WANT-AD WONDERS

Famous Postman Got Job From A Want Ad

"Snowshoe" Thompson, the famous and heroic postman on skis, for whom the Squaw Valley winter Olympic site will be renamed "Snowshoe Thompson State Park" began as a mailman by answering a want ad.

The ad, which appeared in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, started, "People lost to the world: Uncle Sam needs a mail carrier." It went on to tell of families snowbound in the mountains to whom no mail was being delivered.

"Snowshoe" Thompson took the job and became one of the legends of the West.
