

PAT LINDLEY, left, outgoing president of Klamath Falls Nile Club, served as installing officer at the February 3 meeting at the Willard Hotel. New officers pictured with her, left to right, Jean Coddington, president; Jean Aldrich, vice president; Gretchen Thompson, secretary; Laurie Olson, treasurer.

Nile Club Elects Officers

Officers for 1960-61 were elected and installed when Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls met for its regular luncheon meeting at the Willard Hotel February 3. Patricia Lindley, outgoing president, presented and installed Jean Coddington, president; Jean Aldrich, vice president; Gretchen Thompson, secretary; and Laurie Olson, treasurer. Following the reading of the official duties, each was presented with a corsage. Officers for 1959, Margaret Larkin, secretary, and Mary Totton, treasurer, were thanked for their services to the club.

The Pine Grove Room was beautifully decorated with artificial white roses and green tulle with cutouts of the Nile emblem in honor of the 29th birthday of the Klamath Falls club. Decoration chairman for the day was Jane Filcraft.

Helen McCormack, chairman of the day, introduced her committee.

Coie Brown introduced and presented Mildred Steele who was initiated into the Nile Club at the December ceremonial.

President Pat Lindley introduced her committee for the past year: Betty Kellstrom and Marge Dugan, co-chairmen of sewing; Carrie Rush, Christmas box; Wilma Wiley, Thanksgiving box; Jean Coddington, calling; Mildred Burke, birthday bank; chaplain, Emogene Jones; music, Helen O'Neill; program, Jean Aldrich and Billie Balsiger; sickness and distress, Grace Huls; Temple hostesses, Dorothea Buck, Blanche Schulze and Kathleen Ward; publicity, Faith Brock.

Special prizes for the day were awarded Myrtle Ellingson, Ruth Renie and Peggy Chilcote. Birthday awards went to Johnny Ritter and Lillian Hillis.

A special table honored past presidents, Florence Steinseiter, Myrtle Ellingson, Lillian Hillis, Ailsa Kuykendall, Ruth Holcomb, Florence West and Madge McLaren.

Program chairman, Jean Aldrich, introduced talented Sandy Ruonich, who entertained with several piano numbers.

The next meeting of Klamath Nile Club will be March 2.

BABY CLOTHES

Use plenty of hot water and detergent when washing baby oil out of cottons. If you do this there will be no small balls of oil clinging to the clothes.

Women's Club Supports Program

DUNSMUIR — Support for the American Field Service foreign exchange student program was voted by the Dunsmuir Women's Club at the January luncheon meeting at the Hotel Dunsmuir.

One hundred dollars was voted toward the expense of sending a Dunsmuir student abroad this summer to live with a foreign family for three months.

Dunsmuir also plans to be host to a foreign student this fall.

A sign for the city library is also planned by the club as a civic project. During the business meeting a letter was read from the Ventura School for Girls thanking the club for the Christmas gifts sent.

Members viewed slides of Europe as the entertainment portion of the meeting. Peggy Walsh, who recently took a trip abroad with her husband and two children, gave a brief resume of the itinerary.

Mrs. Rex Baymiller, president, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Stewart Chandler presented the guest speaker.

Past Officers Enjoy Luncheon

The Rebekah Past Noble Grands Club held a regular meeting on Tuesday, February 2, at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Hogue. A potluck luncheon was enjoyed by 10 members and afterwards a meeting was held with Helen McCormack conducting.

Election of officers was held with Alma Cofor elected as president; Helen McCormack, secretary; Margaret Biden, vice president and Vera Clemmens as treasurer.

The group voted to send a contribution for a bond to the Sustaining Perpetual Membership Fund, an endowment project for the IOOF Home in Portland.

Plans were made for the next meeting to be held on March 1 at the home of Charmion Johnson. Members are reminded that the potluck luncheon is at 12:30 and all past noble grands are invited to attend.

WOOL WASH

Before washing a woolen garment, lay it on a towel and outline its shape on the towel with pins. Then after the garment is washed lay it flat on the pin marked towel and pat it into shape. Dry it flat away from the sun or radiator heat. After the top surface is dry turn the garment over.

ETNA REBEKAHS

ETNA—The regular meeting of the Aureola Rebekah Lodge No. 113 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was held Thursday, January 14, with Noble Grand Laura Grossen in charge.

Visitors were Juanita Evans of Fort Jones and Atlanta Adams of Weed.

A letter asking the lodge to commemorate the date January 15, birthday of Thomas Wildiey, founder of the order in America; Schuyler Colfax's birthday March 23, the writer of the Rebekah Degree in Old Fellowship; April 26, anniversary of the Odd Fellows; September 29, Rebekah Degree anniversary; and July 4, good will day, which is also the anniversary of the Canadian lodges, was received from Sovereign Grand Master D. D. Roberts.

Invitations to receptions for grand assembly officers, Jane Jansen, musician for the Capitol Rebekah Lodge No. 100 of Sacramento on February 6 and for Alma Geiger, inside guardian, of Long Valley Rebekah Lodge No. 598 of Laytonville on February 13, were received by the lodge.

Augusta Rotan was appointed chairman for the Heart Fund for the lodge.

At the close of the business meeting a party honored Past District Deputy President Eleanor Lewis. Games were played and prizes were won by Frances Smith, Bernice Smith, Eleanor Lewis and Atlanta Adams. Refreshments were served and the honored guest cut a cake baked and decorated by Virginia Roberts. Mrs. Lewis was presented a gift from lodge members by Claire M. Potter. The committee in charge of the evening was Claire M. Potter, Laura Grossen, Letha Palmer and Dorice Young.

Indian hieroglyphics in a red sandstone cave near Clarksville, Arkansas, never have been deciphered.

The Advisory Board for Rainbow Girls are as follows: Mary Anderson, mother adviser, Lorene Grant, Katherine Kozak, Susie Harris, Lois Murphy and Helen Rightmiller.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Naomi French, chairman, assisted by Lawrence French and Martha Walker.

Weed Couples End Island Stay

WEED—Holiday time in Hawaii was enjoyed this season by four Siskiyou County couples who are now at home following their round trip via Pan-American Jet Clipper.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arnberg, Yreka, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Davidson, Fort Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eiler, Gazelle, left San Francisco December 20 and were guests at the Reef Hotel on Waikiki Beach over the Christmas season.

They were greeted on the islands by the Steeles' grandson, Lt. O. K. Steele, stationed there as aide-de-camp to Brigadier General Weedes over the Pacific Coast Division of the Marines.

Reels of colored movies will relate to the vacationers' many friends, the sights of tours of the islands of Kauai, Oahu, Maui and Hawaii. Visits to sugar cane and pineapple plantations, orchid nurseries, coffee processing plants and the active volcanic area were side trips taken by the Siskiyouans. Travel to and from the islands for the tours is strictly by air-jet turbine planes.

Special breakfasts and luncheons at the Moana Hotel and a Luau at the Queen's Surf Hotel added to the pleasures of the island visit. Christmas morning services under the auspices of the Knights Templar were attended by the group in the Masonic Temple in Honolulu. Lt. Keith MacPherson, U.S.N.R. was the chaplain.

Mr. and Mrs. Steele were guests with their grandson and Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Thomas Wornham for Christmas dinner at the home of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Weedes.

After the return flight to San Francisco, the Davidsons remained in the Bay Area to attend the annual Shriners' East-West football classic. The Eilers, Steeles and Arnbergs returned to their homes in time to welcome in the New Year.

MANZANITA OES

A regular meeting of Manzanita Chapter No. 172 OES was held Wednesday, January 13, in the Scottish Rite Temple. Nina Hall, worthy matron, and William Steiner, worthy patron, presided.

The decorations for the evening were the Eastern Star emblem with the worthy matron's motto of "Love and Harmony" in the east and the chapter colors of blue and white flowers in the west.

First time visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Barger from Yamhill Chapter, new residents of Klamath Falls. It was also announced during the meeting that Florence Foss is getting married and moving to Eugene.

The Advisory Board for Rainbow Girls are as follows: Mary Anderson, mother adviser, Lorene Grant, Katherine Kozak, Susie Harris, Lois Murphy and Helen Rightmiller.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Naomi French, chairman, assisted by Lawrence French and Martha Walker.

NEW SILHOUETTE

Dresses for resort show top width. Sometimes this takes the form of deep dolman sleeves and sometimes of the sleeveless bulky top. It's a silhouette to watch.

Former Teacher Weds In Idaho

BONANZA — Marilyn Delores Mathews, former teacher at Bonanza High School, was married on December 27 at Emmett, Idaho, to John Harold Helle. The candlelight ceremony was performed at the Emmett Christian Church at 3 p.m. with the Rev. Leland Earls officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bowman, Emmett. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Helle, Fargo, North Dakota.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of organza and Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of red roses. Pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's sister, Jeanne Bowman, was maid of honor and Karen Bowman, another sister, was bridesmaid. They wore red chiffon gowns and carried cascades of red carnations. Candelights were Dale Bowman and Judy Bowman.

Joe Helle was best man for his brother, Don Gronbeck, Arco, and Austin Young, Shoshone, were ushers.

Bethene Nichols sang the nuptial solos with Mrs. F. Dresser at the piano.

The traditional "something old" was an arrangement of satin roses in the bridal bouquet. The roses were worn by the bride's grandmother on her wedding dress 36 years ago.

A reception for 50 friends and relatives followed the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Joe Villanueva, Mrs. W. E. Kroush, Mrs. Dick Weeks, Kay Kelly, Mrs. Clarence Bowman, Rajejan Chapin and Mrs. Robert Rhodes.

After a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, the bride and groom are at home in Lewiston where the bride, a graduate of the University of Idaho, is teaching school. He completes a two years masters program in fisheries at the University of Idaho this year.

New Member Joins Auxiliary

MERRILL — One new member was initiated and welcomed into the Merrill American Legion Auxiliary during a regular business meeting held on Tuesday, January 12.

Presentation of the new member, Mrs. Marjorie Newnam, was made by Mrs. Lena Buck, sergeant-at-arms. Participating in the ceremony were Mrs. Walter Moore, Mrs. Thelma Stukel, Mrs. Warren Fruits, Mrs. Don Harris and Mrs. Paul Lewis.

An account on the Chapel of the Four Chaplains located at Temple University in Philadelphia was reported by Mrs. Lena Buck.

Donations were made to the national president's project, "Crusade for Freedom," and the March of Dimes.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Moore, president.

THE BIRTHDAY of Geneva Swift was the occasion for all her children and grandchildren to gather at her home, 5538 South Sixth Street, on January 3 when this picture was taken. Back row, left to right, are Dan Johnson, Jack Bonham, Geneva Bonham, holding Pepper, the Bonham family pet, and Jimmy Swift.

Front row, same order, are Dianna Johnson, Thelma Johnson holding Dan Jr. and Pretty Girl, Geneva Swift, Susan Swift, Edgar Swift, Mike Swift, Gwen Swift and Darrell Flora. The Jimmy Swift family came for the occasion from their home in Irvington, California. —Photo by Miller-Williams

Two Celebrate Silver Wedding

LAKEVIEW — The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Troxell was the occasion of a gathering of approximately 50 relatives and friends on New Year's Day to celebrate the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Troxell were married in Medford January 1, 1935. On January 1 of 1960 a reception was held at their home in Lakeview where they greeted guests. From out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Hood River, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Troxell of Medford. Mrs. Smith is a sister and Wayne Troxell a brother of Vern Troxell.

A piece of the original wedding cake was displayed, and the beautiful wedding cake which was made and decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Smith was served by her. Mrs. Wayne Troxell poured coffee and Mrs. Rudy McLane, the punch. Ruth Troxell, daughter of the couple, handled the guest book, assisted by Terry Linceum and Charles Smith.

On New Year's Eve the Troxells were honored at a dinner party at Van's followed by a gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McLane where they were presented with a money tree holding twenty five silver dollars.

Members Attend Valentine Social

MERRILL—A luncheon meeting and Valentine social was attended by 12 members of the Merrill Library Club on Wednesday, February 3, at the Sportsman's Hotel in Tulelake.

Table decorations of arrangements of pink roses and white carnations and lily of the valley centered the luncheon tables. Ornately decorated chocolate hearts were placed at each setting. All decorations were designed by Mrs. Jim Baxter.

Guest at the meeting was Mrs. Emma Nelson introduced by Mrs. Bert Johnson.

An exchange of Valentines and handkerchiefs was held by the members. Mrs. Garwood Walp received the special prize. A valentine cake was awarded to Mrs. Dan Geaney.

A librarian's report, prepared by Mrs. George Mattson, reported that the circulation of books and magazines during 1959 totalled 1,630.

It was decided that individual members would donate special prizes and gifts for each meeting.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. William Poe.

Womens Club Holds Meeting

BONANZA — Mrs. Lillian Bechdold and Mrs. Dorothy Peterson were hostesses to members of the Bonanza Women's Club which met at the library the afternoon of February 2.

The business meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Veta Williams.

A discussion was held on the fall bazaar and some of the committees were appointed. Mrs. Veta Haley and Mrs. Noma Bechdold are to order pillowcases to be embroidered and Mrs. Williams donated tea towels.

Donna Dixon was appointed to buy a gift for Dorothy Peterson, chairman of the bazaar last December.

The secretary of the club, Margaret Burnett, was appointed as the registered agent for the Bonanza Women's Club Corporation.

A club party will be given in March by Margaret Burnett, Cora Leavitt, Elsa Rueck, Birdie Burk and Patty Schmidt.

Refreshments were served to Veta Williams, Ida Rowcliffe, Annie Cline, Birdie Burk, Veta Haley, Florence Horn, Donna Dixon, Margaret Burnett and Noma Bechdold.

Whytal's
LADIES APPAREL
901 Main Ph. TU 4-8222

Naturalizer
THE SHOE WITH THE BEAUTIFUL FIT

BONE OR PATENT
Just one step and you'll love the feel of this wonderful Naturalizer mid-heel pump. Heel-hugging toe-free fit are a trademark of Naturalizer's comfort!

Choose Your Pair Now!
Use Our Convenient Lay Away Plan.

Shoes For The Whole Family
Mens - Womens - Childrens
Boqatay's SHOES
617 Main

new....
anSwEr
combination by Gossard
Slip into one long smooth line from bust to thigh! Plush-backed inner elastic bands erase bulges—instantly. Light nylon power net smooths you up, down and all around. Embroidered nylon marquisette bust cups. White, sizes 34-40 B cup; 34-42 C cup.
20.00
For Your Shopping Convenience
... Open a Whytal's Charge Acct.

which girl has glasses?

BOTH — one wears CONTACTS!

Actually, both pictures are of Dr. Noles' 13-year old daughter who has worn contact lenses 16 hours a day for the past two years. And... she wears dark green tinted contact lenses for swimming and skiing.

A dramatic illustration of the cosmetic and psychological benefits to be derived from wearing contact lenses.

why not send the WHOLE girl back to school?

• Convenient Credit
• We give 2-1/2% Green Stamps

our 55th year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.
730 Main St. TU 4-7121
*Drs. Omar J. Noles and Robert Peters

NEW 'Ballad' DESIGN
IN COMMUNITY*
THE FINEST SILVERPLATE

Ballad serving pieces give a touch of brilliant elegance to the home of today. Each handsome piece carries the same beautiful Ballad design motif seen in the place setting pieces. At these new moderate prices...

4-Pc. Tea and Coffee Set shown above $126.50 T.L.	Below... Roll Tray 13 1/2 in. $14.95 T.L.
20 in. Serving Tray $38.50 T.L.	Double Vegetable Dish 12 1/4 in. $32.95 T.L.

*Trade-marks of Oneida Ltd.

Pickys Jewelers
700 Main St. Ph. TU 4-3151