

INSTANT COFFEE

Klamath Falls has been a "good coffee-drinking town" since early days when it was a boom lumber industry town.

Residents of the area drank old-fashioned boiled coffee, with a little crumbled eggshell to clear the throat.

SURPRISE MUFFINS

"Surprise Muffins" have a built-in flavor secret: finely chopped parsley and instant minced onion. These little hot breads are tender, light and moist and so elegantly flavored you'll be serving them often. As with all muffins, to be sure of best volume and texture, don't overmix the batter. Serve "Surprise Muffins" soon for luncheon or supper and see how gentle, fresh flavored and mild onion can be when mixed with instant coffee.

SURPRISE MUFFINS

2 teaspoons instant minced onion
1 cup milk
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup melted shortening or oil
1 beaten egg
1/4 cup finely chopped parsley
Measure onion into milk, sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt into mixing bowl. Add all remaining ingredients and mix just until dampened (do not overbeat). Spoon into greased muffin cups. Bake in a hot oven (440 degrees) for 20 to 25 minutes.
Makes one dozen medium-size muffins.

QUICK MEAL

Top drained canned blue lake green beans with thin slices of ham or luncheon meat and grated sharp cheese or a little cheese sauce. Heat under the broiler until the cheese is bubbly and lightly browned. Serve this light entree with a flavorful fruit salad and beverage; round out the meal with spice cake or cookies.

LEFTOVERS

Grate the last ends and pieces of cheese, blend with California port or sherry wine and allow to mellow for several days in a cool place. Serve with crisp crackers for a thrifty yet sophisticated dessert or snack.

CENTER CUTS

ITALIAN PANCAKES are suggested by the girls in the Betty Crocker Kitchens who like to experiment with new taste treats. Make them with pancake mix. Fill with a mixture of ground beef, cheese and egg; roll up and serve with your favorite tomato sauce topping. Crepes with a big difference.

Pancakes

Now even pancakes have gone Italian! And what a special delicious treat this is! Elegant thin pancakes rolled around a mixture of ground beef seasoned with onion and sour cream and topped with tomato sauce makes a perfect Sunday night supper! Thin, elegant pancakes are easily made with butter-milk pancake mix. Add just egg, milk and a bit of oil. The filling is simple, too. Ground beef mixes with onion, salt and pepper. Fry a bit, add an egg and seasonings and blend in sour cream or cottage cheese.

Spoon on pancakes, roll up and place in oven for a few minutes. Top with tomato sauce. Better make a double batch... you can bet everyone will be back for seconds! Here is the recipe as developed in the Betty Crocker kitchens: ITALIAN PANCAKES 1 cup Betty Crocker Butter-milk Pancake Mix 1/4 cups milk 1 egg 1 tbsp. cooking (sauté) oil or melted shortening Heat oven to 350 degrees. Mix pancake mix, milk, egg and shortening. Beat with rotary beater until smooth. Bake 10 or 12 five inch pancakes. Hold between towels. Spoon equal portions of filling (recipe below) on pancakes. Roll and place in baking dish, 11x7 1/2x1 1/2 inch or an ovenproof skillet. Bake 15 minutes. Serve with heated Tomato Sauce (8 oz. can tomato sauce seasoned with salt and pepper) and Parmesan cheese.

FILLING 1/2 pound ground beef 1 small onion, chopped or 1 tsp. instant dry onion 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon pepper 1 egg, slightly beaten 1 cup cottage cheese or sour cream Brown beef and onion in small amount of fat. Add seasonings and egg. Blend in cottage cheese. Spoon on pancakes.

SAUCE When roasting chicken, duck or pork (especially on your rotisserie) a combination of California wine and orange juice makes a richly flavored glaze. Baste the meat often during roasting for deep color and flavor.

WEATHER NEWS

The Weather Bureau says home-makers can expect 23 out of 52 washdays in 1960 to be rainy or windy. The bureau didn't mention snow in the back yard under the lines.
