

A ROYAL COURT reigned over the annual King of Hearts Ball given by Bethel No. 6, Job's Daughters, on February 6. The Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel was beautifully decorated in a Valentine theme which included glittering hearts lettered with the names of the royal escorts. Bob Ellingson was chosen King of Hearts and was crowned by Susan Moss, honored queen of the bethel. Pictured, left to right, are Linda Heyden, Rich Moore, Julie Bratton, Steve Binney, King Bob, Queen Susan, Jim Parks, Charlotte Heyden, Dean Dunson and Joan Wizer. In front are Debra and Michael Hadlock, children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hadlock, who were crown and sword bearer during the ceremony. — Photo by Guderian

Serena Smith Receives Honor

Serena Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Smith of Klamath Falls, was recently chosen as accompanist for the University of Washington Glee Club. The outstanding pianist attended Boston University last year, but transferred to the University of Washington this fall for her second year as a Russian language major.

ANNUAL DINNER

On Monday evening, January 25, approximately 80 members of Catholic Daughters of America, Court Klamath, and their escorts enjoyed the annual potluck supper in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall. The supper was followed by an evening of card play. Brady Narcy was high in bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Abbott in pinocle, and Mrs. Katherine Smith, whist. Mrs. Marguerite Slowey was chairman of the evening.

Past Matrons Report Meeting

Clarice Epperson, Betty Norris and Louise O'Brian were hostesses at the regular luncheon meeting January 29 of the Aloha Past Matrons Club in the reception room of the Masonic Temple. Betty Hunter, president, opened the business meeting after luncheon. Norma Uerlings was named chairman of the gift box sent each June to the Masonic and Eastern Star homes in Forest Grove.

Edna Jones and Sally Wood were appointed to the sunshine committee. Gwen Pierson was welcomed as a new member of the club. A special prize was won by Phyllis Poole.

Bridge and canasta were played during the remainder of the afternoon. The club meets the last Friday of each month.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEETS

CRESCENT — Forty members attended the Crescent Community Club's regular meeting held recently in the club. E. B. Stumbaugh, president, presided. Mrs. Jesse Kersten, entertainment committee chairman, announced the date for the Woodchoppers Ball has been set for March 26. Candidates for Mrs. Woodchopper of 1960 will be revealed at a later date. Charles Shotts, building committee chairman, asked for volunteers to help on the building projects at the club for coming work days. Bill Lash invited everyone to attend the square dances which are to be held the first and third Saturdays of each month. Mrs. Dale Brewer told the group skating will resume at the club on Sunday afternoons.
