernlund, inside guardian; Helen Derry, chaplain.

Hostesses for the social hour following the meeting were Mrs. Eva Roberts and Marcene Holt.

Sweet Adelines Entertain Guest

Nancy Bergman, executive secretary of Sweet Adelines Inc., from International Headquarters, Tulsa, was the distinguished visitor of the Crater Lake Chapter, Thursday, January 28.

A buffet dinner was given in her honor at Sari's Restaurant, for Sweet Adelines and their husbands. Everett Ball, director of the local chapter of Sweet Adelines, and members of his Barbershop Chorus were invited as guests.

SPEBSQSA members as well as an Adeline quartet and chorus entertained during the dinner.

The after-dinner activities included a barbershop craft session directed by Nancy Bergman, and quartet woodshedding by members from both groups. The visitor, with her very versatile voice, filled in as tenor with the women and as baritone with the men's quartet.

BRIDGE CLUB

ETNA — Dorice Young entertained her bridge club at her ranch home near Etna recently. Prizes were won by Mary Young and Bernice Smith. Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mary Young, Bernice Smith, Olive Kreuger, Helen Burkhardt, Amy Derham, Ruth Kelley and guest player, Mary McCrary.

Minnesota Home Is Wedding Scene

Ruth T. Gustavson of Klamath Falls returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. F. T. Gustavson in Minneapolis, Minnesota, for her wedding to Laurence J. Dyer of San Luis Obispo, California.

In a setting of Christmas decor and with a beautifully decorated tree as a background, the couple exchanged their nuptial vows on December 24 at 4:30 p.m. Relatives and close friends were present for the ceremony officiated by the Rev. Vernon Gustavson of the First Baptist Church of Norfolk, Nebraska, the bride's brother.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Dyer of Hermiston, Oregon.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, the Rev. A. K. Ham of Eau Claire, Wisconsin. She wore a champagne colored brocade street length dress with a corsage of three beige cymbidium orchids arranged with pink sweetheart roses.

Laverne Gustavson of Minneapolis, maid of honor for her sister, wore a raspberry red satin frock with a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

David Gustavson, nephew of the bride, served as best man.

Sharon Ham, the bride's niece, played traditional wedding music at a lovely old reed organ, a possession of the Gustavson family for many years.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gustavson chose a navy blue dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

The newlyweds were honored at an open house at the Gustavson home on December 26. Assisting were Edith Gustavson, Minnie Gustavson and Mrs. Vernon Gustavson.

The new Mrs. Dyer received a BS degree from the University of Minnesota and is presently county extension agent in home economics of Klamath County. Her husband is a student at California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo.

Engagement Is Announced

LAKEVIEW — The engagement of their daughter, Melba, to Dick Callender of Central Point has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Elton Snow of Lakeview. A summer wedding is planned.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Lakeview High School and Southern Oregon College. She is presently teaching the fifth grade in the Salem school system.

Dick Callender is a senior at Southern Oregon College where he is majoring in secondary science education.

Betrothal News Is Revealed

LOOKOUT—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Joiner announced the engagement of their daughter, Peggy, to Ted Crum of Pittville during a buffet supper in their home recently.

A summer wedding is planned to follow the bride-elect's graduation from the Big Valley High School. She has been active in the 4-H club and was a Modoc County 4-H all star in 1959.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crum of Pittville, is a graduate of the Fall River High School. He was active in the Future Farmers of America, earning state farmer honors in 1956.

LITTLE SHASTA CLUB

MONTAGUE—The home of Mrs. Aldee Davis in Little Shasta was the setting for the Little Shasta Auction Club recently with Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger and Mrs. Larry Walters sharing hostess duties. High prizes for the afternoon went to Mrs. Brice Long, and Mrs. George Flock; Jessie Connrod received the traveling prize and a low prize, while another low prize was presented to Mrs. Edna Muzall. A special prize was given to Mrs. David Ellison. Others present in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. Orlo Davis, Mrs. Ralph Leavers, Mrs. Gladys Hart, Mrs. Allie Moore, Mrs. Ora McGregor and Mrs. Ernest Williams.
