Rainbow Girls Install Officers

White trellis and red roses in the theme of "Love and Friendship" decorated the Scottish Rite Temple for the public installation of Rainbow for Girls, Klamath Falls Assembly No. 57, on January 17. Linda Hall was crowned worthy adviser by Dave Kennon of the Lost River Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Installing officers included Mary Ott, worthy adviser; Lynn West, chaplain; Sue Lund, recorder; Mrs. Louise Hagen, musician; Sandra Hubert, marshal; Mrs. Edith Barleen, mother adviser.

Soloist, Lynn Ferrell, sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Trees" and closed with "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

The officers to serve this term are: Kayleen Johnson, worthy associate adviser; Sally Ann Lee, charity; Opal Morgan, hope; Karen Goen, faith; Lois Price, recorder; Jackie George, treasurer; Myrtle Harrison, chaplain; Janet Phillips, drill leader; Nancy Kozak, love; Sheena Rightmire, religion; Darlene Gentry, nature; Melodie Scott, immortality; Diana Rogers, fidelity; Diane Meade, patriotism; Susan Leiser, service; Binny Fredricks, confidential observer; Ginger Hubbard, outer observer; Ramona Soto, musician; and Darlene Brown, choir director.

White capes with red music staffs outlined on one side were worn by choir members, Susan Banta, Jan Hinner, Dorothy Benson, Cheryl Meade, Sue Witt, Nancy Perrigotte, Linda Dean, Joyce Rowden and Claudia Mays.

The officers carried white muffs with red roses and white streamers pinned to them.

Mrs. Mary Anderson is the mother adviser and Ernest Wallin, Rainbow Dad. Others on the board for 1960 include Mrs. Lorene Grant, Mrs. Susie Harris, Mrs. Katherine Kozak, Mrs. Lois Murphy, Mrs. Helen Rightmire, member of the state executive committee, Cres Reed, Dr. James Creswell, Ralph Darmody, A. H. Thompson and Bob Henry.

Linda Hall presented the past worthy adviser jewel to Mary Ott. Mrs. Margaret Brooks received the past mother adviser pin.

Assisting in the crowning ceremony were Bob Elliott, Gary Say, Aubrey Campbell, Chuck Blofsky, Larry Moffitt, Don Berry and Mike Ferguson.

Refreshments were served following the installation.

EULALONA DAR

Eulalona Chapter, DAR, met Monday evening, February 1, at the Community Lounge. Mrs. Dick Owens, flag chairman, spoke on "The History of the Flag." As of July 4, 1960, 27 different flags will have officially flown over the United States. One third of our flags have changed after only one year of use and five others lasted but two years. Only six of the 27 flags have endured over 10 years.

Mrs. Phillip Brixner showed a film, which has been purchased by the county school system, portraying the history of the flag. Following this excellent program the regular business meeting with annual reports was conducted by Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, regent. The annual call to conference was read. This will be held in Eugene March 9, 10 and 11 at the Eugene Hotel. Several delegates from Eulalona Chapter will attend.

Mrs. L. H. Stone turned over to the Historic Trailways contest judging committee 33 papers written by students in the two junior high schools, Fremont and Altamont. First, second and third place awards will be given to each school.

Mrs. Raymond Hall gave a report on national defense and asked that particular attention be given to the proposed changes now being considered for the World Court. Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm reported on a recent article in Harpers as written by George Feiler, a guide at the recent American exhibit held in Moscow.

Annual reports were read by Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, regent, and Mrs. William L. Wales Jr., treasurer. The regent's report will be presented in brief fashion to the state conference.

The nominating committee submitted the following names for officers: Mrs. Julian Ager, regent; Mrs. Raymond Hall, vice regent; Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, chaplain; Mrs. Alfred Cottingham, secretary; Mrs. Dick Owens, treasurer; Mrs. Charles K. Wells, registrar; Mrs. R. S. Loosley, historian; and Mrs. Dick Hensel, librarian. Voting was unanimous and the new officers were installed by Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, past regent. Lovely corsages were presented to the board members by Mrs. A. O. Roenicke. The chapter presented Mrs. Julian Ager with a memorial plate of Mount Vernon as sponsored by the National Society.

A lovely tea table was set by the hostesses, Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, Mrs. William C. Bundrant, Mrs. S. R. Berry and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote. The next meeting will be March

REMEMBER THIS Just for a change: thicken tomato sauce with cornstarch instead of flour.

GIVE IT A LIFT You can give tomato juice a lift by combining it with bottled clam juice.
