HORN BROOK SOCIETY
HORN BROOK—A potluck luncheon preceded the regular meeting of the Hornbrook Women's Society. Adams, a recent bride, is the former Barbara Burns of Hornbrook. Mrs. Clawson conducted the devotional period under the heading of "The Year Ahead." Following the business session, the afternoon was spent in viewing gifts which were wrapped for a parcel post shower for Mrs. Randall Adams of San Diego. Mrs. Adams, a recent bride, is the former Barbara Burns of Hornbrook. The home of Mrs. L. C. Walsh will be the setting for the next business meeting of the society on Thursday, February 25.

Judith Dockery January Bride

Judith Marie Dockery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dockery of 126 South Carroll Street, became the bride of Donald L. Crowe of Kingsley Field on January 7. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eddie Bigby in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Knapp, 1147 East Street. Nancy and Dale Knapp, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles for the seven o'clock service witnessed by 35 relatives and friends. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Rachael Crowe of Knoxville, Illinois.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of white lace over satin. She carried a red rosebud corsage on a white Bible.

Eulalie Knapp was maid of honor for her cousin. Richard Sullivan served as best man.

HOUSEWARMING

TULELAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard were surprised with a housewarming Friday evening, January 15. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Workman, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolesta, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Kirby, and Marge Bradley. The group presented the Howards a gift for their home. Cards were played during the evening.

Christine Bates sang "I Love You Truly."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dockery chose a dark blue dress accented with a pink carnation corsage.

At the reception following the ceremony Mrs. George W. Reagan served the wedding cake and Mrs. Andrew Denham and Mrs. Kenneth Dixon presided at the coffee and punch tables.

The young couple will reside in Klamath Falls.

Club Welcomes New Members

Dorothy Harrington, president, called to order the dinner meeting of the Klamath Saddle Club on February 2 in the Pelican Party Room. She read a clever poem to welcome new members, Georgia Ring and Bertha Caldwell, and presented each with a spring flower corsage.

A table centerpiece of blue and white flowers carried out the Saddle Club colors. Georgia Lane and Pat Kirkpatrick, hostesses, presented an evening of fun and entertainment for the initiation of the two new members. Vi Ruge won first and Bertha Caldwell second in the games played.

During the business meeting Vi Ruge made a report on the dishes that have been ordered for the club house.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mary Britton with Clara Howard and Donna Abner as co-hostesses.

Members present included Clara Howard, Mary Britton, Francis McNeely, Maxine Summers, Juanita Stevens, Beverly Negrevski, Georgia Lane, Donna Abner, Georgia Ring, Bonnie McMahon, Vi Ruge, Bertha Caldwell, Laura Dunlavey, Audrey Herrick, Vi Hill, Bessie Lilly, Ernie Read, Pat Kirkpatrick and Dorothy Harrington.

PTA CARD PARTY

NEW PINE CREEK — Several from here attended the Willow Ranch PTA card party held here recently. Mrs. Susan Vincent won the ladies high and also the traveling prize. Roy Markstrom was high for the men, with consolation going to Art Lenkeit. Refreshments were served following the awarding of the prizes.
